David Litwa, 2012-02-22 Can Pauline soteriology be categorized as a form of deification This book attempts to answer this question by keen attention to the Greco Roman world It provides the first full scale history of research on the topic It is also the first work to fully treat the basic historical questions relating to deification Namely what is deity in the Greco Roman world What are the types of deification in the Greco Roman world Are there Jewish antecedents to deification Does Paul consider Christ to be a divine being If so according to what logic How is Pauline deification possible in light of ancient Jewish monotheism How is deification possible with a strong notion of creation Although a rigorously historical study no attempt is made to avoid theological issues in their historical context Deification it is argued provides a new historical category of perception with which to deepen our knowledge of the Apostle's religious thought in its own time This book is intended for an academic audience The range of topics discussed here should interest a wide array of scholars in the fields of Hebrew Bible New Testament Classics and Patristics historical context What to Expect segments give students a preview of the major concepts covered in each chapter Text boxes throughout offer in depth looks at specific events figures and ideas Key terms are bolded at their first appearance listed at the end of each chapter and reviewed in a comprehensive glossary at the end of the book Conclusions sections at the end of each chapter remind students of the most important parts of the material they ve just read The Disproof of Christianity Adam Weishaupt,2013-01-25 This incendiary book constitutes a formal theological disproof of the central tenets of Christianity the Trinity and the Incarnation Christianity is a staggeringly false religion The reason most Christians continue to believe is that a they have been relentlessly brainwashed and b they don t actually know anything about Christianity The absurdities of Christianity can be understood only by examining the many heresies that sprang up in the early centuries of the Church challenging every aspect of orthodox Christian thinking These heresies have boxed in Christianity so much that all that s left is a statement of what Christianity ISN T It s only possible to be a Trinitarian Christian by stating the empty formula three persons in one God without ever daring to specify what person means Similarly Christians mouth the hollow formula of the Incarnation two natures human and divine in one person without having any idea of what nature means

Bakhtin and Religion Susan M. Felch,Paul J. Contino,2001 This work investigates the role of religious thought in shaping and framing Bakhtin s writings The authors explore Bakhtin s idea of faith an abstract codification of a belief system and a feeling for faith which involves the active participation of persons both human and divine Transfiguration and Hope D. Gregory Van Dussen,2018-09-17 To read and visualize the transfiguration of Christ is to enter its mystery and encounter its hope Like the Gospel writers and the disciples who climbed the mountain with Jesus we struggle to tell the story and explain its meaning Yet this astounding event reveals God s ultimate purpose in sending his Son the complete restoration of humanity and all creation our transfiguration in Christ The light and glory of that moment reveal a destiny that is infinite and eternal made possible by the power of grace Transfiguration is the trajectory and goal of our spiritual journey Across time and space Christians have reflected on the mystery and hope epitomized in the transfiguration yet their voices have been heard primarily within their own cultural and ecclesiastical contexts This study gathers many of those voices from the panorama of Scripture and church history and finds in them the common theme of radical transformation in Christ The point of this theological conversation is spiritual transfiguration and hope for each of us as we reach toward the future Christ has shown us in himself The Holiest of the Holies (THOTH), the Last Testament Maitreya (Joseph Emmanuel),2013-06-20 For thousands of years humanity has longed for a truth revelation or knowledge that explains the unity of God behind all mystical experiences previous revelations and religions of the world and the truth behind the universe science There have been mystical explanations of God from those claiming they have experienced the truth by direct contact with Spirit There are also those who have founded great religions of the world However a great confusion still reigns among spiritualists religions of the world and the many different branches within each religion If you study this Book carefully with a sincere mind and an Open Heart it will be revealed to you that the major religions on earth are not contradictory and separated at all. In fact they are complementary and were sent to earth systematically by One God. When this is understood the Path to Salvation Eternal Divine Path is known. This book is the main writing of Maitreya of the Mission of Maitreya www.maitreya.org Spirit, Faith and Church Laurence Lux-Sterritt, Claire Sorin, 2011-10-18. Contradictions are legion when it comes to women and spirituality. In Christian cultures the worth of the female sex is highly ambivalent since virginity and motherhood are construed respectively as badges of purity and fruitfulness whilst the biological processes which underlie them are considered taboo or impure. Throughout history women are in turn represented as inferior defective creatures or as privileged empty vessels in their relationship with the divine. This polarized conception of woman has influenced the way in which religious institutions learned writers or indeed women themselves consider the female personal and collective relationship with the supernatural with the divine and with the institutions which represent it. Through eleven original essays this volume questions how women from the English speaking world have negotiated their roles in the spiritual and religious spheres. From early modern Catholics and Puritan groups to twenty first century nuns Anglican ministers and Mormons how did women define their roles in male dominated institutions? How did they react to the public perceptions of their bodies as either incompatible with or facilitating access to the divine? The questions at the core of this book hinge upon the articulation between the female self body and soul and its experience of the preternatural of faith and of institutionalized groups. Are there specific forms of female spirituality and do they lead to a feminized feminist conception of God? Christian Theology and African Traditions Matthew Michael, 2013-05-21. Christian theology is increasingly recognized to be now a non western enterprise since the high concentrations of Christians in the world are no longer found in the Western societies. Christian Theology and African Traditions takes seriously this present recognition of the southward movement of Christianity from the western world to a non western setting. It seeks to reposition Christian theology and faith to engage the African traditions in classical category of theology proper bibliology anthropology Christology pneumatology soteriology ecclesiology and eschatology and provides unique insights and problems that these classical and systematic categories poses to African Christianity. Similarly it provides theological blueprint for non Africans who are interested in knowing the nature and shape of the Christian theology in non western settings. Issues in Contemporary Philosophy of Religion Eugene Thomas Long, 2012-12-06. This collection of original articles written by leading contemporary European and American philosophers of religion is presented in celebration of the publication of the fiftieth volume of the International Journal for Philosophy of Religion. Following the Editor's Introduction John Macquarrie, Adriaan Peperzak and Hent de Vries take up central themes in continental philosophy of religion. Macquarrie analyzes postmodernism and its influence in philosophy and theology. Peperzak argues for a form of universality different from that of modern philosophy and de Vries analyzes an intrinsic and structural relationship between religion and the media. The next three essays discuss issues in analytic philosophy of religion. Philip

Quinn argues that religious diversity reduces the epistemic status of exclusivism and makes it possible for a religious person to be justified while living within a pluralistic environment William Wainwright plumbs the work of Jonathan Edwards in order to better understand debates concerning freedom determinism and the problem of evil and William Hasker asks whether theological incompatibilism is less inimical to traditional theism than some have supposed Representing the Thomist tradition Fergus Kerr challenges standard readings of Aquinas on the arguments for the existence of God David Griffin analyzes the contributions of process philosophy to the problem of evil and the relation between science and religion Illustrating comparative approaches Keith Ward argues that the Semitic and Indian traditions have developed a similar concept of God that should be revised in view of post Enlightenment theories of the individual and the historical Keith Yandell explores themes in the Indian metaphysical tradition and considers what account of persons is most in accord with reincarnation and karma doctrines Feminist philosophy of religion is represented in Pamela Anderson s article in which she argues for a gender sensitive and more inclusive approach to the craving for infinitude

Where to from Here? Brian Grogan, 2012 If you ve ever felt challenged as a Christian to say what you believe about life after death you will find intelligent proposals here Fr Grogan s deep knowledge of the current scholarship on subjects like judgment heaven hell and purgatory is matched by his skill at clearly presenting insights through stories and examples This book begins with the idea that every inhabitant of this planet contributes to the shaping of God s project the life of the world to come and it emphasizes that the relationships between God and ourselves endure eternally Rooting everything in this sense of ongoing relationship Grogan poses and responds to questions such as Could hell be empty Can knowledge of the future transform the present What will it be like to be fully alive What will we do in heaven He also makes a clear call to engage with God now in transforming our present relationships so that everyone may become more truly fully alive This is the Christian gift to the world The next time anyone asks me about heaven hell purgatory limbo or anything related to what awaits us after our earthly lives have ended I will recommend this excellent new book Father Grogan s approach is wise without being preachy scholarly without being overly academic and hopeful without being naive He covers almost any question that a Christian might have about the last things and does so by taking those concerns seriously answering them carefully and grounding them in Scripture and tradition Highly recommended James Martin SJ author of The Jesuit Guide to Almost Everything

Eternal paradise eternal torment is there more to the Christian afterlife than these concepts Father Brian Grogan discusses questions surrounding the afterlife exploring many ideas that aren t normally presented surrounding the ideas of fate our lives and what ultimately lies ahead of us as human beings Where to From Here is a fascinating read and addition to Christian and spirituality collections The Midwest Book Review Read full review at Midwest Book Review Fr Brian Grogan SJ takes a fresh and intelligently satisfying approach to such well worn topics as the general judgment heaven hell and purgatory He offers a fresh and hopeful look at the Christian vision of life after death and is an excellent choice for group
