questions the book sets out to answer Drawing on detailed clinical material the author gives special attention to the problems of addiction and psychosomatic disorder as well as the broad topic of dissociation and its treatment By focusing on the archaic and primitive defenses of the self he connects Jungian theory and practice with contemporary object relations theory and dissociation theory At the same time he shows how a Jungian understanding of the universal images of myth and folklore can illuminate treatment of the traumatised patient Trauma is about the rupture of those developmental transitions that make life worth living Donald Kalsched sees this as a spiritual problem as well as a psychological one and in The Inner World of Trauma he provides a compelling insight into how an inner self care system tries to save the personal spirit Blood Trilogy - Dystopian Fantasy Romance (The Bree Somner Chronicles Books 1-3) S.
