Black and beautiful Marius Fortie,1971      Black and Beautiful Marius Fortie,2008-06 This scarce antiquarian book is a facsimile reprint of the original Due to its age it may contain imperfections such as marks notations marginalia and flawed pages Because we believe this work is culturally important we have made it available as part of our commitment for protecting preserving and promoting the world s literature in affordable high quality modern editions that are true to the original work      A Sacred Trust Michael D Callahan,2004-09-29 The second volume explains how the League of Nations mandates system fused two of the predominant and compelling global forces of the twentieth century imperialism and Wilsonian internationalism After the First World War Britain and France administered most of Germany s former tropical African colonies as mandates under the supervision of the League as a sacred trust of civilization This system of international trusteeship changed British and French rule in Africa In short mandates were not colonies Mandates meant less militarism more commercial equality a greater emphasis on the interests of Africans and an end to the extension of European national sovereignty over colonized peoples Accountability to the League also required the British and French to reconsider traditional economic strategic and ideological assumptions about their empires In the process the sacred trust sowed the seeds of self doubt about the very purpose and future of European imperialism The mandates system continued to represent a genuine internationalisation and reformation of colonialism and had long term economic political and cultural consequences for Africans and Europeans within the mandated territories Despite the Depression repeated Anglo French foreign policy failures growing humiliations for Geneva and war in Africa and Europe the principles and practices of international trusteeship proved persistent Mandates demonstrated the relevance of international law the importance of the League of Nations and the impact of Wilsonian principles on international relations and European imperialism      An Annotated Bibliography of the Visual Arts of East Africa Eugene C. Burt,1980 a landmark in the academic study of African art a remarkably useful bibliography warmly recommended African Arts this workmanlike compilation is admirable Choice      The Last Imperialist Bruce Gilley,2021-09-21 The Last Imperialist Sir Alan Burns Epic Defense of the British Empires studies Sir Alan Burns career and his arguments in defense of European colonialism Bruce Gilley describes Burns intellectual and policy battles with opponents of colonialism and his efforts to slow the decolonization process      Politics of Guilt & Pity R. J. Rushdoony,2019-07-17 From the foreword by Steve Schlissel Rushdoony sounds the clarion call of liberty for all who remain oppressed by Christian leaders who wrongfully lord it over the souls of God s righteous ones I pray that the entire book will not only instruct you in the method and content of a Biblical worldview but actually bring you further into the glorious freedom of the children of God Those who walk in wisdom s ways become immune to the politics of guilt and pity Man has trampled God s law under foot In doing so he has misused himself and trampled on the God given rights of his fellowman He is conscious of his guilt and seeks self justification through self atonement The author makes it perfectly clear that there is only one way of escape from present slough and despair It is in turning in heartfelt repentance to God who has already provided atonement in the sacrifice of His Son And true repentance includes a return to the doing of God s will as revealed in God s Word the Bible

Aspects of Colonial Tanzania History E.Y. Mbogoni,2012-11-20 Aspects of Colonial Tanzanian History is a collection of essays that examines the lives and experiences of both colonizers and the colonized during colonial rule in what is today known as Tanzania Dr Mbogoni examines a range of topics hitherto unexplored by scholars of Tanzania history namely excessive alcohol consumption the sundowners adultery and violence among the colonial officials attitudes to inter racial sexual liaisons especially between Europeans and Africans game poaching European settler vigilantism radio broadcasting film production and the nature of Arab slavery in Zanzibar A particularly noteworthy case related to European vigilantism is examined the trial of Oldus Elishira a Maasai for the murder of a European settler farmer in 1955 The victim Harold M Stuchbery was speared to death when he attempted to arrest a group of Maasai young men who were passing through his farm The event highlighted the differences in the concepts of justice held by Maasai and the imported justice systems from the colonizers It also raised vexing questions about the colonial judges acquittal of Oldus Elishira while the Maasai who should have been satisfied with that decision decided to take it upon themselves to mete out an appropriate punishment to Elshira instead of total acquittal and to compensate Mrs Stuchbery for the death of her husband by giving her a number of heads of cattle

Environmental History of Water Petri S. Juuti,Tapio Katko,H. Vuorinen,2007-02-01 The World Water Development Report 2003 pointed out the extensive problem that Sadly the tragedy of the water crisis is not simply a result of lack of water but is essentially one of poor water governance Cross sectional and historical intra national and international comparisons have been recognized as a valuable method of study in different sectors of human life including technologies and governance Environmental History of Water fills this gap with its main focus being on water and sanitation services and their evolution Altogether 34 authors have written 30 chapters for this multidisciplinary book which divides into four chronological parts from ancient cultures to the challenges of the 21st century each with its introduction and conclusions written by the editors The authors represent such disciplines as history of technology history of public health public policy development studies sociology engineering and management sciences This book emphasizes that the history of water and sanitation services is strongly linked to current water management and policy issues as well as future implications Geographically the book consists of local cases from all inhabited continents The key penetrating themes of the book include especially population growth health water consumption technological choices and governance There is great need for general long term analysis at the global level Lessons learned from earlier societies help us to understand the present crisis and challenges This new book Environmental History of Water provides this analysis by studying these lessons
