Birmingham Past and Present David Robert Harvey, 2003 A further photographic tour of the central area of Birmingham concentrating on commercial activities churches entertainments shopping streets and the coming of the Inner Ring Road and the Bull Ring shopping complex Birmingham's Crossley Buses David Harvey, 2022-02-15 With previously unpublished photographs the author documents the history of Birmingham's Crossley buses of Isambard Kingdom Brunel's Great Western Railway André Gren, 2003 Imagining Cities Sallie Westwood, John M Williams, 2018-05-11 First published in 1997 Imagining Cities gives students access to the most exciting recent work on the city from within sociology cultural studies and cultural geography Contributions are grouped around four major themes The theoretical imagination Ethnic diversity and the politics of difference Memory and nostalgia The city as narrative The book considers the interplay of past and present imagined and substantive and links present and future in examining the idea of the virtual city Here the world of cyberspace not only recasts views of space and communication but has a profound impact General Jamaica Kevin Baxter, 2024-06-28 Step aside Captain America Captain on the sociological imagination itself Britain and Union Jack there's a new superhero in town Actual not as new as you think General Jamaica was actually created by me way back in January 1989 Seriously those aforementioned heroes have absolutely nothing to worry about I m a self published amateur and won t be biting into Marvel or DCs market share anytime soon I m happy will my nice modest slice and happy to stay in my lane My first ever attempt to bring a comic from my imagination to market so please go easy on me I promise I will do better next time Honest Remaking Birmingham Liam Kennedy, 2013-04-15 The volume is multi disciplinary in content including contributions from specialists in architecture public and community arts photography and urban studies their critical perspectives linked by interest in urban visual culture The Local Church and Generational Change in Birmingham, 1945-2000 Dr. Ian Jones, 2012 An examination of how religious identity changed in twentieth century England using Birmingham as a case study to illuminate wider trends The ongoing debate about secularisation and religious change in twentieth century Britain has paid little attention to the experience of those who swam against the cultural tide and continued to attend church This study based on extensive original archive and oral history research redresses this imbalance with an exploration of church based Christianity in post war Birmingham examining how churchgoers interpreted and responded to the changes that they aw in family congregation neighbourhood and wider society One important theme is the significance of age and generational identity to patterns of religiosity amidst profound change in attitudes to youth age and parenting and growing evidence of a widening generation gap in Christian belief and practice In addition to offering a new and distinctive perspective on the changing religious identity of late twentieth century English society the book also provides a rare case study in the significance of age and generation in the social and cultural history of modern Britain Ian Jones is the Director of the Saltley Trust an educational charity Birmingham Country Life ,1991 Inclusive Urban

Design: Public Toilets Clara Greed, 2007-06-01 This is a unique text providing both design guidance and policy direction for the provision and design of public toilets covering city wide district level and site specific principles It highlights the role of urban design in reversing the trend of inadequate toilet provision and sets out quidelines for design which meets both user need and provider requirements Greed presents the fundamental principle that toilets should not be dealt with in isolation from mainstream urban policy but that they should be seen as a serious core component in both strategic urban policy and local area design She argues toilets are valuable townscape features in their own right as manifestation civic pride and good urban design essential architectural components which add to the quality and viability of an area Although a range of design quidance on toilets exists there is still considerable dissatisfaction with the end product in terms of building design levels of provision location safety layout DDA requirements and accessibility By outlining user demands and provider constraints Greed shows that it is essential for architects to have an informed understanding and practical knowledge of toilet issues when working with public and private sector providers Examples of toilet architecture from other countries and policies from different cultural settings are included for comparative purposes to invigorate UK perspectives Literary Second Cities Iason Finch, Lieven Ameel, Markku Salmela, 2017-11-22 This book brings together geographers and literary scholars in a series of engagements near the boundaries of their disciplines In urban studies disproportionate attention has been given to a small set of privileged first cities This volume problematizes the dominance of such alpha cities offering a wide perspective on second cities and their literature The volume is divided into three themed sections In the Shadow of the Alpha City problematizes the image of cities defined by their function and size bringing out the contradictions and contestations inherent in cultural productions of second cities including Birmingham and Bristol in the UK Las Vegas in the USA and Tartu in Estonia Frontier Second Cities pays attention to the multiple and trans national pasts of second cities which occupy border zones with a focus on Narva in Estonia and Turkish Kurdish Diyarbakir The final section The Diffuse Second City examines networks the diffuse secondary city made up of interlinked small cities suburban sprawl and urban overspill with literary The Past in Visual Culture Jilly Boyce Kay, Cat Mahoney, Caitlin case studies from Italy Sweden and Finland Shaw, 2017-01-04 In recent years digital technology has made available an inconceivably vast archive of old media Images of the past accessed with the touch of a finger are now intertwined with those of the present raising questions about how visual culture affects our relationship with history and memory This collection of new essays contributes to a growing debate about how the past and its media are appropriated in the modern world Focusing on a range of visual cultures the essays explore the intersection of film television online and print media and visual art platforms whose boundaries are increasingly hard to define and the various ways we engage the past in an environment saturated with the imagery of previous eras Topics include period screen fiction nonfiction media histories and memories cinematic nostalgia and recycling and the media as both purveyors and carriers of memory Rule, Nostalgia Hannah Rose Woods, 2022-05-26 A FINANCIAL TIMES NEW

STATESMAN AND GUARDIAN BOOK OF THE YEAR A must read Janina Ramirez bestselling author of Femina An eye opening history of Britain's enduring fixation with its own past Jeremy Paxman Rule Nostalgia announces Woods as one of the most interesting new historians of her generation Dan Snow Longing to go back to the good old days is nothing new For hundreds of years the British have mourned the loss of tradition and called for a revival of simpler better ways of life from modern politicians indulging in fantasies of an imperial past to Victorian artists yearning to retreat into a medieval dream of Merry England But were the good old days ever quite how we remember them Rule Nostalgia is a surprising timely new history of Britain that separates the history from the fantasy and traces back to its origins the powerful influence that nostalgia s perpetual backwards glance has had on British history politics and society Reviewing Imperial Conflicts Cristina Baptista, Ana Cristina Mendes, 2014-03-26 This volume of essays investigates across a wide range of texts and with an emphasis on the notion of conflict the various forms objects and modes of circulation that sustained the European civilizing mission At the heart of this volume are two controversial and conflicting papers authored by Robert JC Young and Bernard Porter around which other researchers come together to complement the debate and address some of the thorny issues that arise from reviewing colonial and postcolonial conflicts Under the aegis of history and cultural studies as well as film studies the contributors in this collection share the common purpose of reviewing imperial conflicts while arguing for their own research agendas From opposition and conflict new perspectives on those cultural processes within the particular context of the British Empire are gained Museums Journal Elijah Howarth, F. Encyclopedia of Islamic Art & Architecture: Three-Volume Set Jonathan Bloom, Sheila Blair, 2009-05-14 The Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art and Architecture deals with all aspects of Islamic art and architecture ranging from the Middle East to Central Asia to Southeast Asia and Africa The volumes cover all subject areas in Islamic art including artists rulers writers architecture ceramics sculpture metalwork painting calligraphy textiles and more The Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art and Architecture provides unparalleled scope and depth on this rapidly growing area of interest It offers fully updated articles and bibliography as well as more than 500 plans maps diagrams illustrations and colour plates Similar in scope and design to The Grove Encyclopedia of Decorative Arts this three volume reference work contains articles of various lengths in alphabetical order The shorter more factual articles none shorter than 50 words are combined with larger multi section articles tracing the development of the art forms in various geographical locations and Society Zygmunt Bauman, 2024-06-19 The breadth and depth of Zygmunt Bauman sengagement with social theory and the history of social thought has perhaps been underestimated in part because many of his early writings were in Polish and never translated into English and in part because many important pieces appeared in edited volumes and journals that are not readily available This volume brings together hitherto unknown or rare pieces by Bauman on the theme of theory and society and also makes available previously unpublished material from the Bauman Archive at the University of Leeds A consistent theme of Bauman s work was his sustained engagement with humanism and this provides a unifying thread in the pieces brought together in this volume Here Bauman reflects on some of the core concepts of sociology examines the work of a wide range of social theorists from Durkheim and Gramsci to Agnes Heller and C Wright Mills and addresses an array of key ideas and issues including inequality identity and social change A substantial introduction by the editors provides readers with a lucid guide through this material and develops connections to Bauman's other works This is the third and final volume in a series of books that make available the lesser known writings of one of the most influential social thinkers of our time It will be of interest to students and scholars across the arts humanities and social sciences and to a wider readership Wires at Tally Ho David Berguer, 2011-02-01 Today pollution free transport is high on the political agenda yet it is sometimes forgotten that electric vehicles ran on the streets of London from the early 1900s until 1962 This book tells the story of that period and describes both the vehicles themselves and the effect they had on the development of the suburbs Local historian David Berguer has endeavoured to paint a picture of what life was like in the capital during this golden age travelling and working on the trams and trolleybuses and includes material based on newspaper reports council and official minutes and oral histories from those involved With many previously unpublished photographs and detail on the vehicles and routes themselves there is even a chapter on the colourful pirate buses which competed against trams in the 1920s Full of local interest and insights into daily life on north London trams and trolleybuses this celebration of the glory days of electric street traction in the suburbs of North London is bound to capture the imagination of both transport and local historians alike

Stories from Home Margaret Ponsonby,2016-04-01 Most homes in the past were not elite wealthy interiors complete with high fashion furnishings designed by well known architects and designers as many domestic histories often seem to have assumed As this book makes clear there were in fact an enormous variety of house interiors in England during the period 1750 1850 reflecting the location status and gender of particular householders as well as their changing attitudes tastes and aspirations By focusing on non metropolitan homes which represented the majority of households in England this study highlights the need for historians to look beyond prevailing attitudes that often reduce interiors to generic descriptions based on high fashions of the decorative arts Instead it shows how numerous social and cultural influences affected the manner in which homes were furnished and decorated Issues such as the availability of goods gender regional taste income the second hand market changing notions of privacy and household hierarchies and print culture could all have a significant impact on domestic furnishing The study ends with a discussion of how domestic interiors of historic properties have been presented and displayed in modern times highlighting how competing notions of the past can cloud as well as illuminate the issue Combining cultural history and qualitative analysis of evidence this book presents a new way of looking at ordinary and provincial homes that enriches our understanding of English domestic life of the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries Westering Laurence Mitchell,2021-04-29 A treasure trove of fascinating stories little known places and hidden gems of history Westering is a coast to coast British journey from Norfolk to the Welsh coast by an established travel writer From Great Yarmouth to Aberystwyth Westering takes us across England from the Fens Leicester the Black Country and central Wales It connects landscape place and memory to evoke a narrative unravelling the deep topography and following a westerly route that runs against the grain of the land its geology culture and historical bedrock With the industrial Midlands sandwiched between bucolic landscapes in East Anglia and Wales here we explore places too often overlooked Along the way we encounter deserted medieval villages battlefield sites the ghosts of Roman soldiers valleys drowned for reservoirs ancient forests John Clare s beloved fields and the urban edgelands Notions of home and belonging landscapes of loss and absence birds and the resilience of nature the psychology of walking and the psychogeography of liminal places all frame the story
