Child of a Turbulent Century Victor Erlich, 2006-08-22 Victor Erlich was born in 1914 at the threshold of what the great Russian poet Anna Akhmatova called the real twentieth century in Petrograd a place indelibly marked by that century's violent dislocations and upheavals His story begun on the eve of the First World War and taking him through Russia Poland Lithuania Germany and the U S Army is in many ways a memoir of that real twentieth century reflecting its lethal nature and shaped by the fearful symmetry of the age of totalitarianism To read about Erlich's life growing up at the intersection of the century's darkest currents is to experience history firsthand from the Russian Revolution to the end of the Second World War and to know what it truly is to be a child of the century Throughout despite the darkness even the horror of much of what he describes the author maintains the beguiling tone and the warm manner of one who has reached the new millennium with rare and hard won insight into the human comedy of his time
