Feather and Brush Penny Olsen,2022-05-02 Feather and Brush traces the history of bird art in Australia from the simple engravings illustrating accounts of the earliest European voyages of discovery to the diversity of artwork available today It explores the early European approach in which naval draughtsmen officers convicts settlers naturalists artists and scientists alike contributed both to the art and the science of ornithology through to a wealth of contemporary artists who feature birds in their works This book contains more than 400 images representing the work of 158 artists some well known others published for the first time The illustrations have been selected for their interest whether ornithological historical or artistic They range from classical to quirky decorative to functional monumental to intimate Together they demonstrate the rich history of Australian bird art as it evolved in Europe and Australia and continues today along with the trends and technologies of the times This second edition includes new and revised chapters and features about 200 new artworks including some by Indigenous artists Cultural sensitivity Readers are warned that there may be words descriptions and terms used or referenced in this book that are culturally sensitive Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people should be aware that this book contains images and names of deceased persons      Snake River Birds of Prey Area ,1985      Birder

Interrupted M. Ralph Browning,2024-02-15 Inspired by Roger Tory Peterson and James Fisher s book Wild America recent high school graduate M Ralph Browning embarked on a tightly budgeted year long trip in the US looking for birds The year was 1962 His 1955 VW Beetle broke after nine months which forced a premature end to the journey In 2005 after matters of military duty college a family and a career in birds at Smithsonian s National Museum of Natural History the author resumed the interrupted trip This time he was with the girl he d left behind in 1962 and they birded Texas the Southwest and California The author chronicles the trip with observations on birds while touching on history geology and conservation The cost of keeping alive includes periodic notes on the price of gasoline about 0 33 gallon in 1962 and food The author had earlier written to numerous birders for information about birding particular locations and many of those individuals across the country showed him birds and invited him into their homes for a gratefully appreciated warm bed and home cooking The 2005 leg of the journey was assisted by bird finding guides and the help of the legendary Jon Dunn and numerous motels
