Black and White Britain Colin Brown,1985 Black and White Britain Colin Brown,1984 Commission for Racial Equality Ray Honeyford,2017-11-30 In the United Kingdom as in the United States race relations are surrounded with taboos defined by the politically correct concepts of what Ray Honeyford calls the race relations lobby This lobby championed by the Commission for Racial Equality CRE has a vested interest in depicting the United Kingdom as a society rotten with endemic racism and its ethnic minorities as victims doomed to failure An outgrowth of the Race Relations Act of 1976 the Commission was founded in response to worthy concerns about race and patterned after its American prototype the Congress of Racial Equality Its constant demands for increased powers have only increased with the coming into power of the New Labour Party That makes Ray Honeyford s critique all the more urgent Honeyford exposes the policies and practices of the Commission to public view encouraging informed debate about its need to exist The CRE possesses considerable legal powers powers which seriously undermine the great freedoms of association contract and speech as associated with the United Kingdom Without denying the presence of racial prejudice Honeyford shows that the picture of the United Kingdom as a divisive nation is a serious misrepresentation Placing the CRE in its historical and political context Honeyford outlines its powers and analyzes its formal investigations in the fields of education employment and housing He also examines its publicity machine and its effect on public and educational libraries He points out the danger of uncritically replicating the American experience According to Honeyford Americans have replaced a melting pot notion of society with all citizens loyal to a national ideal with a tossed salad concept which encourages the creation of self conscious separate and aggressive ethnic groups each claiming special access to the public purse and having little regard for national cohesion and individual liberties Helping Out Miri Song,1999-07-09 An examination of children s work roles in ethnic businesses Nation and Migration Peter van der Veer,2016-11-11 Peter van der Veer and the contributors to this volume explore the relationship between South Asian nationalism migration ethnicity and the construction of religious identity Although nationality and diaspora seem to represent opposite ideas and values the authors argue that nationalism is strengthened even produced by migration British Immigration Policy Since 1939 Ian R.G.
