Reece, 2019-03-01 Collected here are poems by one of Georgia's most intriguing and talented poets of the twentieth century Byron Herbert Reece was born in Union County Georgia in 1917 and authored four volumes of poems and two novels during his short lifetime Until now many of his poems originally published in the 1940s and 1950s have been out of print Reece who faithfully assumed responsibility for his family's farm when his parents became ill was never a poet of the academic ivory tower Indeed he rebelled against the rising New Criticism associated with the Vanderbilt Fugitives the elite of southern poetry at that time Reece's work reflects both the devastating impact of his parents' death from tuberculosis and his own affliction with the disease which caused him to distance himself from others A solitary thing am I Upon the roads of rust and flame That thin at sunset to the air Reece was also preoccupied with his ambivalence toward the farm which sustained his solitude yet took time away from his writing In the far dark woods go roving And find there to match your mood A kindred spirit moving Where the wild winds blow in the wood Reece's poetry is resonant and contemplative and Jim Clark has included here works that speak for the true grace of Reece's talent In addition Clark's attentive introduction should bring increased interest to this notable southern poet      The Hawk and the Sun Byron Herbert Reece, 1994 Set in the small town pre civil rights South The Hawk and the Sun is the story of one day in the life of Dandelion a physically impaired man who is the sole black resident in the town of Tilden Years before the birth of a mixed race child to a white prostitute had precipitated an outpouring of hatred against Tilden s black citizens all of whom but Dandelion had been driven from town In this atmosphere of smoldering self righteousness Dandelion survives on handouts and what little he can earn from odd jobs Finally the town turns against him as well Seen hurrying from the house of the neurotic Miss Ella as her screams fill the air of an August morning Dandelion is apprehended and falsely accused of rape Before the day s end he is tortured and lynched In his rendering of Dandelion of those who murdered him of those who looked the other way and of the lone white man who stood futilely against the mob Byron Herbert Reece brings his readers face to face with the horrifying spectacle of collective fear and racism
