global and regional scales Moreover the region is still underrepresented in international tourism literature and content for pedagogical and educational purposes still limited This gap needs to be filled to help inform tourism developments and to better educate the next generation This can help shift students and practitioners away from an over dependence on models and ideas developed and tested in different social and cultural settings that may not be appropriate for a Latin American context Therefore this book aims to bring together researchers students practitioners and other agents involved with research teaching and the operation of tourism to share their research and work experiences in Latin America in the form of case studies focusing on real world examples
