Birmingham J. D. Weeks,1999      Post Card Exchange JD Weeks,2018-10-25 The Golden Age of the Post Card was 1898 to around 1913 Millions of them were produced and many think the oldest ones are the most valuable but that is not necessarily true There are still large numbers of them still available Birmingham began producing them somewhere in the middle As the automobile became available to the average person the roads began to be so much better and families began to travel more easily They liked to bring home something that reminded them of their trip They also liked to send postcards to family and friends as they traveled farther from home The Post Card Exchange was started in 1909 by William H Faulkner He first appeared in Birmingham in 1903 and apparently was a traveling salesman and roomed in a boarding house downtown He went to work for the R D Burnette Cigar Company who also had begun printing postcards locally That is apparently about when Faulkner decided to go into the business himself Page 4 of cover      Premocar-Made In Birmingham JD Weeks,2013-09-20 The story of the Premocar an automobile built in Birmingham AL 1919 1923 From the start as the Preston automobile then the Premocar automobile until the Preston Motors Corporation closed      A Postcard History of the Passenger Liner Christopher Deakes,2023-10-01 From around 1880 for almost a hundred years shipowners commissioned a wealth of paintings that depicted their magnificent liners as well as the routes they travelled their exotic destinations and life onboard These paintings rich in imagination and atmosphere appeared on postcards and posters of the day and were used to advertise the companies and their ships and so was born a whole genre that produced tens of thousands of paintings which formed a wonderful record of the great era of the passenger liner In 1900 there were over thirty shipping companies operating passenger liners across the North Atlantic Other oceans were similarly served But now with just a few exceptions the companies and their liners have disappeared along with the art they once inspired Little remains to recall this aspect of our maritime past except the postcards and they tell an evocative story of the vanished world of elegant ships and leisurely travel of social and political times much changed by the history of the past century Here brought vividly to life in more than 500 colourful postcards are the ships on which so many of our predecessors sailed as emigrants soldiers administrators or simply as tourists in days long past These cards which are now highly collectable show how steamships developed over the years but they are also a fine tribute to the artists who painted them This volume also includes a glossary of some 170 illustrators which forms an important reference section and advice on collecting      Birmingham J. D. Weeks,1999 At the start of the 20th century Birmingham was one of the fastest growing cities in the South sometimes referred to as the Magic City It began as a town located at the intersection of two railroads and then quickly expanded and took in neighboring communities Around this time photographers traveled around the United States taking photographs of towns and cities and turning the photographs into postcards The postcards collected here show historic Birmingham s downtown hospitals parks communities schools hotels and industries These images serve as a record of everyday life in this bustling Southern city

North Birmingham-A City of it's Own JD Weeks,2018-02-28 This book attempts to present the beginning of North Birmingham as a city of its own It is filled with early reports of happenings in North Birmingham both as a city of its own and during the transition into the City of Birmingham Postcards from the Nursery Dawn Cope,Peter Cope,2000 A tribute to legions of unsung children s illustrators A History of Postcards Martin Willoughby,1994 Birmingham in Vintage Postcards J.D.
