Nonfiction Southern Writers at Century's End Jeffrey J. Folks, James A. Perkins, 2021-12-14 Since the end of World War II the South has experienced a greater awareness of growth and of its accompanying tensions than other regions of the United States. The rapid change that climaxed with the war in Vietnam, the Cold War, civil rights demonstrations, and Watergate has forced the traditional South to come to terms with social upheaval. As the essays collected in Southern Writers at Century's End point out, southern writing since 1975 reflects the confusion and violence that have characterized late twentieth century public culture. These essays consider the work of twenty-one of the foremost southern writers whose most important fiction has appeared in the last quarter of this century. As the region's contemporary writers have begun to gain a wide audience, critics have begun to distinguish what Hugh Holman has called the fresh, the vital, and the new in southern literary culture. Southern Writers at Century's End is the first volume to take an extensive look at the current generation of southern writers. Authors considered include James Lee Burke, Fred Chappell, Robert Drake, Andre Dubus, Clyde Edgerton, Richard Ford, Kaye Gibbons, John Grisham, Barry Hannah, Mary Hood, Josephine Humphreys, Randall Kenan, Richard Marius, Bobbie Ann Mason, Cormac McCarthy, Tim McLaurin, T. R. Pearson, Lee Smith, Anne Tyler, Alice Walker, and James Wilcox. A

Violent Conscience Leonard Engel, 2010-03-08 Mysteries and detective stories are among the most popular of books, but the writers of such genre fiction suffer from a perception that their work is to be taken less seriously than so-called literary fiction. The novels of James Lee Burke, one of the most distinguished writers of crime novels, challenge that notion, as do the 12 essays in this collection. This work examines Burke as a writer who has expanded the mystery-detective genre with an astonishing diversity of themes, imaginative language, and descriptions, and unforgettable characters. He seems unbounded by limitations of genre. An interview with Burke is included. James Lee Burke Laurence W. Mazzeno, 2017-12-18 James Lee Burke is an acclaimed writer of crime novels in which protagonists battle low-life thugs who commit violent crimes and corporate executives who exploit the powerless. He is best known for his Dave Robicheaux series set in New Orleans and the surrounding bayou country. With characters inspired by his own family, Burke uses the mystery genre to explore the nature of evil and an individual's responsibility to friends, family, and society at large. This companion to his works provides a commentary on all of the characters, settings, events, and themes in his novels and short stories, along with a critical discussion of his writing style, technique, and literary devices. Glossaries describe the people and places and define unfamiliar terms. Selected interviews provide background information on both the writer and his stories. Angola to Zydeco R. Reese Fuller, 2011-09-01 Angola to Zydeco: Louisiana Lives is a collection of creative nonfiction pieces about the lively personalities who call south Louisiana home. Originally published in newspapers based in Lafayette, Times of Acadiana, and Independent Weekly, the twenty-five profiles and features provide intriguing glimpses into the lives of well-known Louisianans such as James Lee Burke, Ernest J. Gaines, Elemore Morgan Jr., Buckwheat Zydeco, Marc Savoy, Boozoo Chavis, Calvin Borel, Santy Runyon, and Eddie Shuler. Author R. Reese Fuller also details the sometimes zany and sometimes tragic subjects that populate

the cultural landscape of south Louisiana from Tabasco peppers to Angola prison to cockfighting Fuller brings years of experience in the newspaper industry to bear on this collection offering behind the scenes access not available elsewhere Of particular note are his interviews with musicians and local celebrities who reveal how their love of the region has influenced their work Fuller's natural approach to storytelling creates a book that is a joy to read and truly represents the people of south Louisiana

James Lee Burke and the Soul of Dave Robicheaux Barbara Bogue, 2015-01-27 When he created the character Dave Robicheaux author James Lee Burke lent the New Orleans homicide detective a few of his own characteristics a daughter named Alafair a lifetime struggle with alcohol his Roman Catholic faith and his love for fishing and the outdoors On the other hand Robicheaux is portrayed as a veteran of the Vietnam war something Burke never experienced firsthand Yet the demons Burke has known allow him to write convincingly about demons he never knew Thus Burke has created a realistic complex and compelling protagonist for his crime fiction series That depth is one element that elevates Burke's writing above the status of genre fiction This book explores how James Lee Burke through the first person narrative of detective Dave Robicheaux probes the world of law and order crime and disorder and one man's internal conflicts with modern moral issues The first chapter reveals the similarities and differences between real life creator and fictional protagonist Next chapters arranged by theme explore the roles of women Robicheaux's paternal side as revealed through his adopted daughter the paternal influences in the detective's own life and the contrasting personality of his half brother Jimmie The next chapters probe the roots of the detective's moral dilemmas his battle with alcohol the Vietnam war's lingering trauma and religion Next the author explores Burke's use of the supernatural sense of place and music to deepen his stories Final chapters delve into Robicheaux's moral quandaries as a law enforcement officer the character's contrast to his reckless and funny partner Cleve and how Burke reveals truths about life through Robicheaux An interview with Burke is included

The World Is Our Home Jeffrey J. Folks, Nancy Summers Folks, 2014-07-15 Since the early 1970s southern fiction has been increasingly attentive to social issues including the continuing struggles for racial justice and gender equality the loss
