the W E B Du Bois Institute for Afro American Research at Harvard University and compiled by renowned experts offers a compendium of information and interpretation on over 500 years of black experience in America The Other Side of Color David C. Driskell, 2001 This volume presents selections from the highly respected Cosby collection of African American art Their introductions elaborate on their strong belief that African American families should themselves seek to preserve their cultural history and not rely on the mainstream They also provide interesting background about how they began their collection and what owning the art has meant to them The essay by Driskell curator author and scholar places each artist within the context of his or her era from the late 1700s to the present and explores the historical biographical social and political background of each period Also contains biographies of the artists Beautifully illustrated with 91 color plates and several other illustrations Oversize 10 25x13 25 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Visionary Women Writers of Chicago's Black Arts Movement Carmen L. Phelps, 2013 A disproportionate number of male writers including such figures as Amiri Baraka Larry Neal Maulana Karenga and Haki Madhubuti continue to be credited for constructing the iconic and ideological foundations for what would be perpetuated as the Black Art Movement Though there has arisen an increasing amount of scholarship that recognizes leading women artists activists and leaders of this period these new perspectives have yet to recognize adequately the ways women aspired to far more than a mere dismantling of male oriented ideals In Visionary Women Writers of Chicago's Black Arts Movement Carmen L Phelps examines the work of several women artists working in Chicago a key focal point for the energy and production of the movement Angela Jackson Johari Amiri and Carolyn Rodgers reflect in their writing specific cultural local and regional insights and demonstrate the capaciousness of Black Art rather than its constraints Expanding from these three writers Phelps analyzes the breadth of women's writing in BAM In doing so Phelps argues that these and other women attained advantageous and unique positions to represent the potential of the BAM aesthetic even if their experiences and artistic perspectives were informed by both social conventions and constraints In this book Phelps's examination brings forward a powerful and crucial contribution to the aesthetics and history of a movement that still inspires The Black Arts Movement James Smethurst, 2006-03-13 Emerging from a matrix of Old Left black nationalist and bohemian ideologies and institutions African American artists and intellectuals in the 1960s coalesced to form the Black Arts Movement the cultural wing of the Black Power Movement In this comprehensive analysis James Smethurst examines the formation of the Black Arts Movement and demonstrates how it deeply influenced the production and reception of literature and art in the United States through its negotiations of the ideological climate of the Cold War decolonization and the civil rights movement Taking a regional approach Smethurst examines local expressions of the nascent Black Arts Movement a movement distinctive in its geographical reach and diversity while always keeping the frame of the larger movement in view The Black Arts Movement he argues fundamentally changed American attitudes about the relationship between popular culture and high art and dramatically transformed the landscape of public funding for the arts Another Throat Ryan Sharp,2024-10-29 The early twenty first century has seen a sharp rise in Black US poets employing the mask of persona often including and interrogating archival materials as they do so While some have observed this rise and noted its connection to historical figures Ryan Sharp explores it more deeply as a project based historical and poetic practice Sharp examines its sustained use of historical persona and capacity for conjuring Black speakers as a countermeasure against the archival silencing and misrepresentation of Black voices and histories a tactic he theorizes as poetic fabulation through the poetry of Elizabeth Alexander Cornelius Eady Adrian Matejka Patricia Smith Natasha Trethewey and Frank X Walker This poetic practice is not only about looking back but about critically and creatively re imagining the past to expand the possibilities for Black presents and futures Through his argument Sharp demonstrates how the unique aesthetic and rhetorical license afforded to poetry along with the interiority of persona empowers such historically minded projects to be concurrently invested in the curation of Black narratives and identities
