Black Art A Cultural History:

Black Art Richard J. Powell, 2022-01-20 The African diaspora a direct result of the transatlantic slave trade and Western colonialism has generated a wide array of artistic achievements from blues and reggae to the paintings of the pioneering African American artist Henry Ossawa Tanner and video creations of contemporary hip hop artists This book concentrates on how these works often created during times of major social upheaval and transformation use black culture both as a subject and as context From musings on the souls of black folk in late nineteenth century art to questions of racial and cultural identities in performance media and computer assisted arts in the twenty first century this book examines the philosophical and social forces that have shaped a black presence in modern and contemporary visual culture Now updated this new edition helps us understand better how the first two decades of the twenty first century have been a transformative moment in which previous assumptions about race difference and identity have been irrevocably altered with art providing a useful lens through which to think about these compelling issues

Black Art and Culture in the 20th Century Richard J. Powell, 1997 Includes African American artist profiles offers an examination of the social and cultural context of every type of art form from painting to performance art and looks at the role of the Black artist

New Thoughts on the Black Arts Movement Lisa Gail Collins, Margo Natalie Crawford, 2006-05-16 During the 1960s and 1970s a cadre of poets playwrights visual artists musicians and other visionaries came together to create a renaissance in African American literature and art This charged chapter in the history of African American culture which came to be known as the Black Arts Movement has remained largely neglected by subsequent generations of critics New Thoughts on the Black Arts Movement includes essays that reexamine well known figures such as Amiri Baraka Larry Neal Gwendolyn Brooks Sonia Sanchez Betye Saar Jeff Donaldson and Haki Madhubuti In addition the anthology expands the scope of the movement by offering essays that explore the racial and sexual politics of the era links with other period cultural movements the arts in prison the role of Black colleges and universities gender politics and the rise of feminism color fetishism photography music and more An invigorating look at a movement that has long begged for reexamination this collection lucidly interprets the complex debates that surround this tumultuous era and demonstrates that the celebration of this movement need not be separated from its critique

Alain Locke and the Visual Arts Kobena Mercer, 2022-01-01 A fresh perspective on the influential critic offering new ways of understanding the art of the Harlem Renaissance Alain Locke 1885 1954 leading theorist of the Harlem Renaissance maintained a lifelong commitment to the visual arts Offering an in depth study of Locke s writings and art world interventions Kobena Mercer focuses on the importance of cross cultural entanglement This distinctive approach reveals Locke s vision of modern art as a dynamic space where images and ideas generate new forms under the fluid conditions of diaspora Positioning the philosopher as an advocate for an Afromodern aesthetic that drew from both formal experiments in Europe and the iconic legacy of the African past Mercer shows how Aaron Douglas Lo s Mailou Jones and other New Negro artists acknowledged the diaspora s rupture with the ancestral past as a prelude to the rebirth of identity In his 1940 picture book The Negro in Art Locke also explored the different ways black and white artists approached the black image Mercer s reading highlights the global mobility of black images as they travel across national and ethnic frontiers Finally Mercer examines how Locke s investment in art was shaped by gay male aestheticism Black male nudes including works by Richmond Barth and Carl Van Vechten thus reveal the significance of queer practices in modernism s cross cultural genesis Published in association with the Hutchins Center for African African American Research Harvard University

Charting the Afrofuturist Imaginary in African American Art Elizabeth Carmel Hamilton,2022-08-12 This book examines Afrofuturism in African American art focusing specifically on images of black women and how those images expand the discourse of representation in visual culture of the United States This volume defines a visual language of Afrofuturism that includes materiality temporality and black liberation Elizabeth Hamilton discusses the visual progenitors of Afrofuturism In the artworks of Pierre Bennu Sanford Biggers Alison Saar Mequitta Ahuja Robert Pruitt Renee Cox Dawolu Jabari Anderson Alma Thomas and Harriet Powers the fantastic narratives of Afrofuturism are uncovered through in depth case studies These case studies engage with Afrofuturism as a black feminist visual theory that helps to unburden the images of black women from the stereotypical visual scripts that are so common in contemporary visual culture of the United States The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history visual studies American literature gender studies popular culture and African American studies

My Soul Has Grown Deep Cheryl Finley,Randall R. The Shape of Power Karen Lemmey,Tobias Wofford,Grace Yasumura,2024-11-12 A major new survey of American sculpture exploring how it both reflects and redefines concepts of race and identity in the United States How does American sculpture intersect with the history of race in the United States The three dimensional qualities of sculpture give it a distinct advantage over other art forms in capturing a subject s likeness and our minds can swiftly conjure a body and racialize it from the most minimal of prompts The Shape of Power examines the role of American sculpture from the nineteenth century to today in understanding and constructing the concept of race in the United States and how this medium has shaped the way generations have learned to visualize and think about race Exploring the relationship between sculpture and ideas about race in the United States this book provides fresh perspectives on artists ranging from Hiram Powers Edmonia Lewis and Augusta Savage to Barbara Chase Riboud Titus Kaphar Raven Halfmoon Sanford Biggers Betye Saar Yolanda L pez and Simone Leigh It reveals how sculptors use this versatile medium to challenge discriminatory ideologies and entrenched social and cultural constructions of race while offering bold new visions of community identity and selfhood Featuring superb illustrations of sculptural works in a broad range of media The Shape of Power contributes new scholarship to the understudied field of American sculpture which hasn t been the subject of a major publication survey in more than fifty years Published in association with the Smithsonian American Art Museum Washington DC Exhibition Schedule Smithsonian American Art Museum Washington DC November 8 2024 September 14 2025 A Cultural History of the Avant-Garde in the Nordic Countries Since 1975 ,2022-08-15 The Cultural History of the Avant Garde in the Nordic Countries Since 1975 is the final volume of the four volume series of cultural histories of the avant garde movements in the Nordic countries This volume carries the avant garde discussion forward to present day avant gardes challenged by the globalisation of the entertainment industries and new interactive media such as the internet The avant garde can now be considered a tradition that has been made more widely available through the opening of archives electronic documentation and new research which has spurred both re enactments revisions and continuations of historical avant garde practices while new cultural contexts political technological and ecological conditions have called for new strategies Gatecrashers Katherine Jentleson,2020-04-07 After World War I artists without formal training crashed the gates of major museums in the United States diversifying the art world across lines of race ethnicity class ability and gender At the center of this fundamental reevaluation of who could be an artist in America were John Kane Horace Pippin and Anna Mary Robertson

Grandma Moses The stories of these three artists not only intertwine with the major critical debates of their period but also prefigure the call for inclusion in representations of American art today In Gatecrashers Katherine Jentleson offers a valuable corrective to the history of twentieth century art by expanding narratives of interwar American modernism and providing an origin story for contemporary fascination with self taught artists Visual Culture: What is visual culture studies?

Joanne Morra,Marquard Smith,2006 These texts represent both the formation of visual culture and the ways in which it has transformed and continues to transform our understanding and experience of the world as a visual domain The Harlem Renaissance and Transatlantic Modernism Denise Murrell,2024-02-25 Beginning in the 1920s Upper Manhattan became the center of an explosion of art writing and ideas that has since become legendary But what we now know as the Harlem Renaissance the first movement of international modern art led by African Americans extended far beyond New York City This volume reexamines the Harlem Renaissance as part of a global flowering of Black creativity with roots in the New Negro theories and aesthetics of Alain Locke its founding philosopher as well as the writings of W E B Du Bois Langston Hughes and Zora Neale Hurston Featuring artists such as Aaron Douglas Charles Henry Alston Augusta Savage and William H Johnson who synthesized the expressive figuration of the European avant garde with the aesthetics of African sculpture and folk art to render all aspects of African American city life this publication also includes works by lesser known contributors including Laura Wheeler Waring and Samuel Joseph Brown Jr who took a more classical approach to depicting Black subjects with dignity interiority and gravitas The works of New Negro artists active abroad are also examined in juxtaposition with those of their European and international African diasporan peers from Germaine Casse and Ronald Moody to Henri Matisse Edvard Munch and Pablo Picasso This reframing of a celebrated cultural phenomenon shows how the flow of ideas through Black artistic communities on both sides of the Atlantic contributed to international conversations around art race and identity while helping to define our notion of modernism Joyce J.
