Art Of Ritual:

The Art of Ritual Renee Beck, Sydney Barbara Metrick, 1990 Rituals mark life's momentous and symbolic events from special birthdays and holidays to personal affairs such as a child's first day of school or the death of a beloved pet. Over time and as people and circumstances change, some rituals become merely habitual, losing their significance and creating a hunger for more meaningful methods of celebration. In THE ART OF RITUAL, Renee Beck and Sydney Barbara Metrick explain the power, relevance, and need for ritual, describing the various types of rituals and their myths, symbols, and history, as well as how to prepare, perform, and complete rituals. Integrate the five elements into ritual practice. Craft and consecrate ritual tools. Make and use altars. This revised and updated edition also includes a new healing ritual for small groups and a series of self-exploration exercises that assist with the integration of ritual into daily life. Presenting a multitude of ways to create ceremonies for healing, growth, and change, Beck and Metrick will inspire you to honor each rite of passage in a truly personal way. A guide to creating rituals, vows, and affirmations to celebrate important events, promote healing and growth, or affect change. Includes guidelines for creating personal, family, or group rituals, as well as advice for crafting and consecrating tools, making an altar, and using the five elements to balance your rites. The Art of Ritual Renee Beck, Sydney Barbara and have significant political capital      Food in the Arts Harlan Walker,1999 A further volume in this series this year discussing not so much food or its preparation as its portrayal in any number of art forms such as popular music crime novels film theatre literature and fine art There are also some papers which concentrate on the art of food or art relating to food an instance is the art of tissue paper orange wrappers a recondite but riveting item My impression when this subject was first mooted was that all contributions would revolve around paintings and high arts I was mistaken there is a remarkable spread the arrangement of 18th century desserts cookery and the Cuban Santeria religion drink in 19th century English fiction food in film noir the cook as artist in 18th century England architectural food design in France and Italy popcorn poetry food and eating in Bronte novels and much more These volumes are sometimes indigestible fricassees if swallowed at once but think of them as platters of oysters each may contain a pearl By the finish a bracelet at least perhaps a necklace is the consequence
