The Belle Ridge Murders Carole Ravin,2007 Vigilante or psychopath who is murdering men in Belle Ridge Lita Anders a New York journalist leaves Manhattan with her five year old daughter and returns to her hometown an old New Jersey suburb of Manhattan where mansions meet Greenwich Village Impressed with her credentials as well as her legs the playboy publisher of the Belle Ridge Call dispatches Lita to cover the murder of an Orthodox rabbi killed on the steps of his vandalized synagogue which catapults her into the murders of three other local men an alcoholic truck driver a gay actor and a prominent attorney The only link between the victims is the missing weapon a Smith and Wesson 38 Her initial investigation points to a gang of neo Nazi college thugs that have hassled the actor and truck driver and are the likely synagogue vandals but there is more to the string of murders than bigotry gone amok Each of the victims was married and not one of the widows is grieving not the Orthodox intellectual not the cocktail waitress not the famous actress nor the reclusive socialite Have they been abused Have they banded together and hired a hit man When Lita uncovers the unsolved murder of a member of a town planning board shot with a Smith and Wesson 38 gun still missing she is hunted by a vicious adversary but the link between all five murders continues to elude her

Wicked Deeds James M. O'Kane,2017-10-24 To most Americans homicide appears to be a random act one committed by a deranged and irrational killer in a haphazard unpredictable manner Murder is seen as a chaotic disorganized act beyond the realm of reason In Wicked Deeds James O Kane shows that homicide is actually rather predictable and patterned with respect to its assailants and victims the circumstances in which it takes place the time and location where it occurs and the motives which precipitate the murderous act Engagingly written and solidly grounded in evidence this is a definitive study of murder in the United States O Kane explores the phenomena of homicide illustrating the journalists who what why when and where of murder He differentiates criminal homicide such as murder in the first and second degree from other types of killings including legal and quasi legal killings These include suicide abortion accidental death terrorism and other non criminal types of homicide such as justifiable and excusable homicide The author s focus is criminal homicide and he uses age sex race and socioeconomic status as well as demographic data to explain ever recurring patterns of murder in the United States Wicked Deeds analyzes numerous categories of murder intimate partner homicide child and family murders multiple victim killings including mass murder and serial homicide Each type of murder is illustrated by accounts of actual murders reported in the media and on internet sites Approximately 200 cases illustrate the typical homicides as well as the bizarre ones In portraying the patterns and regularities of murder in the United States Wicked Deeds is an essential treatment of a subject too often given over to sensationalism It will be of keen interest to professionals and students of criminal justice as well as those interested in American culture and the general reader who wants to grasp the patterns underlying the headlines

What Cops Know Connie Fletcher,1992 Offers a distillation of police life and lore drawing on the experiences of Chicago cops to present the often surprising knowledge they acquire and the methods they employ in their line of work

The Mammoth Book of Bizarre Crimes Robin Odell,2010-03-25 You couldn t make it up incredible real life criminal cases A fascinating A Z of murderous crimes which spans the globe and the centuries in uncovering the extremes of human criminality in all its strangeness This collection of unusual if not sensational murder cases recalls strange crimes of the past and offers insights into particularly macabre and shocking modern murders Many of the cases also shed light on advances in crime detection law enforcement and forensic science Cases include Krystian Bala the Polish writer who killed a rival and then used the murder as the plot for a novel Alexander Pichuskin who was stopped one short of killing the 64 victims he needed to fill a chess board John Lee the man they could not hang who survived three attempts to execute him and Adelaide Bartlett who was accused of killing her husband with chloroform but was acquitted because no one could work out how she had done it and she wouldn t say
