Black Carnival:

Dark Carnivals W. Scott Poole, 2023-10-03 The panoramic story of how the horror genre transformed into one of the most incisive critiques of unchecked American imperial power The American empire emerged from the shadows of World War II As the nation's influence swept the globe with near impunity a host of evil forces followed from racism exploitation and military invasion to killer clowns flying saucers and monsters borne of a fear of the other By viewing American imperial history through the prism of the horror genre Dark Carnivals lays bare how the genre shaped us distracted us and gave form to a violence as American as apple pie A carnival ride that connects the mushroom clouds of 1945 to the beaches of Amity Island Charles Manson to the massacre at My Lai and John Wayne to John Wayne Gacy the new book by acclaimed historian W Scott Poole reveals how horror films and fictions have followed the course of America's military and cultural empire and explores how the shadow of our national sins can take on the form of mass entertainment Selling Black Brazil Anadelia

Romo, 2022-01-18 In the early twentieth century Brazil shifted from a nation intent on whitening its population to one billing itself as a racial democracy Anadelia Romo shows that this shift centered in Salvador Bahia where throughout the 1950s modernist artists and intellectuals forged critical alliances with Afro Brazilian religious communities of Candomblé to promote their culture and their city These efforts combined with a growing promotion of tourism to transform what had been one of the busiest slaving depots in the Americas into a popular tourist enclave celebrated for its rich Afro Brazilian culture Vibrant illustrations and texts by the likes of Jorge Amado Pierre Verger and others contributed to a distinctive iconography of the city with Afro Bahians at its center But these optimistic visions of inclusion Romo reveals concealed deep racial inequalities Illustrating how these visual archetypes laid the foundation for Salvador's modern racial landscape this book unveils the ways ethnic and racial populations have been both included and excluded not only in Brazil but in Latin America as a whole

Excursions into Modernism Joyce Kelley,2017-05-15 Positioned at a crossroads between feminist geographies and modernist studies Excursions into Modernism considers transnational modernist fiction in tandem with more rarely explored travel narratives by women of the period who felt increasingly free to journey abroad and redefine themselves through travel In an era when Western artists writers and musicians sought primitive ideas for artistic renewal Joyce E Kelley locates a key similarity between fiction and travel writing in the way women authors use foreign experiences to inspire innovations with written expression and self articulation She focuses on the pairing of outward journeys with more inward introspective ones made possible through reconceptualizing and mobilizing elements of women's traditional corporeal and domestic geographies the skin the ill body the womb and the piano In texts ranging from Jean Rhys's Voyage in the Dark to Virginia Woolf's The Voyage Out and from Evelyn Scott's Escapade to Dorothy Richardson's Pilgrimage Kelley explores how interactions between geographic movement identity formation and imaginative excursions produce modernist experimentation Drawing on fascinating supplementary and archival materials such as letters diaries newspaper articles photographs and unpublished drafts Kelley's book cuts across national and geographic borders to offer rich and often revisionary interpretations of both canonical and lesser known works

When Brer Rabbit Meets Coyote Jonathan Brennan, 2003 An exploration of the literature history and culture of people of mixed African American and Native American descent When Brer Rabbit Meets Coyote is the first book to theorize an African Native American literary tradition In examining this overlooked tradition the book prompts a reconsideration of interracial relations in American history and literature Jonathan Brennan in a sweeping historical and analytical introduction to this collection of essays surveys several centuries of literature in the context of the historical and cultural exchange and development of distinct African Native American traditions Positing a new African Native American literary theory he illuminates the roles subjectivity situational identities and strategic discourse play in defining African Native American literatures Brennan provides a thorough background to the literary tradition and a valuable overview to topics discussed in the essays He examines African Native American political and historical texts travel narratives and the Mardi Gras Indian tradition suggesting that this evolving oral tradition parallels the development of numerous Black Indian literary traditions in the United States and Latin America

Cultural Heritage in a Changing World Karol Jan Borowiecki, Neil Forbes, Antonella Fresa, 2016-05-02 The central purpose of this collection of essays is to make a creative addition to the debates surrounding the cultural heritage domain In the 21st century the world faces epochal changes which affect every part of society including the arenas in which cultural heritage is made held collected curated exhibited or simply exists The book is about these changes about the decentring of culture and cultural heritage away from institutional structures towards the individual about the questions which the advent of digital technologies is demanding that we ask and answer in relation to how we understand collect and make available Europe's cultural heritage Cultural heritage has enormous potential in terms of its contribution to improving the quality of life for people understanding the past assisting territorial cohesion driving economic growth opening up employment opportunities and supporting wider developments such as improvements in education and in artistic careers Given that spectrum of possible benefits to society the range of studies that follow here are intended to be a resource and stimulus to help inform not just professionals in the sector but all those with an interest in cultural heritage

The Black Social Economy in the Americas Caroline Shenaz Hossein, 2017-09-18 This pioneering book explores the meaning of the term Black social economy a self help sector that remains autonomous from the state and business sectors With the Western Hemisphere's ignoble history of enslavement and violence towards African peoples and the strong anti black racism that still pervades society the African diaspora in the Americas has turned to alternative practices of socio economic organization Conscientious and collective organizing is thus a means of creating meaningful livelihoods In this volume fourteen scholars explore the concept of the Black social economy bringing together innovative research on the lived experience of Afro descendants in business and society in Argentina Brazil Canada Colombia Guyana Haiti Jamaica and the United States The case studies in this book feature horrific legacies of enslavement colonization and racism and they recount the myriad ways that persons of African heritage have built humane alternatives to the dominant market economy that excludes them Together they shed necessary light on the ways in which the Black race has been overlooked in the social economy literature Hybrid Identities

,2008-09-30 Combining theoretical and empirical pieces this book explores the emerging theoretical work seeking to describe hybrid identities while also illustrating the application of these theories in empirical research The sociological perspective of this volume sets it apart Hybrid identities continue to be predominant in minority or immigrant communities but these are not the only sites of hybridity in the globalized world Given a compressed world and a constrained state identities for all individuals and collective selves are becoming more complex The hybrid identity allows for the perpetuation of the local in the context of the global This book presents studies of types of hybrid identities transnational double consciousness gender diaspora the third space and the internal colony Contributors include Keri E Iyall Smith Patrick Gun Cuninghame Judith R Blau Eric S Brown Fabienne Darling Wolf Salvador Vidal Ortiz Melissa F Weiner Bedelia Nicola Richards Keith Nurse Roderick Bush Patricia Leavy Trinidad Gonzales Sharlene Hesse Biber Emily Brooke Barko Tess Moeke Maxwell Helen Kim Bedelia Nicola Richards Helene K Lee Alex Frame Paul Meredith David L Brunsma and Daniel J Delgado
