Biting the Moon Martha Grimes, 2013-08-13 The girl's hair was white below the scarf now a scarf of snow and there was a fine rime of ice on her eyebrows Her mouth was so numb she couldn't have spoken even if there had been someone to speak to She wore the snowshoes she had found back in the cabin and had brought the supplies painkiller and bandages whatever she might need to dress a wound She wondered if trappers wore snowshoes Probably not Anyway a trapper wouldn't put himself through the unpleasantness of coming out in a heavy snow like this to check his traps In New Mexico the law was you had to check the traps every thirty six hours but who paid any attention An animal trapped stayed trapped

Contemporary Crime Fiction Charlotte Beyer, 2021-03-01 This unique and timely book presents nine compelling essays on contemporary crime fiction bringing innovative and fresh perspectives to the analysis of this most popular and vibrant literary genre Investigating contemporary crime fiction and the critical debates surrounding its reception and production the introductory chapter sets the scene for the subsequent analyses of distinct crime fiction topics themes and authors The topics include the experimental detective narrative race and ethnicity historical crime fiction domestic noir feminism and crime environmental crime and the poetics of place Authors examined here range from Ian Rankin Gillian Flynn Val McDermid Denise Mina Robert Galbraith Nancy Bilyeau and Martha Grimes to Tana French Dale Furutani and J G Ballard and more Informed by the latest critical debates and theoretical perspectives in the field this volume presents an invaluable source of information and criticism on crime fiction for students researchers and academics alike The Moon Illusion Maurice Hershenson, 2013-05-13 This unique volume attempts to answer one of mankind's oldest puzzles why the moon appears to be larger and closer on the horizon than when it is high in the sky Over the centuries many viable solutions have been proposed for this psychological phenomenon The Moon Illusion presents papers by major theorists striving to explain the illusion and providing commentaries on the works of others Research on the moon illusion has been scattered throughout journals in many disciplines including philosophy physiology physics and psychology As the first publication to present a comprehensive treatment of the problem this book is of vital interest to professionals whose major concern is visual perception experimental psychology or the neurosciences Of additional interest to those whose focus is physics or astronomy New Wests and Post-Wests Paul S. Varner, 2013-10-03 The writers of these chapters are often working with changing assumptions about literary and media interpretations of an American West Here we see critical approaches to a West that never was a West of myth so enduring that the myth dominates nearly all artistic representation about this place that never was In this collection we see critical approaches to a New West a West that is a state of mind not a geographical place but a mythic space with no boundaries and no political inevitabilities These New Western studies accept the idea of a West that includes Canada Mexico Alaska and in the case of the US every geographic and historical point west of the historic founding settlements The West we study today is a post West an idea of the West past the traditional views of an old West dominated by white US nationalism and gendered as uncompromisingly masculine The idea itself of a single West no longer holds validity We now understand that all renderings of the West are renderings of multiple Wests Wests constructed by American nationalists Wests constructed by EuroAmerican writers and filmmakers Wests constructed by native peoples or Wests constructed outside the geographical boundaries of the US This collection presents an eclectic array of new scholarship ranging freely over the New Wests and Post Wests dealing with issues such as the literature of a 1950s California West eco crime genre fiction the West of Edward Dorn and the Beat Movement images of prostitution in California Gold Rush literature European perspectives on film representations of the first peoples the six shooter and the American West German Westerns and Italian Westerns The Authentic Death of Hendry Jones by Charles Neider and films such as The Treasure of Sierra Madre Into the Wild There Will Be Blood and The Last Picture Show A unique aspect of this collection is the range of writers interpreting the American West in film and literature besides those writing from within the United States five of the writers provide international perspectives from the United Kingdom and the Universities of Tunis Vienna and Rome Each chapter includes a review of scholarship on its subject and an extended bibliography for further research
