Becoming a mother Carla Pascoe Leahy,2023-04-04 Becoming a mother charts the diverse and complex history of Australian mothering for the first time exposing the ways it has been both connected to and distinct from parallel developments in other industrialised societies In many respects the historical context in which Australian women come to motherhood has changed dramatically since 1945 And yet examination of the memories of multiple maternal generations reveals surprising continuities in the emotions and experiences of first time motherhood Drawing upon interdisciplinary insights from anthropology history psychology and sociology Carla Pascoe Leahy unpacks this multifaceted rite of passage through more than 60 oral history interviews demonstrating how maternal memories continue to influence motherhood today Despite radical shifts in understandings of gender care and subjectivity becoming a mother remains one of the most personally and culturally significant moments in a woman s life

The Mask of Motherhood Susan Maushart,2000-05-01 Becoming a mother is filled with the extremes of emotion the highest highs and the lowest lows But women are often reluctant to talk honestly about the experience for fear they ll be seen as bad mothers With wit and candor The Mask of Motherhood takes on the myths and the misinformation helping women to prepare and deal with the depth of feeling that comes with the experience and perhaps most important it lets them know that many if not most new mothers are feeling the same way Susan Maushart sociologist and mother of three explores how motherhood affects our marriages and friendships our relationships with parents our sex lives and our self esteem In The Mask of Motherhood mothers will find the comfort and reassurance they are looking for and confirmation that indeed motherhood is the toughest job in the world but can also be the most rewarding
