Art in Small-scale Societies Richard L. Anderson, Karen L. Field, 1993 Each one of the 34 readings in this text is derived from rigorously collected field data and addresses the major questions about art in small scale societies what does art do what meanings does it convey who makes it how is it conceptualized by those who use it and how does it change with the passage of time Over 100 illustrations provide visual references and the text represents a wide variety of cultures art forms not only visual arts but performing arts as well authorial voices and theoretical models For artists sociologists undergraduate and graduate readers

Art in Small-scale Societies Richard L. Anderson, 1989 Using information from many in depth fieldwork studies of hunter gatherer horticultural and pastoral peoples from around the world this book provides a comprehensive account of the major questions regarding art in its cultural context Anderson presents are not as exotic looking museum pieces but as aesthetically powerful artifacts that play vital roles in the social intellectual and affective lives of the people who make and use them

The Anthropology of Art Robert Layton, 1991-08-30 An authoritative introduction to art forms in the non Western world addresses the problem of cross cultural aesthetic appreciation in societies ranging from traditional West African craftsmen to Australian hunter gatherers

Arguing About Art Alex Neill, Aaron Ridley, 2013-02-01 Offering a unique debate format the third edition of the bestselling Arguing About Art is ideal for newcomers to aesthetics or philosophy of art This lively collection presents an extensive range of short clear introductions to each of the discussions which include sentimentality appreciation interpretation understanding objectivity nature food horror With revised introductions updated suggestions for further reading and new sections on pornography and societies without art Arguing About Art provides a stimulating and accessible anthology suitable for those coming to aesthetics for the first time The book will also appeal to students of art history literature and cultural studies

The Aesthetic Mind Elisabeth Schellekens, Peter Goldie, 2011-10-13 The Aesthetic Mind breaks new ground in bringing together empirical sciences and philosophy to enhance our understanding of aesthetics and the experience of art An eminent international team of experts presents new research in philosophy psychology neuroscience and social anthropology they explore the roles of emotion imagination empathy and beauty in this realm of human experience ranging over visual and literary art music and dance Among the questions discussed are Why do we engage with things aesthetically and why do we create art Does art or aesthetic experience have a function or functions Which characteristics distinguish aesthetic mental states Which skills or abilities do we put to use when we engage aesthetically with an object and how does that compare with non aesthetic experiences What does our ability to create art and engage aesthetically with things tell us about what it is to be a human being This ambitious and far reaching volume is essential reading for anyone investigating the aesthetic and the artistic

The Anthropology of Art Howard Morphy, Morgan Perkins, 2009-02-04 This anthology provides a single volume overview of the essential theoretical debates in the anthropology of art Drawing together significant work in the field from the second half of the twentieth century it enables readers to appreciate the art of different cultures at different times

Advances a cross cultural concept of art that moves beyond traditional distinctions between Western and non Western art
Provides the basis for the appreciation of art of different cultures and times Enhances readers appreciation of the aesthetics of art and of the important role it plays in human society      Between the Folds Jill Forshee,2001-01-01 Textiles have long been integral to the social life and cosmology of the people of East Sumba Indonesia In recent decades the villagers have entered a larger world economy as their textiles have joined the commodity flow of an international ethnic arts market stimulated by Indonesia s tourist trade As the people of Sumba respond to an immensely expanded commerce in their cloth tensions and ironies emerge between history and innovation in both cloth and lives      Anthropology, Art and Cultural Production Maruska Svasek,2007-02-20 This book provides an introduction to anthropological perspectives on art Svasek defines art as a social process We study not only the artefacts themselves and the values attributed to them but also the process of production and its wider context Providing a critical overview of various anthropological theories of art Svasek offers a new perspective which centres on the analysis of commoditisation aestheticisation and object agency She explores the process of collecting and exhibiting art works and how this relates to art s production distribution and consumption in an increasingly global market The book outlines the significance of art and aesthetics in everyday life and examines the shifting boundaries between art and other categories such as kitsch souvenirs propaganda and pornography Finally Svasek argues for an anthropological perspective that links the production and consumption of artefacts to political religious and other cultural processes Ideal as a teaching text this book gives a detailed overview of themes that are central to the fields of art history art sociology and cultural studies      Philosophical Perspectives on Art Stephen Davies,2010-02-18 A particularly useful informative and stimulating work for any reader with an interest in the philosophy of art Katerina Bantinaki Analysis
Art of Island Southeast Asia Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),Florina H. Capistrano-Baker,1994
Explaining Creativity Robert Keith Sawyer,Danah Henriksen,2024 Genius Invention Talent And of course creativity These words describe the highest levels of human performance When we re engaged in the act of being creative we feel we are performing at the peak of our abilities Creative works give us insight and enrich our lives Creativity is part of what makes us human Our nearest relatives chimpanzees and other primates are often quite intelligent but never reach these high levels of performance      Continuum Encyclopedia of Native Art Hope B. Werness,2003-01-01 This lavishly produced volume is the first reference work to focus on the symbols meaning and significance of art in native or indigenous cultures      BODY AND IMAGE Christopher Y. Tilley,Wayne Bennett,2008-11-15 Chris Tilley offers a kinaesthetic approach to understanding ancient landscapes one that uses the full body and all the senses through examples of rock art and megalithic architecture in Norway Ireland and Sweden      On the Origin of Stories Brian Boyd,2010-11-15 A century and a half after the publication of Origin of Species evolutionary thinking has expanded beyond the field of biology to include virtually all human related subjects anthropology archeology psychology economics religion morality politics culture and art Now a distinguished scholar offers the first comprehensive account of the evolutionary origins of art and storytelling Brian Boyd explains why we tell stories how our minds are shaped to understand them and what difference an evolutionary understanding of human nature makes to stories we love Art is a specifically human adaptation Boyd argues It offers tangible advantages for human survival and it derives from play itself an adaptation widespread among more intelligent animals More particularly our fondness for storytelling has sharpened social cognition encouraged cooperation and fostered creativity After considering art as adaptation Boyd examines Homer s Odyssey and Dr Seuss s Horton Hears a Who demonstrating how an evolutionary lens can offer new understanding and appreciation of specific works What triggers our emotional engagement with these works What patterns facilitate our responses The need to hold an audience s attention Boyd underscores is the fundamental problem facing all storytellers Enduring artists arrive at solutions that appeal to cognitive universals an insight out of step with contemporary criticism which obscures both the individual and universal Published for the bicentenary of Darwin s birth and the 150th anniversary of the publication of Origin of Species Boyd s study embraces a Darwinian view of human nature and art and offers a credo for a new humanism      Unpacking Culture Ruth B. Phillips, Christopher B. Steiner, 1999-01-30

An outstanding set of studies that work well with each other to produce truly substantial and rich insights into the making and consuming of art in the colonial and post colonial world Susan S Bean Curator Peabody Essex Museum      Traditional Knowledge, Traditional Cultural Expressions, and Intellectual Property Law in the Asia-Pacific Region Christoph Antons, 2009-01-01 Among the many contentious matters thrown up by the relentless march of economic globalization those forms of knowledge variously known as indigenous or traditional remain seriously threatened despite numerous transnational initiatives and highly publicized debate It is not proving easy to bring these holistic worldviews into accordance with the technical terms and classifications of intellectual property law The contributions in this volume contrast efforts to find solutions and workable models at the international and regional level with experiences on the ground Legal policies related to indigenous knowledge in settler societies such as Australia and New Zealand are compared with those in densely populated neighbouring countries in Asia where traditional knowledge is often regarded as national heritage While many of the chapters are written by lawyers using an interdisciplinary approach other chapters introduce the reader to perspectives from disciplines such as legal sociology and anthropology on controversial issues such as the understandings of art culture tradition customary law and the opportunities for traditional cultural knowledge and traditional cultural expressions in an Internet environment Experienced observers of the international debate and regional experts discuss international model laws as well as legislation at regional and national level and the role of customary law Topics covered include the following and much more the concept of farmers rights biodiversity and bioprospecting traditional knowledge as a commodity encounters between different legalities geographical indications registration requirements sanctions remedies and dispute resolution mechanisms the ongoing fragmentation and loss of traditional knowledge and systems of data collection     A History of African Societies to 1870 Elizabeth Isichei,1997-04-13 This comprehensive and detailed exploration of the African past from prehistory to approximately 1870 is intended to provide a fully up to date complement to the Cambridge History of Africa Reflecting several emphases in recent scholarship it focusses on the changing modes of production on gender relations and on ecology laying particular stress on viewing history from below A distinctive theme is to be found in its analyses of cognitive history The work falls into three sections The first comprises a historiographic analysis and covers the period from the dawn of prehistory to the end of the Early Iron Age The second and third sections are for the most part organised on regional lines the second section ends in the sixteenth century the third carries the story on to 1870 A second volume now in preparation will cover the period from 1870 to 1995 This book attempts a more rounded view of African history than most of the other textbooks on the subject addressed to a largely undergraduate level student Earlier histories have tended to ignore some of the current foci in the scholarly literature on Africa generally not reflected in the textbooks these include discussions of topical issues like ecology and gender Isichei s book is also more radical     Continuum Encyclopedia of Animal Symbolism in World Art Hope B. Werness,2006-01-01 Animals and their symbolism in diverse world cultures and different eras of human history are chronicled in this lovely volume     International Handbook of Research in Arts Education Liora Bresler,2007-09-04 Providing a distillation of knowledge in the various disciplines of arts education dance drama music literature and poetry and visual arts the Handbook synthesizes existing research literature helps define the past and contributes to shaping the substantive and methodological future of the respective and integrated disciplines of arts education While research can at times seem distant from practice the Handbook aims to maintain connection with the lived practice of art and of education capturing the vibrancy and best thinking in the field of theory and practice The Handbook is organized into 13 sections each centering on a major area or issue in arts education research These areas include History of arts education curriculum evaluation cultural centers appreciation composition informal learning child culture creativity the body spirituality and technology The individual chapters address cross cultural research related to the central theme of the section from the perspectives of the particular arts discipline Interludes provide reflective thoughts on the theme     Ethnic and Tourist Arts Nelson H.
