

A poem for Tea

When the world is at odds
And the mind is at sea
Then cease the useless tedium
And brew a cup of tea

There is a magic in it's fragrance
There is solace in it's taste
And the laden moments vanish
Somehow into space.

The world becomes a lovely thing
There's beauty as you'll see
All because you briefly stopped
To brew a cup of tea

Black Bread and Tea Derora Bernstein, 1978      Poetry of Witness: The Tradition in English, 1500-2001 Carolyn Forché, Duncan Wu, 2014-01-27 A groundbreaking anthology containing the work of poets who have witnessed war imprisonment torture and slavery A companion volume to Against Forgetting Poetry of Witness is the first anthology to reveal a tradition that runs through English language poetry The 300 poems collected here were composed at an extreme of human endurance while their authors awaited execution endured imprisonment fought on the battlefield or labored on the brink of breakdown or death All bear witness to historical events and the irresistibility of their impact Alongside Shakespeare Milton and Wordsworth this volume includes such writers as Anne Askew tortured and executed for her religious beliefs during the reign of Henry VIII Phillis Wheatley abducted by slave traders Samuel Bamford present at the Peterloo Massacre in 1819 William Blake who witnessed the Gordon Riots of 1780 and Samuel Menashe survivor of the Battle of the Bulge Poetry of Witness argues that such poets are a perennial feature of human history and it presents the best of that tradition proving that their work ranks alongside the greatest in the language      First Loves Carmela Ciuraru, 2001 Readers will be delighted by the intimate reflections on life and poetry found in First Loves Affording close up views of today's best poets the book also re-introduces readers to the timeless poems they selected Featuring many Pulitzer Prize and National Book Award winners the book includes essays by Seamus Heaney Robert Pinsky Jorie Graham Yusef Komunyakaa and many others      American Yiddish Poetry Barbara Harshav, Benjamin Harshav, 2023-09-01 This book introduces a collection of twentieth century American poetry written in Yiddish aiming to bring this rich cultural and literary heritage to a broader audience It is designed not only for those who understand Yiddish but for all readers of poetry literature and history who seek to discover new themes and texts Yiddish poetry with its roots in cities like New York Chicago Tel Aviv and Vilna engages with major Modernist trends while creating its own unique poetic world The collection emphasizes that despite the language barrier the human topics and artistic achievements of Yiddish poetry are an essential part of global cultural heritage The challenge of conveying the essence of Yiddish poetry to readers unfamiliar with the language is significant but this anthology provides translated works that aim to preserve the original's meaning and poetic form The editors through daily collaboration and the support of several translators and experts have crafted translations that offer a glimpse into the powerful imagery and themes of Yiddish verse By incorporating insights from both poetry and visual art this volume positions Yiddish poetry within the broader landscape of twentieth century American cultural expression ensuring its place in the literary canon This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1986      American Yiddish Poetry Benjamin Harshav, Barbara Harshav, 2007 This remarkable volume introduces what is probably the most coherent segment of twentieth century American literature not written in English Includes a bilingual facing page format notes and biographies of poets and selections from Yiddish theory and criticism

Remarkable Russian Women in Pictures, Prose and Poetry Marcelline Hutton, 2013 Many Russian women of the late 19th and early 20th centuries tried to find authentic religious marital professional and political experiences Some very remarkable ones found these things in varying degrees while others sought unsuccessfully but no less desperately to transcend the generations old restrictions imposed by church state village class and gender Like a Slavic Downton Abbey this book tells the stories not just of their outward lives but of their hearts and minds their voices and dreams their amazing accomplishments against overwhelming odds and their roles as feminists and avant gardists in shaping modern Russia and indeed the twentieth century in the West In their own words and images and each in their own unique way these remarkable Russian women construct a fascinating tapestry of a culture at the crossroads of modernity and on the brink of catastrophe
