Nadaï,2015-06-09 This book provides timely multidisciplinary cross national comparison of the institutional and social processes through which renewable energy landscapes have emerged in Southern Europe On the basis of case studies in these countries it analyzes the way in which and the extent to which the development of renewable energies has affected landscape forms and whether or not it has contributed to a reformulation of landscape practices and values in these countries Landscape is conceived broadly as a material social political and historical process embedded into the local realm going beyond aesthetic The case studies analyze renewable energy landscapes in Southern Europe on different political and geographical scales and compare different types of renewable energy such as wind hydro solar and biomass power The contributors are leading experts from Spain France Italy and Portugal The book is intended for researchers graduate students and professionals interested in geography landscape and planning

Hunting and Harvest Trends for Migratory Game Birds Other Than Waterfowl, 1964-76 Elwood Martin,1979 Hunting activity and harvest estimates for 10 species or groups of migratory game birds other than waterfowl based on data collected for 13 seasons 1964 76 in the Annual Questionnaire Survey of U S Waterfowl Hunters are presented A number of long term trends were noted High correlations obtained between certain results in the survey and the results of independent surveys are discussed The inescapable conclusion is that although this survey of waterfowl hunters provides valuable data on the subject a better sampling frame or frames for measuring the activity and success of all hunters of migratory game birds other than waterfowl is needed to meet the high standards now being set for the management of this valuable resource A Bird's Eye View a Different Take on Love, Relationships, the Celebrity Life-Style and Sports Stephanie Dolce,2011-03-12 This novel is taken from my experiences from other people s experiences and from any thought provoking idea that crosses my path Throw in how Television radio and even sports plays a role in how we live our lives and you got yourself a very interesting take on love relationships and the American obsession with the Celebrity world So ask yourself Do fairy tales really exist or are we kidding ourselves by believing that we all will someday find that happily ever after ending in our lives And after you ask that question read A Bird s Eye View and find out The English Cyclopaedia Charles Knight,1859 Foundations of Systematics and Biogeography David M. Williams,Malte C. Ebach,2007-11-19 Anyone interested in comparative biology or the history of science will find this myth busting work genuinely fascinating It draws attention to the seminal studies and important advances that have shaped systematic and biogeographic thinking It traces concepts in homology and classification from the 19th century to the present through the provision of a unique anthology of scientific writings from Goethe Agassiz Owen Naef Zangerl and Nelson among others Passions for Birds Sean Nixon,2022-05-15 Whether as sources of joy and pleasure to be fed counted and watched as objects of sport to be hunted and killed or as food to be harvested wild birds evoke strong feelings Sean Nixon traces the transformation of these human passions for wild birds from the early twentieth century through the 1970s detailing humans close encounters with wild birds in Britain and the wider North Atlantic world Drawing on a rich range of written sources Passions for Birds reveals how emotional subjective and material attachments to wild birds were forged through a period of pronounced social and cultural change Nixon demonstrates how for all their differences new traditions in birdwatching and conservation field sports and bird harvesting mobilized remarkably similar feelings towards birds Striking similarities also emerged in the material forms that each of these practices used to bring birds closer to people hides and traps nets and ropes and binoculars Wide ranging in scope Passions for Birds sheds new light on the ways in which wild birds helped shape humans throughout the twentieth century as well as how birds themselves became burdened with multiple cultural meanings and social anxieties over time Extreme Philosophy Stephen Hetherington,2024-04-09 Philosophy s value and power are greatly diminished when it operates within a too closely confined professional space Extreme Philosophy Bold Ideas and a Spirit of Progress serves as an antidote to the increasing narrowness of the field It offers readers including students and general readers twenty internationally acclaimed philosophers who highlight and defend odd extreme or mad ideas The resulting conjectures are often provocative and bold but always clear and accessible Ideas discussed in the book include propaganda need not be irrational science need not be
