Birgitta Of Sweden Life And Selected Writings:

Selected Writings Saint Alfonso Maria de' Liguori, 1999 This volume of the acclaimed Classics of Western Spirituality TM is a significant one It offers new translations of a representative selection of the spiritual writings of Alphonsus de Liguori 1696 1787 saint bishop religious founder the Redemptorist Congregation and doctor of the church The late Frederick M Jones principal editor of this volume and author of an acclaimed biography of Alphonsus has written an exceptional introduction that outlines this saint's life with particular emphasis on the political sociological and intellectual climate of Bourbon Naples in which he lived wrote and ministered The writings presented here demonstrate the wide range of his work and its relevance to Christian life and spirituality in our own day o Spiritual Writings o Spiritual Direction o Devotional Writings o Prayer o Moral Theology o Letters Alphonsus' devotional writings had an enormous impact on the practices of Catholic piety right up to Vatican II In addition he played an influential role in the development of moral theology This collection of his works fills a demand for an English translation of Alphonsus' major spiritual works Among the interested readers will be members of the Redemptorist order theology students and students of 18th century Italian church history and society

St. Birgitta of Sweden Bridget Morris, 1999 An account of the life and achievements of St Birgitta of Sweden one of the most charismatic figures in the late medieval mystical tradition founder of the Bridgettine order St Birgitta of Sweden was one of the most charismatic figures in the late medieval mystical tradition In Rome she succeeded in commanding prelates and popes and throughout the courts of Europe she engaged in political secular intrigues she married and produced eight children yet became the only woman in the fourteenth century to be canonised and in an age where new monastic foundations were proscribed she founded an order of her own devising primarily for women This first modern biography presents an account of her extraordinary life and achievements placing the saint in the context of the society from which she emerged and showing how her public voice and reforming zeal were informed by a private spirituality at all stages of her life Particular attention is given to her most lasting achievement the monastic foundation which bears her name and has produced a network of communities throughout Europe active to the present day BRIDGET MORRIS is senior lecturer in Scandinavian studies at the University of Hull

Saint Bride and Her Book Saint Bridget (of Sweden), Julia Bolton Holloway, 2000 First published in 1992

Widow City Anna Wainwright, 2025-05-13 Widow City Gender Emotion and Community in Renaissance Italy investigates the ever evolving role of the widow in medieval and early modern Italian literature from canonical authors such as Dante Petrarch and Boccaccio to the numerous widowed writers who rose to prominence in the sixteenth century including Vittoria Colonna Veronica Gambara and Francesca Turina and radically changed the conversation on public mourning Engaging with broader intellectual discussions around gender the history of emotions the politics of mourning and the construction of community Widow City argues that widows served as key models demonstrating to readers not just how to mourn but how to live well after devastating loss At the same time widows were figures of great anxiety their status as unattached women and the public performance of their grief were viewed as very real threats to the stability of the social order They are thus key to broader intellectual understandings of community and civic life in the Italian Middle Ages and Renaissance

The Spirituality of the German Awakening August Tholuck, 2003 This volume introduces readers to the faith and work of four figures of the 19th century revival movement called the German Awakening August Tholuck 1799 1871 Johann Hinrich Wichern 1808 1881 Theodor Fliedner 1800 1864 Friedrich von Bodelschwingh 1831 1910 The German Awakening engendered a spirituality that fostered human kindness grounded it in awakened faith and gave it the shape of loving service to society This remarkable and unique scholarly contribution translates the majority of its materials for the first time in English includes a variety of spiritual genres sermons hymns commentaries mission statements etc

Celtic Spirituality Oliver Davies, Thomas O'Loughlin, 1999 This volume offers translations of numerous texts from the Celtic tradition from the 6th through the 13th centuries in a cross section of genres and forms

Norbert and Early Norbertine Spirituality Theodore James Antry, Carol Neel, 2007 Having met with resistance in his attempts to reform the clergy in his native Xanten Norbert ca 1080 1134 founded a religious community in France His establishment was the first house of an eventually hugely successful order the Canons Regular of Premontre also known as the Premonstratensians or Norbertines Although Norbert who was appointed archbishop of Magdeburg in 1126 left no writings his followers produced many important texts in their efforts to reform a lax and demoralized clergy Yet despite these authors significance to the spirituality of their age their words and their historical context are little known to modern readers This volume renders audible the voices of the twelfth century followers of Norbert presenting the most important early Premonstratensian texts including two versions of the Vita Norberti along with an introductory essay describing their place in twelfth century religious life Book jacket

Knowledge God Class Sufism, 2004 This volume the ninth on Islamic material to be published in the Classics of Western Spirituality series brings to light a highly significant but little known area of Islamic spirituality Editor John Renard has assembled here a volume of texts most translated here for the first time culled from the great Sufi manuals of spirituality on the theme of the complex and multi faceted role of knowledge in relation to the spiritual life He presents excerpts on knowledge from the works of nine major Muslim teachers most translated from Arabic but also including important texts from Persian originals The Introduction offers a survey of the development of Sufi modes of knowing through the thirteenth century in their broader context and then focuses on the manuals or compendia of Sufi spirituality treated here Historical notes provide brief identifications of many of the individual sources and personalities mentioned throughout the treatises

The Ladder of Divine Ascent Saint John (Climacus), 1982 John Climacus c 579 649 was abbot of the monastery of Catherine on Mount Sinai His Ladder was the most widely used handbook of the ascetical life in the ancient Greek Church

The Spiritual Guide Miguel de Molinos, 2010 In one series the original writings of the universally acknowledged teachers of the Catholic Protestant Eastern Orthodox Jewish and Islamic traditions have been critically selected translated and introduced by internationally recognized scholars and spiritual leaders Miguel de Molinos c 1628 1696 was one of the most important figures in the religious controversy known as Quietism Spanish by birth he spent nearly his entire adult life in Rome where he attracted wide fame as a spiritual director and gained the favor of several prominent figures His Spiritual Guide 1675 recommended a life of spiritual simplicity and promoted what became known as the prayer of quiet On publication it was an immediate bestseller but the Guide's fame came to an abrupt end in 1685 when Molinos was accused of heresy and sentenced to life imprisonment He died in prison in 1696 This Classics of Western Spirituality edition of the Spiritual Guide was translated from the new critical edition of Jos Ignacio Tellechea Idgoras It provides an unabridged translation in modern English along with a historical introduction by the translator and a theological introduction by the eminent scholar Bernard McGinn Book jacket Margaret Ebner, Major Works Margaret Ebner, 1993 The first English translation of the works of Margaret Ebner c 1291 1351 a Dominican nun and mystic offers a unique glimpse into the inner life and thought of a woman who was considered to be holy even during her lifetime These writings reveal a spiritual clearly Christocentric worldview and relate a great deal about the struggle for and the meaning of liberation spiritually and intellectually then and now Jean Gerson Jean Gerson, 1998 Here are selected seminal writings of Jean Gerson 1363 1429 chancellor of the University of Paris academic humanist Christian teacher and reformer and one of the greatest theologians and mystical writers of the middle ages Quaker Spirituality Douglas Van Steere, 1984 Simplicity in forms of worship opposition to violence concern for social injustice and above all a faith in the personal and corporate guidance of the Holy Spirit are characteristics of the spirituality of the people called Quakers The author has assembled a comprehensive collection of Quaker writings The Fifty Spiritual Homilies ; And, The Great Letter Pseudo-Macarius, 1992 The writings of Pseudo Macarius a Syrian monk of the 4th century bring to Western Christianity a holistic heart spirituality that offers a necessary complementarity to the head spirituality of the West The homilies reveal the typical traits of Eastern Christian asceticism and The Great Letter instructs the monastic community The New Big Book of Christian Mysticism Carl McColman, 2023-08-29 This revised and expanded edition offers a big possibility the hope of achieving real experiential union with God The Christian of the future will be a mystic or will not exist This word of warning from theologian Karl Rahner was uttered half a century ago and today Christianity is indeed in crisis Is mysticism necessary for the survival of Christianity What exactly is Christian mysticism How can it be relevant in our crisis ridden world Questions like these inspire The New Big Book of Christian Mysticism a newly updated edition from beloved spiritual teacher and bestselling author Carl McColman The New Big Book of Christian Mysticism serves as both introduction and practical instruction for a living contemplative practice today In addition to the overview of mysticism spiritual and prayer practices in mysticism the various types of mysticism in Christian tradition and influential mystics through the millennia this second edition offers an embodied understanding of the mystic life with a more diverse range of voices and perspectives from Howard Thurman to

Pauli Murray It also includes new chapters and themes that address embodied mysticism contemplation and social justice and the ongoing relevance of Jesus's message of radical equality and inclusivity This bigger book introduces both Christians and non Christians to the contemplative tradition within Christianity a tradition that has often been marginalized or cloistered to the church's detriment As a practice oriented book this is an invitation to embrace the mystical element within Christianity a practice that can equip faithful persons with a joyful sense of divine intimacy not just for personal benefit but as a foundation to a life of service and activism in the interest of justice McColman's overview of mysticism shows how it has been practiced and lived through the centuries and will prove inspirational for today's seekers regardless of their faith tradition At its heart Christian mysticism is an ancient practice that incorporates meditation contemplation worship philosophy the quest for enlightenment the thirst for a better world and the experience of divine presence
