The Selected Letters of Ezra Pound to John Quinn Timothy Materer, 1991-05-30 This volume provides a first hand survey of the arts and literature during a crucial period in modern culture 1915 1924 Pound was then associated with such germinal magazines as BLAST The Little Review The Egoist and Poetry he was discovering or publicizing writers such as Robert Frost Hilda Doolittle T S Eliot and James Joyce and he was championing the painters Wyndham Lewis and William Wadsworth as well as the sculptors Jacob Epstein Henri Gaudier Brzeska and Constantin Brancusi Pound wrote to John Quinn a New York lawyer an expert in business law and a collector of unusual taste and discrimination about these artists and many more urging him to support their journals collect their manuscripts and buy and exhibit their paintings and sculptures Quinn at one time owned manuscripts of Ulysses and The Waste Land Brancusi s sculpture Mlle Pogany and Picasso s painting Three Musicians Yet he was often skeptical about the value of new schools of art such as Vorticism and disturbed by the outspokenness of authors such as Joyce Pound s letters are unusually tactful when he counters Quinn s doubts and explains the premises of experimental art Pound s letters to Quinn are touched with his characteristic humor and wordplay and are especially notable for their lucidity of expression engendered by Pound s deep respect for Quinn

Capturing Imagination Carlo Severi, 2018-11-01 We have all found ourselves involuntarily addressing inanimate objects as though they were human For a fleeting instant we act as though our cars and computers can hear us In situations like ritual or play objects acquire a range of human characteristics such as perception thought action or speech Puppets dolls and ritual statuettes cease to be merely addressees and begin to address us we see life in them How might we describe the kind of thought that gives life to the artifact making it memorable as well as effective in daily life play or ritual action Following The Chimera Principle in this collection of essays Carlo Severi explores the kind of shared imagination where inanimate artifacts from non Western masks and ritual statuettes to paintings and sculptures in our own tradition can be perceived as living beings This nuanced inquiry into the works of memory and shared imagination is a proposal for a new anthropology of thought as developing countries by examining the quickfire transformation of China's labor market He also responds to the challenge of sustainability assessing the promise of green jobs through restorative alliances between labor advocates and environmentalists Ross argues that regardless of one's views on labor rights globalization and quality of life this new precarious and indefinite life and the pitfalls and opportunities that accompany it is likely here to stay and must be addressed in a systematic way A more equitable kind of knowledge society emerges in these pages less skewed toward flexploitation and the speculative beneficiaries of intellectual property and more in tune with ideals and practices that are fair just and renewable

The Sublime Lap-Chuen Tsang,1998 An important work offering a viable theory for the concept of Sublime in philosophy This is a work of quite unusual philosophical interest original and deeply insightful Dr Tsang argues on the one hand that sublimity is not a property of objects regarded as sublime but belongs to our construal of objects while on the other he also argues that when we so construe an object we are giving expression to some limit to our life not an external barrier but a limit internal to it But what lies at the limit cannot be represented So the sublime can be evoked by language but not represented in it This leads Dr Tsang on to a philosophical analysis of evocation and of the evocative possibilities of a sublime object What he says about evocation presupposes and requires for its completion an account of how affective elements are involved in the experience of the sublime and what he claims here is that there is no one feeling or type of feeling involved in the experience of the sublime but that a wide range of different feelings may be involved on different occasions The quality of the feeling is closely bound up with the character of the experience of the sublime as a limit experience Finally Dr Tsang considers the cultural and social context of experiences of the sublime both what is universally recognized as sublime because bound up with the general conditions of human life and what is specific to particular cultural and social contexts He then moves to the conclusion to examine the relationship of the sublime to human willing As a postscript there is an excellent treatment of Kant's theory of the sublime

The Philistine Controversy Dave Beech,John Roberts,2002 Dave Beech and John Roberts develop what they call a counter intuitive notion of the philistine with insights on cultural division and exclusion

Modernist Alchemy Timothy Materer,2018-09-05 Modernist Alchemy takes a close look at the work of twentieth century poets whose use of the occult constitutes a recovery of discarded beliefs and modes of thought Yeats and Plath try to dismiss conventional religion Hughes captures a sense of adventure H D seeks to liberate repressed concepts while Duncan and Merrill hunt for a lost understanding of sexual identity which will allow for androgyny and homosexuality
