North-south Linkages and Connections in Continental and Diaspora African Literatures African Literature Association. Meeting,2005 This volume collects some of the best lectures at the African Literature Association s 25th annual conference held in 1999 The conference brought together for the first time a large number of scholars creative writers and artists from Northern Africa and their counterparts from Sub Saharan Africa The conference and this collection highlight the inspiring and stimulating dialogue between two literary and cultural areas that have often been artificially compartmentalised The essays draw suprising connections and illustrate the breadth and dynamism of African literature

Companion to the New Literatures in English Christa Jansohn,2002

Urbanization and African Cultures Toyin Falola,Steven J. Salm,2005

Urbanization and African Cultures affirms the centrality of African cities in the modernization of African cultures showing how many have become firmly established in their settings and reflecting the impact of globalization Cities are presented as centers of culture and power and as powerful agencies that provide opportunities to generate new ideas The book shows how cities empower Africans with the opportunity to assert themselves to use culture to assert individual freedom and dignity to articulate ideas of ethnicity and group solidarity to portray class and even to show off poverty V aluable attention is paid to cities and urban phenomena off the paths beaten by most Western trained scholars African Studies Review This book successfully introduces readers to a range of cases that show the creative translocal processes taking place on the ground in African cities The International Journal of African Historical Studies Same and Other Mai Palmberg, Maria Eriksson Baaz, 2001 The idea of African Otherness has occupied a central role in discourses on cultural production in Africa whether film literature music or the arts These claims articulated both by Western and African critics and consumers means that particular criteria and standards are adopted in relation to cultural production in Africa The claim to African Otherness is gaining new strength in the wake of globalization but it is also increasingly challenged by a number of contemporary artists This book deals with the question of relevance and meaning of the signifier in various fields of contemporary cultural production in Africa
