Robertson, Natalie Shivers, 2019-07-05 Drawing on the vast archival resources of its Architecture and Design Collection the UCSB Art Design Architecture Museum University of California Santa Barbara presents an assessment of 50 years of design by Barton Myers b 1934 beginning with his work in the Toronto firm A J Diamond and Barton Myers 1967 1975 to his own offices in Toronto and Los Angeles Barton Myers Associates 1975 present Myers s strongest architectural ideas come out of the planning strategies of his early neighborhood activism in 1970s Toronto his grounding in history and his training in the classical traditions of site and space planning Barton Myers is an avowed urbanist a self described radical in his early advocacy of old fashioned qualities like density mixed use of new and re purposed materials and contextual planning in the late 1960s when that fundamentally conservative position was considered counter culture Myers urban manifesto was codified in Vacant Lottery the title of the Design Quarterly issue co edited by Myers and Canadian architect and educator George Baird in 1978 and which led to a renewal of interest in urban planning and offered a strategy for increasing population densities within cities while preserving the existing residential fabric The term lived on long past the journal s circulation cycle as both an urban infill strategy and an acknowledgment of the ceding of city planning responsibility to the lottery of private developers Myers s design practice has thus always been a social justice practice as well Myers is also a brilliant designer of residential houses that take advantage of local landscape contexts and adaptive reuse of building materials including steel and glass Five essays on urban planning civic structures reuse of historic buildings single and multi family housing and theaters reinforce Myers s commitment to urbanism and reveal his flexibility with modes of modernism Natalie Shivers introduces the early planning work in Toronto and traces the vacant lottery idea of neighborhood infill to the influential Grand Avenue project in Los Angeles Howard Shubert examines the architectural and planning strategies and political complexities of several civic structures in Canada and the United States Luis Hoyos explores Myers s additions and adaptations to historic buildings in diverse urban contexts Lauren Bricker focuses on the use of steel and other industrial materials in Myers s houses and analyses the neighborhood based designs of his multi family housing Charles Oakley describes the technical innovations site planning and historical underpinnings of Myers s theaters and performance complexes

Catalogue of the St. Louis Mercantile Library St. Louis Mercantile Library Association, 1892 Global Goods and the Country House Jon Stobart , 2023-11-20 Global goods were central to the material culture of eighteenth century country houses Across Europe mahogany furniture Chinese wallpapers and Indian textiles formed the backdrop to genteel practices of drinking sweetened coffee tea and chocolate from Chinese porcelain They tied these houses and their wealthy owners into global systems of supply and the processes of colonialism and empire Global Goods and the Country House builds on these narratives and then challenges them by decentring our perspective It offers a comparative framework that explores the definition ownership and meaning of global goods outside the usual context of European imperial powers What were global goods and what did they mean for wealthy landowners in places at the periphery of Europe Sweden and

Wallachia in the British colonies of North America and the Caribbean or in the extra colonial context Japan or Rajasthan By addressing these questions this volume offers fresh insights into the multi directional flow of goods and cultures that enmeshed the eighteenth century world And by placing these goods in their specific material context from the English country house to the princely palaces of Rajasthan we gain a better understanding of their use and meaning and of their role in linking the global and the local A History of India Under the Two First Sovereigns of the House of Taimur, Báber and Humáyun William Erskine,1854
