over the Bulbul's Nest and Other Stories Mahvash K. Mohtadullah, 2024-08-28 Most of the stories in this book are joyful staunch and uplifting reaching for the softer corners of the reader's heart From the paraplegic who found love in the whispers of the gulmohar tree to the young widow torn between the drums of tradition and the sweet hopeful beat of maternal love and compassion to the woman who regularly traverses the full glimmering sweep of her inner world to the case of the cheating spouse that will make Hercule Poirot untwirl his moustache in awe to one of the good days of a man in the curiously tender grasp of dementia One Flew Over The Bulbul's Nest will take you down poignant and memorable lanes of love loss and triumph Some of the other stories are raw and defiant dealing with the thorny themes of devoutness tradition and empowerment From the girl who falls pregnant in the home where she grew up to a faithful's soul searching dialogue with the devil to the flashback account of a childhood cut short by the trusted family retainer The Glimmer was longlisted in the 2023 Zeenat Haroon Rashid Writing Competition for women Ravaged has been selected as part of an American academic publication Sing Slivered Tongue An Anthology of South Asian Women's Poetry of Trauma Love Like that and Other

Stories, 2012 The Adventures of Kudmi Thatha and Other Stories Arun Hariharan, 2019-10-16 The Adventures of Kudmi Thatha and Other Stories takes you on a journey through the funny side of life To be honest if you ask me I believe that in the long run there is only one side the funny side My children Lakshmi and Srihari are big believers in the funny side Every time they come back from a perfectly serious event such as regular school day or a music concert they get into fits of giggling and will regale anybody who is willing to listen with funny stories which everybody else seems to have missed They taught me a thing or two about looking at the funny side A book like The Adventures of Kudmi Thatha and Other Stories is never really done All characters and situations in this book are fictional but any fictional writing is influenced by the author's experiences and environment Numerous have been the occasions when just as I thought I was finally done writing the book yet another memory of some long forgotten hilarious situation would get re-kindled and I would tell myself I must add this to the book I am sure this will continue in future too So don't be surprised if you find more funny stories in the next edition of Kudmi Thatha If you enjoy reading this book as much as I enjoyed writing it my purpose in having written it will be served

Swaminathan, 1997 What did Aunt Lalli do before she retired from something clerkish in the police? The question intrigues us even as the narrator and her aunt Lalli plunge headlong into adventures in each of these engrossing detective stories. Aunt Lalli ingeniously solves each mystery and we celebrate the emergence of a new sleuth into the world of detective fiction.

Phoenix Eyes and Other Stories Russell Charles Leong, 2012-02-01 Russell Charles Leong shows an astonishing range in this new collection of stories. From struggling war refugees to monks, intellectuals to sex workers, his characters are both linked and separated by their experiences as modern Asians and Asian Americans. In styles ranging from naturalism to high camp parody, Leong goes beneath stereotypes of immigrant and American-born Chinese hustlers and academics, Buddhist priests and street people. Displacement and marginalization and the search for love and liberation are persistent themes. Leong's people are set apart by sexuality, by war, by AIDS, by family dislocations. From this vantage point on the outskirts of conventional life, they often see clearly the accommodations we make with identity and with desire. A young teen-ager sold into prostitution to finance her brother's education saves her hair trimmings to burn once a year in a temple ritual, the one part of her body that is under her own control. A documentary film producer raised in a noisy Hong Kong family marvels at the popular image of Asian Americans as a silenced minority. Traditional Chinese families struggle to come to terms with gay children and AIDS. The Paper Menagerie and Other Stories Ken Liu, 2016-10-04 A collection of science fiction and fantasy stories by Ken Liu. The Gold of the Sunbeams and Other Stories Tito Rajarshi Mukhopadhyay, 2005 Two miracles underlie this work: the author's age—he is seventeen years old—and the fact that he is severely autistic. Both aspects enrich the substance of his narrative. This talented young writer, defying the general perception that autistic people imprisoned within themselves are unable to communicate with the outside world, has been writing stories of poetic prose and literary eloquence since before he was eight. Tito's stories range from beautiful to funny and touching. In the title story, the young protagonist, whose father has been imprisoned for gambling in the park, must assume overnight the mantle of responsibility for his family, which he does with great heroism until that authority has to be returned to his father and new problems begin. In The Showers, when a cyclone wreaks devastation in rural India, Tito imagines the survivor's plight from the sorrow of losing their homes to the politics of rebuilding their lives. In Broken Mirror, we learn the history of a room from a broken mirror that hangs on the wall and which Tito imbues with emotions and memories. In Grey Apple Green and White, he gives life and character to colors the way the French symbolist poet Rimbaud gave colors to vowels. The stories connect through a rich and complex imagery of smiles, dust motes, and margosa trees. BOOK JACKET Eyes of the Mind and Other Stories Chopra
