Bird Of One Wing A Vietnamese Womans Story:

Bird of One Wing Kieu Lien Le Ogura, 2001 Vietnam: A Natural History Eleanor Jane Sterling, Martha Maud Hurley, Le Duc Minh, 2008-10-01 A country uncommonly rich in plants animals and natural habitats the Socialist Republic of Vietnam shelters a significant portion of the world s biological diversity including rare and unique organisms and an unusual mixture of tropical and temperate species This book is the first comprehensive account of Vietnam s natural history in English Illustrated with maps photographs and thirty five original watercolor illustrations the book offers a complete tour of the country s plants and animals along with a full discussion of the factors shaping their evolution and distribution Separate chapters focus on northern central and southern Vietnam regions that encompass tropics subtropics mountains lowlands wetland and river regions delta and coastal areas and offshore islands The authors provide detailed descriptions of key natural areas to visit where a traveler might explore limestone caves or glimpse some of the country s twenty seven monkey and ape species and more than 850 bird species The book also explores the long history of humans in the country including the impact of the Vietnam American War on plants and animals and describes current efforts to conserve Vietnam s complex fragile and widely threatened biodiversity One Day in Vietnam Gary Hook, 2000-09-15 After visiting the Vietnam Veterans Memorial in Washington D C and reflecting on the name of a distant cousin first time author Gary Hook set out to discover the man he had never known and what happened to him during the war He searched for and found his cousin s closest relatives friends and fellow soldiers with whom his cousin served during the war Through extensive personal interviews and key government documents the author uncovered a story of gripping air combat heroic sacrifice and a terrible secret that lay hidden for more than thirty years Women Vietnam Veterans Donna A. Lowery, 2015-09-24 Women Vietnam Veterans Our Untold Stories by Donna Lowery a Vietnam veteran chronicles the participation of American military women during the Vietnam War This little known group of an estimated 1 000 women from the Army Marine Corps Navy and Air Force left its mark in Vietnam from 1962 to 1973 They served in a myriad of duties from intelligence analysts flight controllers clerk typists translators physical therapists dietitians and communications specialists among many others Our Untold Stories allows the women to speak for themselves about their experiences and for the first time ever brings names facts and figures together in one literary work The purpose of the book is to be historically significant to future researchers The history of the military women in Vietnam began in 1962 with Army Major Anne Marie Doering She was born in what became North Vietnam Her father was a French officer her mother a German citizen When her father died her mother married an American businessman Her service in Vietnam as a Combat Intelligence Officer is a compelling story of the US military women in a war zone It was not until 1965 that the US Women s Army Corps WAC sent two women as advisors to assist the newly formed Vietnam Women s Armed Forces Corps The following year the Army authorized the establishment of a WAC Detachment in Vietnam Soon thereafter the Air Force Marine Corps and Navy also sent women to serve in various capacities In March 1973 under the Paris Peace Accords the last women left Vietnam along with the remaining men The impact they had in Vietnam set the stage for the expansion and integration of women into additional roles in the military Today women serve in areas of active combat demonstrating their abilities and dedication to the mission Voices of the Vietnam POWs Craig Howes,1993 Contains primary source material USMC Vietnam Helicopter Pilots and Aircrew History, 2nd Ed. ,1995-09-01 Capture the esprit de corps of the Marines in action during the Vietnam War A documentation of the men the crews and the machines that flew the wartorn skies of Southeast Asia Hundreds of dynamic photographs maps roster of Association members and nearly 400 biographies with before and after photos of Marines make USMC Vietnam Helicopter Association Pop a Smoke a treasure chest of memories and history Story ,1992 Parrot Culture Bruce Thomas Boehrer,2010-03-09 Exploring the presence and meanings of these birds in the art literature and history of Western civilization Parrot Culture traces the unusual history of parrots from their introduction in the Graeco Roman world through the great age of New World exploration to the contemporary ecological crisis of globalism Earning Their Wings Sarah Parry Myers,2023-09-14 Established by the Army Air Force in 1943 the Women s Airforce Service Pilots WASP program opened to civilian women with a pilot s license who could afford to pay for their own transportation training and uniforms Despite their highly developed skill set rigorous training and often dangerous work the women of WASP were not granted military status until 1977 denied over three decades of Army Air Force benefits as well as the honor and respect given to male and female World War II veterans of other branches Sarah Parry Myers not only offers a history of this short lived program but considers its long term consequences for the women who participated and subsequent generations of servicewomen and activists Myers shows us how those in the WASP program bonded through their training living together in barracks sharing the dangers of risky flights and struggling to be recognized as military personnel and the friendships they forged lasted well after the Army Air Force dissolved the program Despite the WASP program s short duration its fliers formed activist networks and spent the next thirty years lobbying for recognition as veterans Their efforts were finally recognized when President Jimmy Carter signed a bill into law granting WASP participants retroactive veteran status entitling them to military benefits and burials The Dark Encounters in Vietnam Edgar Wollstone, During the war years of 1954 1975 between the communist government of North Vietnam and the government of South Vietnam America invaded a pledging ally of South Vietnam thus ending what was known as the American war in Vietnam The Second Indochina War left a lasting legacy of extreme American brutality The armed forces along with the prison systems punishments modes of attack and physical and psychological tortures were inconceivable Aside from that the Vietnamese perception of ghosts is what gave Vietnam a place in the horror section The proper interment of bodies and religious rites are the main foundations of Vietnamese folklore The battle though devastated that According to them the improperly and unconventionally buried bodies have a large possibility of leaving their souls in the earth which wanders through the connected places This idea was also manipulated later by the U S army as their war strategy In addition many of the soldiers had many eerie encounters during that period including ghosts strange creatures mishaps and more Apart from these strange encounters what people have endured at the hands of humans has been intolerable such as war strategies involving booby traps tunnels torture in prisons and so on Asiaweek ,1983 A Chronology of the United States Marine Corps: 1965-1969 by Gabrielle M. People's Diplomacy of Vietnam Harish C. Mehta, 2019-08-20 This is the first full length book on the concept of People's Diplomacy promoted by the president of North Vietnam Ho Chi Minh at the peak of the Vietnam War from 1965 1972 It holds great appeal for historians international relations scholars diplomats and the general reader interested in Vietnam A form of informal diplomacy people's diplomacy was carried out by ordinary Vietnamese including writers cartoonists workers women students filmmakers medical doctors academics and sportspersons They created an awareness of the American bombardment of innocent Vietnamese civilians and made profound connections with the anti war movements abroad People's diplomacy made it difficult for the United States to prolong the war because the North Vietnamese together with the peace movements abroad exerted popular pressure on the American presidents Lyndon Johnson and Richard Nixon to end the conflict It was much more effective than the formal North Vietnamese diplomacy in gaining the support of Westerners who were averse to communism It damaged the reputation of the United States by casting North Vietnam as a victim of American imperialism
