Gendering Global Transformations Chima J. Korie, Philomina E Okeke-Ihejirika,2008-11-19 This book employs gender as a category of analysis to capture the various ways men and women relate in society and the structures that define these relationships and place boundaries on them It presents alternative conceptual and theoretical approaches that tease out the nuances of gender as mediated by culture race and identity in a globalizing world The Evolution of Black African Entrepreneurship in the UK Ojo, Sanya,2018-12-14 Migrating to a different country can be difficult especially when attempting to start a business Africans who migrate to the UK manage to negotiate and forge relationships among themselves and with the members of their host society In doing so they not only demonstrate tactics to form self employment relationships but they also unveil socio cultural patterns and identity formation The Evolution of Black African Entrepreneurship in the UK explains why people leave Africa what they encounter their interactions with the host community their strategies of inclusion and perceived exclusions from the mainstream of British society This publication also provides information on the social changes and policies that African countries are adopting to negotiate the immigration and emigration processes of the diaspora communities Illustrating multiple aspects of Black African entrepreneurship that serve as a vehicle not only for self employment relationships but also for the unveiling of socio cultural patterns and identity formation this publication covers gender biases forced vs voluntary migration and diaspora entrepreneurship It is designed for policymakers managers entrepreneurs consultants practitioners professionals scholars students and researchers The Oxford Handbook of Greek Drama in the Americas Kathryn Boshier,Fiona Macintosh,Justine McConnell,Patrice Rankine,2015-11-05 The Oxford Handbook of Greek Drama in the Americas is the first edited collection to discuss the performance of Greek drama across the continents and archipelagos of the Americas from the beginning of the nineteenth century to the present The study and interpretation of the classics have never been restricted by geographical or linguistic boundaries but in the case of the Americas long colonial histories have often imposed such boundaries arbitrarily This volume tracks networks across continents and oceans and uncovers the ways in which the shared histories and practices in the performance arts in the Americas have routinely defied national boundaries With contributions from classicists Latin American specialists theatre and performance theorists and historians the Handbook also includes interviews with key writers including Nobel Laureate Derek Walcott Charles Mee and Anne Carson and leading theatre directors such as Peter Sellars Carey Perloff Hector Daniel Levy and Heron Coelho This richly illustrated volume seeks to define the complex contours of the reception of Greek drama in the Americas and to articulate how these different engagements at local national or trans continental levels as well as across borders have been distinct both from each other and from those of Europe and Asia Encyclopedia of African American Society Gerald D. Headings Library of Congress, Library of Congress. Subject Cataloging Division, Library of Congress. Office for Subject Cataloging Policy, 2013 AF Press Clips, 1975 Hepatocellular Carcinoma in Sub-Saharan Africa Michael Charles Kew, 2012-05 The book comprehensively covers all aspects of hepatocellular carcinoma cancer as it occurs in sub Saharan black Africans and how the cancer differs from that in other parts of the world in most of which it occurs infrequently The first chapter is introduced with a discussion of the difficulty in recording all cases of this cancer in sub Saharan Africa and then covers its epidemiology emphasising the very high incidence of liver cancer in sub Saharan black Africans The relatively young age at which the tumor occurs in comparison with the older age of the patients in resource rich regions is stressed The sex distribution of the cancer is also discussed The second chapter describes the ways in which hepatocellular cancer presents in black Africans its symptoms and signs and how its presentation differs from that in other parts of the world The third chapter summarises the grave outlook for patients with the tumor the very short survival times of the patients and the reasons for their deaths The fourth chapter discusses the diagnosis of the cancer and why this is far more difficult than it is in resource rich countries The fifth chapter deals with the pathology of the tumor its similarities and differences from that in other parts of the world The sixth chapter is the longest in the book and it deals comprehensively with the causes of liver cancer in sub Saharan Africa The major cause is chronic infection with the hepatitis B virus an infection acquired in early childhood and the possible mechanisms by which this may cause the cancer Other less common but still important causes in the subcontinent such as exposure to the fungal carcinogen aflatoxin chronic hepatitis C virus infection dietary iron overload

among Africans and membranous obstruction of the inferior vena cava are also discussed The seventh chapter discusses the difficulty in treating hepatocellular cancer and the poor results obtained in sub Saharan Africa in comparison with the results of treatment in industrialized countries The penultimate chapter presents possible ways to prevent the cancer or at least to detect it at a far earlier time than is currently the case and when it may be more amenable to treatment The current status of vaccination in preventing hepatitis B virus infection and hence liver cancer is discussed in detail The final chapter asks the question How can we improve the diagnosis and treatment of this dreadful malignant disease

A Short History of African Philosophy B. Hallen, 2002 In this accessible book Barry Hallen discusses the major ideas figures and schools of thought in African philosophy While drawing out critical issues in the formation of African philosophy Hallen focuses on the recent scholarship current issues and relevant debates that have made African philosophy an important key to understanding the rich and complex cultural heritage of Africa Hallen builds upon Africa's connections with Western philosophical traditions and explores African contributions to cultural universalism cultural relativism phenomenology hermeneutics and Marxism Hallen also examines African challenges to Western conceptions of philosophy by taking on questions such as whether philosophy can exist in cultures that are significantly based in oral traditions and what may or may not constitute philosophical texts Among the figures whose work is discussed are Ptah hotep Egypt 3rd millennium BCE Zar a Ya aqob Abyssinia 17th century Anton Wilhelm Amo Ghana 18th century Paulin Hountondji V Y Mudimbe Oyeronke Oyewumi Kwame Anthony Appiah and Kwasi Wiredu This clearly written highly readable and concise work will be essential for students and scholars of African philosophy as well as readers with a wide range of interests in African studies

Pan-Africanism, and the Politics of African Citizenship and Identity Toyin Falola, Kwame Essien, 2013-10-08 There is no recent literature that underscores the transition from Pan Africanism to Diaspora discourse This book examines the gradual shift and four major transformations in the study of Pan Africanism It offers an academic post mortem that seeks to gauge the extent to which Pan Africanism overlaps with the study of the African Diaspora and reverse migrations how Diaspora studies has penetrated various disciplines while Pan Africanism is located on the periphery of the field The book argues that the gradual shift from Pan African discourses has created a new pathway for engaging Pan African ideology from academic and social perspectives Also the book raises questions about the recent political waves that have swept across North Africa and their implications to the study of twenty first century Pan African solidarity on the African continent The ways in which African institutions are attracting and mobilizing returnees and Pan Africanists with incentives as dual citizenship for diasporans to support reforms in Africa offers a new alternative approach for exploring Pan African ideology in the twenty first century Returnees are also using these incentives to gain economic and cultural advantage The book will appeal to policy makers government institutions research libraries undergraduate and graduate students and scholars from many different disciplines
