Attack of the Difficult Poems Charles Bernstein, 2011-04-15 Charles Bernstein is our postmodern jester of American poesy equal part surveyor of democratic vistas and scholar of avant garde sensibilities In a career spanning thirty five years and forty books he has challenged and provoked us with writing that is decidedly unafraid of the tensions between ordinary and poetic language and between everyday life and its adversaries Attack of the Difficult Poems his latest collection of essays gathers some of his most memorably irreverent work while addressing seriously and comprehensively the state of contemporary humanities the teaching of unconventional forms fresh approaches to translation the history of language media and the connections between poetry and visual art Applying an array of essayistic styles Attack of the Difficult Poems ardently engages with the promise of its title Bernstein introduces his key theme of the difficulty of poems and defends often in comedic ways not just difficult poetry but poetry itself Bernstein never loses his ingenious ability to argue or his consummate attention to detail Along the way he offers a wide ranging critique of literature's place in the academy taking on the vexed role of innovation and approaching it from the perspective of both teacher and practitioner From blues artists to Tin Pan Alley song lyricists to Second Wave modernist poets The Attack of the Difficult Poems sounds both a battle cry and a lament for the task of the language maker and the fate of invention

Look Ma, "Hands" on Poetry Adele Steiner, 2008-05 The workshops in Look Ma Hands on Poetry are designed to help teachers and poets familiarize elementary through high school students with a variety of creative and fun ways to engage their imaginations and write poetry They do so by encouraging teachers and students to explore together the art of poetry i e the art of employing the five senses to capture experience in language The workshops also introduce young writers to a wide range of poets and the poetic techniques and styles that they have incorporated in their writing As a result when students complete a series of workshops from this book they will know how to write a poem They may enjoy reading more poetry too because they will have a solid understanding of how poetry works Finally there are exciting ideas in Look Ma Hands on Poetry for ways in which young writers can exhibit and perform their poetry The workshops in this book run from 45 60 minutes with the time divided into three segments In the first the teacher reads and discusses poems that are examples of the types of poetry students will be writing In the second the teacher introduces the writing assignment and has students begin writing Finally students who finish poems are invited to share them in the remaining class time Because poetry is the art of capturing experience in language the workshops are structured around sight smell taste touch and sound Each of the workshops in the first five chapters is geared toward exploring one of these senses and the two later chapters contain workshops that require students to use all five to write their poems As a result workshops from each chapter may be used individually or in sequence to create one or two week poetry units that teachers and students can enjoy Workshops in the book include the Sleight of Hand and Animal Mask Workshops wherein students use metaphor simile and personification to create imagery in poems They use music and musical instruments to help them create sound and rhythm in the Native American Chant and Rap Workshops and then they literally play with words to write Bingo and Multiple Voice Poems Young people have opportunities to express their feelings through poetry in the Blues Love Potion and Ode Workshops and finally they use their five senses simultaneously when writing Bubble and Rainbow Poems and when they interpret paintings sculpture and music in Echphrastic Poems The book's final section presents creative ideas for poetry readings books and displays Suggestions for readings include the Poetry Cafe which can incorporate any of the Coffee House Tea Room 1950's Diner and or Greco Roman Garden venues discussed in this section Student poetry books and chapbooks complete with student art and photos are described here too along with plans for poetry rainbows sidewalks mobiles and poetry word collections

The Poetry Circuit Peter B. Howarth, 2024-09-17 Live performance has changed poetry more than anything else in the last hundred years it has given poets new audiences and a new economy and it has generated new styles from Imagism to confessional to contemporary Spoken Word But the creative impact that public reading had right through the twentieth century has not been well understood Mixing close listening to archive performances with intimate histories of modernist venues and promoters The Poetry Circuit tells the story of how poets met their audience again and how the feedback loops between their voices the venues and the occasions turned poems into running dramas between poet and listener A nervous T S Eliot reveals himself to be anything but impersonal while Marianne Moore's accident prone readings become subtle ways of keeping her poems in constant re draft Robert Frost used his poems to spar with his fans and rivals while Langston Hughes wrote Ask Your Mama to expose the prejudice circulating in the room as he spoke it The Poetry Circuit also shows how the post war reading boom made new kinds of poetry involving their audience and setting in the performance such as John Ashbery s anti charismatic Poets Theatre Amiri Baraka s documentary soundtracks of the streets or the confessional readings of Allen Ginsberg which shame the listeners more than the poet Covering the first seventy years of the poetry reading The Poetry Circuit demonstrates that there never were page and stage poets the reading simply changed what every modern poet could do

Remembering That It Happened Once Dennis L. Johnson,2021-12-27 Poets have long given us poems as portals into the stunning event and astonishing affirmation at the core of Christian faith the Eternal Word has taken on flesh in Jesus of Nazareth This is the mystery and message this collection of poems explores The Latin word for poetry is carmen Over time carmen formed into our English word charm These are Christmas carmen for the believer and doubter the joyful and sorrowful and the seeker longing for the experience of God with us They are for opening the heart widening the imagination and shaping the soul They are for remembering and beholding the mystery of the Incarnation in everyday life all year long

The Ancient History of the Egyptians, Carthaginians, Assyrians,

Babylonians, Medes and Persians, Grecians, and Macedonians Charles Rollin, James Bell, 1841 The Craft of Poetry Derek Attridge, Henry Staten, 2015-04-17 This book presents an innovative format for poetry criticism that its authors call dialogical poetics This approach shows that readings of poems which in academic literary criticism often look like a product of settled knowledge are in reality a continual negotiation between readers But Derek Attridge and Henry Staten agree to rein in their own interpretive ingenuity and minimally interpret poems reading them with careful regard for what the poem can be shown to actually say in detail and as a whole from opening to closure Based on a series of emails the book explores a number of topics in the reading of poetry including historical and intellectual context modernist difficulty the role of criticism and translation This highly readable book will appeal to anyone who enjoys poetry offering an inspiring resource for students whilst also mounting a challenge to some of the approaches to poetry currently widespread in the academy The Literary World ,1889 Poems George Gordon Byron Baron Byron, 1890 Shakespeare's Poems William Shakespeare, 1890
