Birds of the Pembrokeshire Coast Peter Knights, Pembrokeshire Coast National Park Authority, 1984 Birds, 2002

The Birds of Devon William Samuel Mitchell D'Urban, Murray Alexander Mathew, 1892 The Birds of

Nottinghamshire Nick Crouch, Jason Reece, David Parkin, 2019 The last comprehensive review of Nottinghamshire's birds was produced more than four decades ago. Much has changed since then and a new avifauna is long overdue. This book draws together historic reports from the nineteenth century records from the files of the county bird club Nottinghamshire Birdwatchers and data from national and regional surveys and monitoring programmes. The resulting account presents an overview of the present state of the county's birdlife set against a context of environmental and climatic change. The gravel pits in the Trent and Idle Valleys form major corridors for birds moving across Britain and Nottinghamshire has attracted more than its share of national rarities. These include Britain's first Egyptian Nightjar and Lesser Yellowlegs in the nineteenth century. Bufflehead, Redhead, Cedar Waxwing and breeding Black-winged Stilts in the twentieth century and a memorable nesting attempt by European Bee-eaters in 2017. The woods and heaths of Sherwood lying in the middle of the county also provide a haven for an array of iconic species including European Nightjar, Eurasian Woodcock, Honeybuzzard and Hawfinch. This book describes the past and present status of the 334 species that have been recorded in Nottinghamshire up to 2018. Lavishly illustrated with photographs taken within the county and sketches from the internationally recognised artist Michael Warren, it is intended to be an authoritative reference to the birds of Nottinghamshire. A Monograph of the Hirundinidae Richard Bowdler Sharpe, Claude Wilmott Wyatt, 1894 The Naturalist, 1852 Birds of the Welsh Coast Thomas George Walker, 1956 The Rough Guide to Wales Mike Parker, Paul Whitfield, 2003 This guide covers everything from Wales pumping nightlife and rural cosmopolitanism to its crags and castles. Critical reviews are given on accommodation and restaurants suiting all pockets from budget to luxury. There are detailed descriptions of numerous walks from gentle lakeside strolls to serious mountain scrambles and water sports including surfing and the locally pioneered sport of coasteering.

Birds of a Feather Colin Rees, Derek Thomas, 2014-05-28 In Birds of a Feather an informative and beautifully illustrated book Colin Rees and Derek Thomas portray the changing seasons in the UK and US bringing their observations together with some startling results. With images by artists Robert Gillmor and Ian Rees the book will appeal to anyone with an interest in birds and their future in North America and the UK. Exploding flocks of Snow Geese rising from icy fields, the arrival of the osprey, the harmonies of the dawn chorus, migrating waders racing south before the surf, these are but a few moments evoking the sights, sounds and colours of the passing seasons observed and recorded over a year by two experienced ornithologists living on both sides of the Atlantic. In the context of their gardens, neighbourhoods and in larger landscapes Colin Rees and Derek Thomas provide a month-by-month account of their birding year, commenting upon what they see and hear. They also consider how our world is radically changing the lives of birds. Birds of a Feather celebrates the gentle patter of raindrops the scent and luminescence of spring swallows of an evening and the first flight of young ospreys They take the reader on walks through grasslands forests marshes estuaries and along coasts and describe the effects of changing weather on flora and fauna the unfolding of the breeding season bird counts the character of birders and bird organizations in the US and UK They also address the challenge of conservation in the modern world Over 45 million people consider themselves bird watchers in the US and 20 million watch birds in the UK making this book appealing to bird watchers on both sides of the Atlantic Advanced praise for Birds of a Feather The joys of the seasons are deep in our souls Gilbert White's classic The Natural History of Selborne shared his astute diaries of nature's calendar Edwin Way Teale's acclaimed books on the American Seasons inspired a generation of naturalists on this side of the pond Birds of a Feather now engages us in much the same way through the superior powers of observation and charming prose of two pals here and there Frank Gill formerly Philadelphia Academy of Sciences and Vice President Science National Audubon Society Birds of a Feather is a poignant and moving reminder of how experiences of wildlife can grip the human soul and linger in our memories Two friends thousands of miles apart share with us moments they will never forget Their consciousness of and love for the natural world brings even the most unexpected places to life Stephanie Hilborne OBE Chief Executive The Wildlife Trusts This book will be a great read for birders from either side of the Atlantic who normally experience the birds of the other side through short trips during peak seasons The book provides a flavour of the year round diversity of species and habitats through the eyes of two experienced birders who understand how seasonal change drives the bird movements that make birding so much fun The trans Atlantic comparisons of two amazing birding locations throughout the year make this an even more compelling read Mike Parr Vice President for Program Development American Bird Conservancy The annual rhythms of nature provide a ceaseless flow of variety and change to our natural environment that stimulate and inspire us wherever we live Observing birds is surely one of the most engaging ways to enjoy the year's natural cycle with bird migrations each spring and autumn delivering the colour and sounds of the tropics and the Arctic directly to us Birds of a Feather takes us via delightful personal accounts through the ornithological year on both sides of the Atlantic juxtaposing the rich coastal plain of the Chesapeake Bay with the rocky coast plains and mountains of South Wales Along the way are valuable reminders that birds in both regions and across the globe are at risk from a similar array of threats including habitat loss pollution and climate change David Curson Director of Bird Conservation Audubon Maryland DC This delightful dialogue back and forth across the Atlantic Ocean demonstrates that wildlife is a shared pleasure wherever we live Mark Avery former Head of Conservation at RSPB now a freelance environmental consultant and journalist The book features illustrations by Robert Gillmor cover art and Ian Rees interior illustrations Robert Gillmor is an English artist ornithologist and illustrator and one of the founders of the Society of Wildlife Artists of which he is a past president He has contributed to over 100 books is a 2001 recipient of the medal from the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds and his work is the subject of numerous museum collections He
