Art Of Theological Reflection:

The Art of Theological Reflection Patricia O'Connell Killen, John De Beer, 1994 Here is a book for the millions of Christians who want to make a vital connection between their faith and their lives The authors describe theological reflection as the artful discipline of putting our experience into conversation with the heritage of the Christian tradition Their practical book provides a way for all of us to experience greater meaning in life and a more tangible sense of God's creative presence

The Art of Theological Reflection Ronald J. Gariboldi, Daniel Novotny, 1987-01-01      Interpreting Tradition Jane Kopas, 1984      Theological Reflections at the Boundaries Paul O. Ingram, 2011-11-04 The interdependence of boundary questions and the experience of cognitive dissonance reveal that knowledge in all fields of inquiry is always incomplete and tentative The issues are particularly acute for Christian theological reflection Ingram illustrates the importance of boundary questions and cognitive dissonance as a means of creatively transforming contemporary Christian theological reflection through dialogue with the natural sciences and the world's religions particularly Buddhism filtered through the lenses of Whiteheadian process philosophy      Liturgical Art for a Media Culture Eileen D. Crowley, 2007 This commentary treats Luke Acts as an apologetic history It takes with equal seriousness Luke's literary artistry and his historical interests fitting his methods comfortably within the ancient standards of historiography      The Art of Contextual Theology Victor I. Ezigbo, 2021-05-28 Christianity has an inherent capability to assume as its novel mode of expression the local idioms customs and thought forms of a new cultural frontier that it encounters As a result Christianity has become multicultural and multilingual What is the role of theology in the imagination and articulation of Christianity's inherent multiculturalism and multi vernacularity Victor Ezigbo examines this question by exploring the nature and practice of contextual theology To accomplish this task this book engages the main genres of contextual theology explores echoes of contextual theological thinking in some of Jesus's sayings and discusses insights into contextual theology that can be discerned in the discourses on theology and caste relations Dalit theology theology and primal cultures African theology and theology and poverty Latin American liberation theology      A Theological Odyssey John W. De Gruchy, 2014-09-01 John de Gruchy is one of the greatest and most respected South African theologians of the past five decades His work has left an indelible mark on both the South African and international theological landscapes In this book he describes his theological journey revisiting core themes periods and sources This is an enriching read as De Gruchy engages with some of the greatest theologians in the history of the church notably John Calvin Karl Barth Karl Rahner Dietrich Bonhoeffer and Reinhold Niebuhr as well as with a wide selection of his fellow South African theologians Cas Wepener      Theological Reflection and the Pursuit of Ideals Dale Wright, Maria Antonaccio, 2016-02-17 Contemporary thought is marked by heated debates about the character purpose and form of religious thinking and its relation to a range of ideals spiritual moral aesthetic political and ecological to name the obvious This book addresses the interrelation between theological thinking and the complex and diverse realms of human ideals What are the ideals appropriate to our moment in human history and how do these ideals derive from or relate to theological reflection in our time In Theological Reflection and the Pursuit of Ideals internationally renowned scholars from a range of disciplines physics art literary studies ethics comparative religion history of ideas and theology engage with these crucial questions with the intention of articulating a new and historically appropriate vision of theological reflection and the pursuit of ideals for our global times      Wrestling with God Paul O. Ingram, 2006-04-14 Wrestling With God is concerned with conceptualizing a Christian pluralist theology of religious experience primarily in dialogue with Buddhism but also in conversation with Confucian Daoist Hindu Jewish and Islamic traditions as well as dialogue with the natural sciences It is through such dialogue as a form of theological reflection that Christians can hope for the emergence of new forms of faith and practice that are relevant to the complexities of contemporary life The author's style and openness make this accessible to the general reader as well as the scholar      The Art of Theology Stephan van Erp, 2004 Art and theology are two different ways of making meaning Art is a matter of inspiration and intuition It needs neither standards nor guidelines It does not follow predictable patterns nor is it determined by any specific goal Theology is similar in that it generates meaning in order to understand and communicate faith It explores the continuities and discontinuities between divine and human creations through metaphors images and the play of ideas Unlike art however theology is primarily a matter of reason It follows patterns of consistency and coherence and is shaped by the will to clarify and explain Can art offer a way of understanding the nature of theology despite these differences The twentieth century Swiss theologian Hans Urs von Balthasar 1905-1988 wrote a seven volume masterpiece on theological aesthetics He restructured theology around basic aesthetic concepts like form and beauty The present study offers a critical analysis of Balthasar's work against the background of contemporary debates on theological foundations The author approaches this task through a careful rereading of two of Balthasar's key sources Nicholas of Cusa and Friedrich Wilhelm Joseph Schelling In this way the author rediscovers hidden undercurrents in modernity from Renaissance aesthetics to German Idealism The result is a theological aesthetics rooted in tradition and capable of understanding and communicating faith in the face of present day challenges      Method in Ministry James D. Whitehead, Evelyn Eaton Whitehead, 1995-09 Theological Reflection and Christian Ministry James Evelyn Whitehead Topics ranging from Tradition and the minister to the broad concerns of theology in conversation with culture      Explorations in Art, Theology and Imagination Michael Ridgwell Austin, 2016-04-08 Christianity has repeatedly valued the Word over and above the non verbal arts Art has been seen through the interpretative lens of theology rather than being valued for what it can bring to the discipline Explorations in Art Theology and Imagination argues that art is crucially important to theology The book explores the interconnecting themes of embodiment and incarnation faith and imagination and the similarities and differences between art and theology Arguing for a critique that begins with art and moves to theology Explorations in Art Theology and Imagination offers a radical re evaluation of the role of art in Christian discourse      What are They Saying about Theological Reflection? Robert L. Kinast, 2000 Theological reflection is a form of theologizing that begins with lived experience correlates this with the sources of Christian faith and draws out concrete implications for praxis Robert Kinast finds five distinct types of theological reflection from within this common form ministerial spiritual wisdom feminist inculturation and practical theology Each of these styles is analyzed in terms of the type of experience it favors the way it connects this experience to theology and what sort of praxis it envisions The end result is a succinct overview of this wide ranging and diverse approach to theology BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

The Art of Dialogue Ineke de Feijter, 2007 Media and culture are deeply intertwined in contemporary society Religions have problems relating to this media culture which is shaped by media processes and conditioned by digital media and interactive forms of communication Media set the agenda and they profoundly challenge religions both with respect to their public communication and their very existence and public relevance People increasingly use media for shaping their religious identity and their search with respect to questions of ultimate meaning Barely any theological studies exist that reflect on religious policies and their subsequent praxis in the field of communication The author analyzes Christian policy views and identifies the main problems and opportunities in relating to media culture Brimming with God

Barbara J. Blodgett, Matthew Floding, 2015-08-13 The yearning to be a theologian is widespread Pastors students supervisors and mentors all wish to think theologically about their ministries but often feel inadequately prepared This book seeks to respond by showcasing a variety of approaches to theological reflection brought to bear upon actual situations in ministry It is written by theological field educators We define theological reflection as reflection upon lived embodied experiences in ministry that seeks to make sense of practice and form reflectors in habits for competent ministry An introductory chapter defines theological reflection as practiced within field education and points readers toward a diversity of approaches Eleven subsequent chapters present two reflections upon the same case each reflection written by a different author and representing a different reflection method The book's significance is as a resource for teaching theological reflection in a range of settings It not only offers a definition of and rationale for theological reflection but models various approaches to it Its use of cases furthermore models the use of case studies in theological education and pastoral practice more widely

The Grotesque in Art and Literature James Luther Adams, Wilson Yates, 1997 The authors focus on the religious and theological significance of grotesque imagery in art and literature exploring the religious meaning of the grotesque and its importance as a subject for theological inquiry

Theology and the Arts Richard Viladesau, 2000 In recent years the topic of beauty has come into increasing prominence in a number of fields including theology This book explores several aspects of the relation between theology and aesthetics in both the pastoral and academic realms The underlying motif of the book is that beauty is a means of divine revelation and that art is the human mediation that both enables and limits its revelatory power Using examples from music pictorial art and rhetoric the five chapters explore different aspects of the ways that art enters into theology and theology into art both in pastoral practice for example liturgical music sacred art and preaching and in the realm of systematic reflection where the author contends art must be recognized as a genuine theological text The central chapters are followed by a discography of illustrative musical works and lists of Internet sites of sacred art and art history resources that will complement the text BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved      Teaching Outside the Box Andrew Zirschky, 2017-10-17 Rather than tweaking the ways youth ministers communicate the gospel Teaching Outside the Box explores five distinct approaches to forming youth in the faith approaches that open youth to experiencing the implications of the gospel in new ways We ll start by providing a new take on the instructional approach and then introduce four additional approaches that are likely new to readers community of faith interpretive liberation and contemplative      British Qualifications Kogan Page, 2006 The field of professional academic and vocational qualifications is ever changing The new edition of this highly successful and practical guide provides thorough information on all developments Fully indexed it includes details on all university awards and over 200 career fields their professional and accrediting bodies levels of membership and qualifications It acts as an one stop guide for careers advisors students and parents and will also enable human resource managers to verify the qualifications of potential employees

Christianity, Art and Transformation John W. de Gruchy, 2001-01-29 Christianity Art and Transformation explores the historical and contemporary relationship between the arts and Christianity with reference to the transformation of society Several major themes are discussed among them the power of images the relationship between aesthetics and ethics the nature of beauty and its redemptive capacity aesthetic existence and Christian discipleship and the role of art in the public square and in the life of the Church The book is a contribution to the study of theological aesthetics from both an ecumenical and Reformed perspective global in its scope yet rooted in the author s South African context
