Grenville Library,1848 The Nelson Touch Terry Coleman,2004-07-08 Admiral Horatio Nelson captures our imaginations like few other military figures A mixture of tactical originality raw courage cruelty and romantic passion Nelson in action was daring and direct a paramount naval genius and a natural born predator Now in The Nelson Touch novelist Terry Coleman provides a superb portrait of Britain s most revered naval figure Here is a vivid account of Nelson s life from his childhood and early career at sea where a high placed uncle helped speed his advancement to post captain to gripping accounts of his greatest sea battles Readers will witness the Battle of the Nile where Nelson crushed a French squadron of thirteen ships of the line and the Battle of Trafalgar where he died at the moment of his greatest triumph What emerges is a man of strength of mind amounting to genius frequently generous always fascinated with women often uneasy with his superior officers and absolutely fearless Nelson was a ruthless commander whose instinct was not just to defeat the enemy but to annihilate him Sure to appeal to readers of Patrick O Brian and other seafaring fiction as well as all military history and naval history buffs this is a superbly written biography that gives readers the texture and feel of this magnificent life Nelson Edgar Vincent,2003-01-01 An account of the British naval commander s life and career explores his leadership style his victory against the Spanish fleet at Cape St Vincent and his relationships with women and family members Biography and History in Film Thomas S. Freeman,David L. Smith,2019-10-14 The essays in this volume seek to analyze biographical films as representations of historical individuals and the times in which they lived To do this contributors examine the context in which certain biographical films were made including the state of knowledge about their subjects at that moment and what these films reveal about the values and purposes of those who created them This is an original approach to biographical as opposed to historical films and one that has so far played little part in the growing literature on historical films The films discussed here date from the 1920s to the 2010s and deal with males and females in periods ranging from the Middle Ages to the end of the twentieth century In the process the book discusses how biographical films reflect changing attitudes towards issues such as race gender and sexuality and examines the influence of these films on popular perceptions of the past The introduction analyses the nature of biographical films as a genre it compares and contrasts the nature of biography on film with written biographies and considers their relationship with the discipline of history As the first collection of essays on this popular but understudied genre this book will be of interest to historians as well as those in film and cultural studies Bibliotheca Grenvilliana British Museum.
