Tragedy in Black and White Bob Cheney, 2001-08 What if race relations in the United States got so bad that the nation decided to try a radical idea separation The events that propel the country to such an extreme are riots disturbances in the armed forces and on college campuses and finally the assassination of a prominent black presidential candidate In this book a nation wide referendum approves the idea Three states are set aside for blacks only seven just for whites and the other 40 remain integrated The story follows Mike a white policeman to all white Miami black college professor Ben and his family to all black Chicago and young militant Sherman also to Chicago The brave new world that each was expecting proves elusive for both external and internal reasons This is a story about ambition love hate violence and betrayal Marriages will be sorely tried children will rebel against their parents careers will take abrupt and surprising turns All the manifestations of upheaval will be explored against a background of racial misunderstanding Woven into the story is a study of the background of racial conflict dating back to slavery and segregation Would such a solution to our racial troubles work

The Tragedy of the Negro in America Peter Thomas Stanford, 1898 Tragedies and Christian Congregations Christopher Southgate, Carla Grosch-Miller, Hilary Ison, Megan Warner, 2019-09-26 When tragedy strikes a community it is often unexpected with long lasting effects on the people left in its wake Too often there aren't adequate systems in place to aid those affected in processing what has happened This study uniquely combines practical theology pastoral insight and scientific data to demonstrate how Christian congregations can be helped to be resilient in the face of sudden devastating events Beginning by identifying the characteristics of trauma in individuals and communities this collection of essays from practitioners and academics locates sudden trauma inducing tragedies as a problem in practical theology A range of biblical and theological responses are presented but contemporary scientific understanding is also included in order to challenge and stretch some of these traditional theological resources The pastoral section of the book examines the ethics of response to tragedy locating the role of the minister in relation to other helping agencies and exploring the all too topical issue of ministerial abuse Developing a nuanced rationale for good practical pastoral liturgical and theological responses to major traumas this book will be of significant value to scholars of practical theology as well as practitioners counselling in and around church congregations over seventy five years youth ministries have breathed new vitality into four major American church traditions African American Evangelical Mainline Protestant and Roman Catholic Bergler shows too how this juvenilization of churches has led to widespread spiritual immaturity consumerism and self centeredness popularizing a feel good faith with neither intergenerational community nor theological literacy Bergler s critique further offers constructive suggestions for taming juvenilization Watch the trailer

Modern and Postmodern Narratives of Race, Gender, and Identity Yoriko Ishida, 2010 The alleged affair between Thomas Jefferson the third president of the United States and his slave Sally Hemings was proven as a fact by DNA analysis in 1998 While many historians continue to deny the affair some have accepted the love affair between Jefferson and Hemings as fact and many historical omissions regarding the affair have been revised since the 1998 DNA results However the identity and the dignity of the Hemings family which were previously ignored in the official history have been restored not only by science but also by literature This book examines how African American writers have depicted the issues of race gender and identity for Sally Hemings and her descendants in modern and postmodern novels The Black Coptic Church Leonard Cornell

Between the World of Ta-Nehisi Coates and Christianity David Evans, Peter Dula, 2018-10-24 Between the world of Ta-Nehisi Coates and Christianity there appears to be the widest difference Coates's brief comments on Christianity in his highly acclaimed Between the World and Me make clear that religious faith is alien to his own experience Still Christian audiences from congregations to theological schools engaged the text for its analysis of the state of race relations in the United States In September 2015 Ta-Nehisi Coates tweeted Best thing about Between the World and Me is watching Christians engage the work Serious learning experience for me This volume takes that tweet as an invitation to theologians ethicists and religious studies scholars to engage the book and as a challenge to do so in a way that is a learning experience for Coates the authors and readers

The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1974 Filaments: Theological Profiles David Tracy, 2020-04-10 Collected essays spanning five decades imposing structure on a set of reflections from one of the most visionary and expansive living theologians Journal of the American Academy of Religion In the second volume of his two volume collection of essays from the 1980s to 2018 renowned Catholic theologian David Tracy gathers profiles of significant theologians philosophers and religious thinkers These essays he suggests can be thought of in terms of Walt Whitman's filaments which are thrown out from the speaking self to others ancient medieval modern and contemporary in order to be caught elsewhere Filaments arranges its subjects in rough chronological order from choices in ancient theology such as Augustine through the likes of William of St Thierry in the medieval period and Martin Luther and Michelangelo in the early modern and finally to modern and contemporary thinkers including Bernard Lonergan Paul Tillich Simone Weil Karl Rahner Reinhold Niebuhr and Iris Murdoch Taken together these essays can be understood as a partial initiation into a history of Christian theology defined by Tracy's key virtues of plurality and ambiguity Marked by surprising insights and connections Filaments brings the work of one of North America's most important religious thinkers once again to the forefront To read Filaments is to be educated and enriched by a remarkable breadth of inquiry and depth of analysis Tracy's passion for theological conversation is fueled by a desire for justice and peace but also by wonder at the unending love and creativity of God Critical Theology James Baldwin's God Clarence E. Hardy, 2003 James Baldwin's relationship with black Christianity and especially his rejection of it exposes the anatomy of a religious heritage that has not been wrestled with sufficiently in black theological and religious studies In James Baldwin's God, Sex, Hope, and Crisis in Black Holiness Culture Clarence Hardy demonstrates that Baldwin is important not only for the ways he is connected to black religious culture but also for the ways he chooses to disconnect himself from it Despite Baldwin's view that black religious expression harbors a sensibility that is often vengeful and that its actual content is composed of illusory promises and empty theatrics he remains captive to its energies rhythms languages and themes Baldwin is forced on occasion to acknowledge that the religious fervor he saw as an adolescent was not simply an expression of repressed sexual tension but also a sign of the irrepressible vigor and dignified humanity of black life Hardy's reading of Baldwin's texts with its goal of understanding Baldwin's attitude toward a religion that revolves around an uncaring God in the face of black suffering provides provocative reading for scholars of religion literature and history The Author Clarence Hardy is an assistant professor of religion at Dartmouth College His articles have appeared in the Journal of Religion and Christianity and Crisis My Faith as an African Jean-Marc Ela, 2009-05-01 At a time when Africans like other peoples are facing the shock of technological and cultural modernity liberation of the oppressed must be the primary condition for an authentic inculturation of the Christian message This is the central axis of the papers in this book which begins with the questions of faith posed by cultural variables an internal dimension of the African's condition In order to understand what is at stake we need to place these matters in the overall context of a society and a history marked by conflicts which lead to a rereading of our African memory The basic issue of the Credibility of Christianity is being raised from within the dynamic which allows Africans to escape from the inhumanity of the destiny to which certain factors would condemn them So critical reflection on the relevance of an African Christianity requires us to identify the structures or strategies of exploitation and impoverishment against which Africans have always struggled finding their own specific forms of resistance within their cultures
