Art Of Acquiring A Portrait Of Etta And Claribel Cone:

The Art of Acquiring Mary Gabriel,2002-08-18 For four and a half decades Etta and Claribel Cone roamed artists studios and art galleries in Europe building one of the largest most important art collections in the world In 1949 they awarded all their holdings to the Baltimore Museum of Art In 2002 that collection was valued at nearly 1 billion making them two of the most philanthropic art collectors of our age This is their story The Grove Encyclopedia of American Art Joan M. Marter,2011 Arranged in alphabetical order these 5 volumes encompass the history of the cultural development of America with over 2300 entries Enchanted Lives, Enchanted Objects Dianne Sachko Macleod,2008 This insightful and beautifully illustrated book offers the first feminist analysis of the phenomenon of women art collectors in America Dianne Sachko Macleod brings a surprising paradox to light showing that collecting which provided wealthy women with a private sense of solace also liberated them to venture into the public sphere and make a lasting contribution to the emerging American culture Beginning in the antebellum period continuing through the Gilded Age and reaching well into the twentieth century Macleod shows how elite women enlisted the objets d art and avant garde paintings in their collections in causes ranging from the founding of modern museums to the campaign for women s suffrage The Cone Sisters of Baltimore Ellen B. Hirschland,Nancy Hirschland Ramage,2008-07-03 They were friends with Picasso and Matisse They ran in the same circles as Gertrude and Leo Stein They avidly purchased works by Manet Gauguin Cezanne Seurat and Degas at a time when other Americans didn t They were two Victorian women from Baltimore buying avant garde art in Paris attending salons with friends and building a collection that would initially puzzle and eventually awe the art world Over a period of fifty years sisters Caribel and Etta Cone amassed one of the most acclaimed collections of late nineteenth and twentieth century art in America Dr Claribel and Miss Etta were two halves of an idiosyncratic team who used the fortunes of their German Jewish immigrant family to seek out works that inspired and pleased them regardless of public opinion This richly illustrated biography documents their lives from a unique perspective that of their great niece and their great great niece Ellen B Hirschland and her daughter Nancy Hirschland Ramage delve into Claribel s and Etta s world following the sisters through letters and personal stories as they travel to meet the artists whose work would turn their adjoining apartments into a virtual museum The sisters experiences in Paris in the 1910s and 1920s provide an exceptional view of the bright artistic ferment in the city at that time Only time would vindicate their keen vision and unwavering taste 2010, 000000 000000 '0 000 0000

Art Schooled Larry Witham,2012-01-01 One year in the life of the students teachers and artists at one of the nation s oldest and most prestigious art colleges Art Collecting and Gifts to Museums Paul van der Grijp,2024-12-06 Art Collecting and Gifts to Museums questions why private collectors donate their collection or parts of it to museums and examines what the implications of this gifting process might be Presenting case studies from Europe North America East Asia and the South Pacific this book is concerned with both elite and popular collections and examines the act of donating art from the collector's point of view. Demonstrating that art museums depend on donations from private collectors, Paul van der Grijp emphasizes that it is crucial to understand the psychological, sociological, economic, and educational motivations for gifting works of art to institutions. Taken together, the chapters argue that collectors donate to museums because the latter represent an imagined community to whom those collectors would like to bestow a sacred gift. Private collectors, as Van der Grijp maintains, are motivated to ensure the immortality of their collections and ultimately to preserve some memory of their own lives in the process. Art Collecting and Gifts to Museums will be of interest to researchers and students engaged in the study of museums, culture, art, anthropology, history, and sociology.

A Stein Reader Gertrude Stein, 1993-10-15 This important collection presents Gertrude Stein for the first time in her brilliant modernity. Ulla E. Dydo's textual scholarship demonstrates Stein's constant questioning of convention, and A Stein Reader changes the balance of work in print, concentrating on Stein's experimental work and including many key works that are virtually unknown or unavailable. A Stein Reader includes unpublished work such as the portrait Article, which shows the astonishing stylistic change in the neglected A Long Gay Book. It draws attention to the many unknown plays such as Reread Another and offers fascinating portraits of Matisse, Picasso, and Sitwell. Illuminating headnotes bring out connections between pieces and provide invaluable keys to Stein's motifs and thought patterns.

Modern Art on Display K. Porter Aichele, 2016-05-19 Modern Art on Display: The Legacies of Six Collectors is structured as a sequence of case studies that pair collectors of modern art with artists they particularly favored: Duncan Phillips and Augustus Vincent Tack; Albert Barnes and Chaim Soutine; Albert Eugene Gallatin and Juan Gris; Lillie Bliss and Paul C. Zanne; Etta Cone and Henri Matisse; G. David Thompson and Paul Klee. The case studies are linked by a thematic focus on the integral relationship between the collectors' acquired knowledge about the work they amassed and their innovative display models. This focus brings a new perspective to the history of collecting and interpreting modern art in America for nearly half a century (1915-1960). By examining the books the collectors themselves read and analyzing archival photographs of their displays, the author makes a case for the historical significance of how the collectors presented the art they acquired before their collections were institutionalized.

Artists in My Life Margaret Randall, 2022-04-10 A collection of intimate and conversational accounts of the artists that have impacted the poet-activist Margaret Randall on her own creative journey. As makers of art, social commentators, women in a world dominated by male values, and in solitude or collaboration with communities, each artist is seen in the context of the larger artistic arena. Through her reflections, Randall also takes on questions about visual art as a whole and its lasting political influence on the world.

A Noble Madness James Delbourgo, 2025-08-12 In this fascinating, witty, and provocative book, Delbourgo's collectors range from emperors to scientists, from shopaholics to taxonomists, from bibliomaniacs to serial killers. Give it to the collector in your life and watch the sparks fly. Cathy Gere, author of The Tomb of Agamemnon, a captivating history of obsessive collectors from ancient looters and idolaters to fin de siècle decadents, Freudian psychos, and hoarders. Collectors are often praised for their taste in art or contributions to science and considered great public benefactors But collectors have also been seen as dangerous obsessives who love objects too much Why From looters and idolaters to fin de siècle decadents and Freudian psychos A Noble Madness is a captivating history of obsessive collectors from ancient times to today From Roman emperors lusting after statues to modern day hoarders award winning author James Delbourgo tells the extraordinary story of fanatical collectors throughout history He explains how the idea first emerged that when we look at someone s collection we see a portrait of their soul complex intriguing yet possibly insane What Delbourgo calls the Romantic collecting self has always lurked on the dark side of humanity But this dark side has a silver lining Because obsessive collectors are driven by passion not profit they have been countercultural heroes in the modern imagination defying respectability and taste in the name of truth to self A grand portrait gallery of collectors in all their decadent glory A Noble Madness recounts the saga of the human urge to accumulate from Caligula to Marie Antoinette Balzac to Freud Norman Bates to Andy Warhol Collectors love of objects may be mad even dangerous But we want to believe their love s a noble madness because by expressing that love they are themselves

Becoming Hitler Thomas Weber,2017 In Becoming Hitler Thomas Weber continues from where he left off in his previous book Hitler s First War stripping away the layers of myth and fabrication in Hitler s own tale to tell the real story of Hitler s politicization and radicalization in post First World War Munich It is the gripping account of how an awkward and unemployed loner with virtually no recognizable leadership qualities and fluctuating political ideas turned into the charismatic self assured virulently anti Semitic leader with an all or nothing approach to politics with whom the world was soon to become tragically familiar As Weber clearly shows far from the picture of a fully formed political leader which Hitler wanted to portray in Mein Kampf his ideas and priorities were still very uncertain and largely undefined in early 1919 and they continued to shift until 1923

Chesapeake Crimes 3 Donna Andrews,Karen S. Diegmuller,Marcia Talley,Gail Meredith,Mary Augusta Thomas,2008-01-01 Chesapeake Crimes 3 is the latest installment of the Agatha and Anthony award winning Chesapeake Crimes series The Chesapeake Bay area is home to strong winds joys and fears where you lock your doors at night in the cities and probably should lock them in the countryside too especially after reading this anthology It gave me 15 reasons to wish I had not moved to the Midwest And for the folks who are still living in this supposedly mild mannered region all I can say is enjoy the weather but watch your back Sujata Massey Library Journal ,1999

Favored Strangers Linda Wagner-Martin,1995 This biography contains anecdotes and details about Gertrude Stein s exchanges on art life food and literature with luminaries such as Hemingway Matisse Juan Gris Picasso Virgil Thompson and many others Incidents are retold and bolstered by primary sources The author provides an understanding of the style and substances of Stein s works and life emphasizing Stein s social genius The book introduces familial and domestic detail not only enhancing Stein s significance as an artist and cultural critic but also presenting her anew It contains previously unavailable material from family papers letters and archives

Matisse's activity as a maker of portraits and self-portraits. The author considers the transaction that produces a portrait a transaction between the artist and the sitter that is social as much as artistic and investigates the social contexts of Matisse's sitters.

Psychoanalytic Perspectives on Art, V. 3 Mary M. Gedo, 2013-05-13. This new hardcover annual offers a unique scholarly format: an interdisciplinary dialogue that is hoped will foster the development of a sound, useful methodology for applying psychoanalytic insight to art and artists. The series provides a medium for those who study art, those who interpret it, and occasionally those who create it formally, to explore the meaning of an artistic work as the direct reflection of the inner world of its creator. Within each volume, individual topics are addressed by either an art historian or a psychoanalyst, with a response frequently tendered by an expert from the other field. Reviews of important books of cross-disciplinary interest are treated in a similar manner and include rebuttals by the authors themselves. It is precisely this exchange of ideas among scholars with different perspectives on the meaning of a work of art that sets PPA apart from the standard art history publication. Its depth of scholarship coupled with its innovative format make it a fascinating addition to the burgeoning field of psychoanalytic studies of art history.
