Invitation Gwendolyn Seymour, 2009-09 Is it Thom asked Yes I d recognize her writing anywhere I said with complete conviction On this yellowed piece of stationery was a note As each member of the older generation passes a piece of the very foundation of family leaves with them one fragment at a time Younger members of that unit often forget what it means to be family by letting the God given connections between brothers sisters mothers and fathers lose their importance as they live independently of these vital relationships One such family searches for atonement with the beginning of a letter initiated decades earlier On an unassuming day one woman s love of antiquing will lead her down a path of redemption love and the memories of grandparents gone but not forgotten The loving tale of a wife and mother finding a blast from the past significantly laced with God s grace and surprise sparks a plan into motion for siblings to reunite for the first time in years What stories will the antiques tell Who will listen to them Find out who will answer the Invitation Youth's Companion
