century For many years domestic humor was written primarily by females significant contributions from male writers began as times and family structures changed It remains timeless because of its basis on the relationships between husbands and wives parents and children houses and inhabitants pets and their owners chores and their doers and neighbors This work is a historical and literary survey of humorists who wrote about home It begins with a chapter on the social context of and attitudes toward traditional domestic roles and housewives The following chapters beginning with the 1920s and continuing through today cover the different time periods and the foremost American domestic humorists and the humor written by surrogate parents grown children about their childhood families husbands and Canadian and English writers Also covered are the differences among various writers toward traditional domestic roles some like Erma Bombeck and Judith Viorst embraced them while others like Caryl Kristenson and Marilyn Kentz resisted them Common themes such as the isolation and competitiveness of housework home as an idealized metaphysical goal and ongoing physical challenge and the urban suburban and rural life are also explored

Food and Femininity in Twentieth-Century British Women's Fiction Andrea Adolph, 2016-04-15 In her feminist intervention into the ways in which British women novelists explore and challenge the limitations of the mind body binary historically linked to constructions of femininity Andrea Adolph examines female characters in novels by Barbara Pym Angela Carter Helen Dunmore Helen Fielding and Rachel Cusk Adolph focuses on how women's relationships to food cooking eating serving are used to locate women's embodiment within the everyday and also reveal the writers' commitment to portraying a unified female subject For example using food and food consumption as a lens highlights how women writers have used food as a trope that illustrates the interconnectedness of sex and gender with issues of sexuality social class and subjectivity all aspects that fall along a continuum of experience in which the intellect and the physical body are mutually complicit Historically grounded in representations of women in periodicals housekeeping and cooking manuals and health and beauty books Adolph s theoretically informed study complicates our understanding of how women s social and cultural roles are intricately connected to issues of food and food consumption Moving on Sarah Ban Breathnach,2006 The author offers an inclusive inspirational guide to help readers understand themselves and use their insights to accept change and move on after life changing events Working Mother ,2002-12 The magazine that helps career moms balance their personal and professional lives The Vacuum Cleaner Maud Ellmann,2024-07-25 This book offers an entertaining study of the facts and fantasies associated with the vacuum cleaner as it evolved from a luxury gimmick to a household necessity The iconic appliance of twentieth century domestic revolution the vacuum cleaner stands at the forefront of radical changes in technology automation finance marketing hygiene infrastructure time management domestic labour and the history of dirt This appliance also insinuates itself into the dominant phobias of the period including totalitarianism and nuclear war Maud Ellmann shows how modern literature art and other media have transformed this humble domestic mod con into a curmudgeon windbag cannibal vampire dictator infanticidal mother freedom fighter mantra and lothario The Chimney of the World Stephen Mosley,2013-04-15 In this innovative contribution to the field of environmental history Stephen Mosley explores the devastating human and environmental costs of smoke pollution in the world s first industrial city Rising Life Expectancy James C. Riley,2001-06-04 This book traces the global history of rising life expectancy in the last 200 years Made from Scratch Jean Zimmerman,2012-11-13 A stunning celebration and reappraisal of the importance of women s work Made from Scratch addresses the tug that many Americans feel between our professional and private lives In this stunning celebration and reappraisal of the importance of women s work acclaimed journalist Jean Zimmerman poignantly addresses the tug that many Americans of the twenty first century feel between our professional and private lives With sharp wit and intelligence she offers evidence that in the current domestic vacuum we still long for a richer home life a paradox visible in the Martha Stewart phenomenon in the continuing popularity of women s service magazines such as Better Homes and Gardens Family Circle and Ladies Home Journal whose combined circulation of over 17 million is nearly twice the combined circulation of Time Newsweek and U S News World Report and the booming business of restorations where onlookers get a hands on view of domestic life as it flourished in past centuries This book is about the ways home traditions passed from one generation to the next baking a birthday cake from scratch cherishing family heirlooms or discovering the satisfaction of piecing a quilt sustain our souls especially in our ever more processed synthetic world where we buy homemade goods and fail to see the irony in that Made from Scratch tells the story of the unsung heroines of the hearth investigating the history of female domesticity and charting its cultural changes over centuries

Zimmerman traces the lives of her own family's homemakers from her tiny but indomitable grandmother who managed a farm strangled chickens with her bare hands and sewed all the family clothing to her mother who rejected her country upbringing yet kept a fastidious suburban home where the gender divide stayed firmly in place to her own experiences as a wife and mother weaned on the Women's Movement of the 1970s with its emphatic view that housework was a dirty word and that the domestic sphere was to be fled rather than cherished In this book Zimmerman questions the unexamined trade off we have made in a shockingly brief time span as we've progressed from home raised chickens to frozen TV dinners to McNuggets from the food court at the mall What is lost when we no longer engage as individuals and as a community in the ancient rituals of food craft and shelter

The Victorians and the Visual Imagination Kate Flint, 2000-08-28 The Victorians and the Visual Imagination is an exciting and innovative exploration of the Victorians' attitudes towards sight Tantalized by physiologists who proved the unreliability of the eye intrigued by the role of subjectivity within vision and provoked by new technologies of spectatorship the Victorians were also imaginatively stirred by the sense of a world which lay just out of human sight This interdisciplinary study draws on writers as diverse as George Eliot Elizabeth Barrett Browning and Rudyard Kipling as well as Pre-Raphaelite and realist painters including Millais Burne Jones William Powell Frith and Whistler and a host of Victorian scientists cultural commentators and art critics Its topics include blindness the location of memory hallucination dust and the importance of the horizon a dazzling eclectic range of subjects linked together by the operations of the eye and brain

Homemaking for the Apocalypse Jill Anderson, 2021-04-20 In Homemaking for the Apocalypse Jill E. Anderson interrogates patterns of Atomic Age conformity that controlled the domestic practices and private activities of Americans Used as a way to promote security in a period rife with anxieties about nuclear annihilation and The Bomb these narratives of domesticity were governed by ideals of compulsory normativity and their circulation upheld the wholesale idealization of homemaking within a white middle class nuclear family and all that came along with it unchecked reproduction constant consumerism and a general policing of practices deemed contradictory to normative American life Homemaking for the apocalypse seeks out the disruptions to the domestic ideals found in memoirs Civil Defense literature the fallout shelter debate horror films comics and science fiction engaging in elements of horror in order to expose how closely domestic practices are tied to dread and anxiety Homemaking for the Apocalypse offers a narrative of the Atomic Age that calls into question popular memory's acceptance of the conformity thesis and proposes new methods for critiquing the domestic imperative of the period by acknowledging its deep tie to horror

Whitewashing America Bridget T. Heneghan, 2003-10 A study of how material goods and antebellum consumption defined whiteness Gender and Consumption Lydia Martens, Emma Casey, 2016-04-15 Drawing upon anthropological sociological and historical perspectives this volume provides a unique insight into women's domestic consumption. The contributors argue that domestic consumption represents an important lens through which to examine the everyday production and reproduction of socio-economic relations. Through a variety of case studies such as gambling, wedding day consumption and bedroom decor the essays explore and reconsider the nature of public and private spaces and the subsequent nature of domestic space often by challenging traditional notions of what constitutes the domestic. The volume demonstrates the broad range of experiences that domestic consumption offers women and reveals some of the complex meanings and motivations underpinning women's consumption practices.
