Activism Afonso Dias Ramos, Tom Snow, 2023-10-24 An edited collection that addresses the vital intersection of contemporary art and activism in this watershed cultural moment Activism is a critical point of contention for institutions and genealogies of contemporary art around the world Yet artists have consistently engaged in activist discourse lending their skills to social movements and regularly participating in civil and social rights campaigns while also boycotting cultural institutions and exerting significant pressure on them This timely volume edited by Tom Snow and Afonso Ramos addresses an extraordinary moment in debates over the institutional frameworks and networks of art including large scale direct actions as well as a radical rethinking of art venues and urban spaces according to racial class or gender based disparities including demonstrations against the extractive and exploitative practices of neoliberal accumulation and climate catastrophe From ACT UP and its affiliate groups since the dawn of the AIDS crisis to the counter spectacle and street theatrics of the so called Arab Spring and Occupy to ongoing protest movements such as Black Lives Matter Rhodes Must Fall and Decolonize This Place activist aesthetics has proven increasingly difficult to define under traditional classifications Resurgent campaigns for decolonial reckoning ecological justice gender equality indigenous rights and antiracist pedagogies indicate that the role of activism in contemporary art practice urges a critical reassessment One pressing question is whether contemporary art s most radical politics now takes place outside against or in spite of conventional sites of display such as museums biennials and galleries Artists surveyed include ACT UP Basel Abbas Ruanne Abou Rahme Allora Calzadilla Tania Bruguera Black Audio Film Collective Chto Delat

Fostering Pluralism through Solidarity Activism in Europe Feyzi Baban, Kim Rygiel, 2020-11-04 This edited collection brings together academics artists and members of civil society organizations to engage in a discussion about the ideas of living with others through concepts such as cosmopolitanism solidarity and conviviality and the practices of doing so In recent years right wing and populist movements have emerged and strengthened across Europe and North America rejecting the value of cultural ethnic and religious plurality Governments in Europe and North America are weakening their commitment to the international refugee regime erecting new barriers to entry Even as governments fail to accommodate growing pluralism however civil society initiatives have emerged with the aim of welcoming newcomers such as migrants and refugees and finding alternative ways of living together in diverse societies Motivated by a desire to show solidarity these initiatives demonstrate enormous creativity in fostering pluralism in an environment that has largely become hostile to the arrival of newcomers The contributions gathered here seek to explore such initiatives and the important work that they do in fostering ways of living together with others from diverse cultural and religious backgrounds In focusing conceptually and empirically on discussions and examples of civil society initiatives this book interrogates why how and under what circumstances are some communities more welcoming than others

The Creative Underground Paul Clements, 2016-09-13 Paul Clements champions the creative underground and expressions of difference through visionary avant garde and resistant ideas This is represented by an admixture of utopian literature manifestos and lifestyles which challenge normality and attempt to reinvent society as practiced for example by radicals in bohemian enclaves or youth subcultures He showcases a range of art and participatory cultural practices that are examined sociopolitically and historically employing key theoretical ideas which highlight their contribution to aesthetic thinking political ideology and public discourse A reevaluation of the arts and progressive modernism can reinvigorate culture through active leisure and post work possibilities beyond materialism and its constraints thereby presenting alternatives to established understandings and everyday cultural processes The book teases out the difficult relationship between the individual culture and society especially in relation to autonomy and marginality while arguing that the creative underground is crucial for a better world as it offers enchantment vitality and hope

Globalization Development and Social Justice Ann El Khoury, 2015-03-27 Are there existing alternatives to corporate globalization What are the prospects for and commonalities between communities and movements such as Occupy the World Social Forum and alternative economies Globalization Development and Social Justice advances the proposition that another globalization is not only possible but already exists It demonstrates that there are multiple pathways towards development with social justice and argues that enabling propositional agency rather than oppositional agency such as resistance is a more effective alternative to neoliberal globalization El Khoury develops a theory of infraglobalization that emphasizes creative constitution not just contestation of global and local processes The book features case studies and examples of diverse economic practice and innovative emergent political forms from the Global South and North These case studies are located in the informal social economy and community development as well as everyday practices from prefigurative politics to community cooperatives and participatory planning This book makes an important contribution to debates about the prospects for and practices of a transformative grassroots globalization and to critical debates about globalization and development strategies It will be of interest to students and scholars of international relations globalization social movement studies political and economic geography sociology
