Bitter Choice Eight South Africans Resis:

Black Power in South Africa Gail M. Gerhart, 2023-04-28 This book better than any I have seen provides an understanding of the politics and ideology of orthodox African nationalism or Black Power in South Africa since World War II from the Youth League of the African Student National Congress ANC of the late 1940s to the South African Student Organization SASO and the Black Consciousness Movement of the 1970s Perspective Clarifies some of the main issues that have divided the black leadership and rescues the work of some pioneering nationalist theorists It s an absorbing piece of history New York Times Informative and well researched She ably explores the nuances of the two main movements until 1960 and explains why blacks were so receptive to black consciousness in the late Sixties New York Review This book better than any I have seen provides an understanding of the politics and ideology of orthodox African nationalism or Black Power in South Africa since World War II from the Youth League of the African Student National Congress ANC 100 Years of Struggle - Mandela's ANC Heidi Holland, 2012-09-28 Despite the African National Congress being at the height of its powers its future is today less certain than at any time in its long history In the past the liberation movement went through two huge transformations with remarkable agility the first at the instigation of the hot headed young rebel Nelson Mandela He brought about changes that drove the organisation from gentlemanly petitions to armed resistance The second great shake up in the ANC occurred twenty two years ago as Mandela emerged from prison when the movement transformed itself from deep socialist militancy to centre left political conformity But it was at the time dominated by realistic courageous leaders like Mandela Sisulu and Tambo who are no longer steering the vast juggernaut through the third revolution that is under way now The ANC s struggle for freedom was supposed to have ended with its election to office in 1994 when it defeated apartheid But rampant unemployment income distribution as skewed as anywhere on earth catastrophic corruption inferior education and lingering racial tensions cast shadows that lengthen with each passing year Whether the ANC with its current leadership still has the flexibility to transform itself and survive the anarchistic onslaught of politicians like Julius Malema remains to be seen

Pluralizing Humanism Slavica Jakelić, 2025-02-28 Humanism is appealed to today whenever we want to tackle the conditions of dehumanization in the contemporary world But for humanism to be viable in the twenty first century this book argues it needs to be pluralized Employing theoretical historical and sociological arguments this book moves beyond the discourse of critique It engages theories of religion and secularism as well as postmodern postcolonial and decolonial critiques of Western humanist projects to uncover the ideas and practices of religious and secular humanisms when they challenge dehumanization in the pursuit of conditions of flourishing for all Through studies of the Solidarity movement in Poland and the anti apartheid movement in South Africa the book demonstrates the centrality of humanist traditions to the emergence of religious secular solidarities that transformed the political landscapes of the world By highlighting the instances in which humanisms functioned as checks on each other s absolutist claims the book contends that humanisms supply a constructive path for addressing the challenges of our time a time of radically divided societies and intolerant even violent forms of nationalism A challenge to the critiques of humanism that seek to identify it solely as the legacy of the West as anti religious discourse or relegate it to the domain of power constellations Pluralizing Humanism highlights the rich plurality of humanist discourses and the need for their mutual engagements It points to humanist ideals as constitutive of politics that can guide our human power because they are irreducible to it As such this book will appeal to social scientists social theorists religious studies scholars and ethicists with interests in religion secularism social movements and humanist thought and practice Modernizing Racial Domination Heribert Adam,1971 Apartheid Racial discrimination

Religion and Resistance Politics in South Africa Lyn S. Graybill,1995-11-30 This study focuses on Christianity and black nationalism in South Africa and looks at four individuals Albert Lutuli Robert Sobukwe Steve Biko and Desmond Tutu to see how each leader s Christian beliefs influenced the political strategy he pursued Just as theology Calvinism was significant in the formulation of Afrikaner nationalism so too has theology variously interpreted been instrumental in the articulation of African nationalism The African National Congress ANC the Pan Africanist Congress PAC the Black Consciousness Movement BCM and the United Democratic Front UDF all relied on a Christian perspective and vocabulary to articulate the goals of black nationalism By tracing this religious thread through each of these various resistance movements the author has made a fascinating contribution to the literature of comparative politics African studies and the sociology of religion The 20th Century Go-N Frank N. Magill,2014-03-05 Each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains 250 entries on the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history This is not a who s who Instead each entry provides an in depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual s life and achievements The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual s place in history All entries conclude with a fully annotated bibliography Albert Luthuli Robert Trent Vinson,2018-08-09 In an excellent addition to the Ohio Short Histories of Africa series Robert Trent Vinson recovers the important but largely forgotten story of Albert Luthuli Africa s first Nobel Peace Prize winner and president of the African National Congress from 1952 to 1967 One of the most respected African leaders Luthuli linked South African antiapartheid politics with other movements becoming South Africa s leading advocate of Mahatma Gandhi s nonviolent civil disobedience techniques He also framed apartheid as a crime against humanity and thus linked South African antiapartheid struggles with international human rights campaigns Unlike previous studies this book places Luthuli and the South African antiapartheid struggle in new global contexts and aspects of Luthuli s leadership that were not previously publicly known Vinson is the first to use new archival evidence numerous oral interviews and personal memoirs to reveal that Luthuli privately supported sabotage as an additional strategy to end apartheid This multifaceted portrait will be indispensable to students of African history and politics and nonviolence movements worldwide
