The Ma'luf in Contemporary Libya Philip Ciantar, 2016-03-03 The musical tradition of Ma luf is believed to have come to North Africa with Muslim and Jewish refugees escaping the Christian reconquista of Spain between the tenth and seventeenth centuries Although this Arab Andalusian music tradition has been studied in other parts of the region until now the Libyan version has not received Western scholarly attention This book investigates the place of this orally transmitted music tradition in contemporary Libyan life and culture It investigates the people that make it and the institutions that nurture it as much as the tradition itself Patronage music making discourse both about life and music history and ideology all unite in a music tradition which looks innocent from the outside but appears quite intriguing and intricate the more one explores it

The Tragedy of the Templars Michael Haag, 2012-11-01 In 1187 nearly a century after the victorious First Crusade Saladin captured Jerusalem The Templars headquartered on the Temple Mount were driven from the city along with the Frankish population The fall of Jerusalem was a turning point the start of a narrative of desperate struggle and relentless loss In little more than a century Acre would be destroyed the Franks driven from Outremer and the Templars themselves reviled and disgraced would face their final immolation Michael Haag s new book explores the rise and fall of the Templars against the backdrop of the Crusader ideal and their settlement venture in Outremer Haag argues that the Crusader States were a rare period when the population of Palestine had something approaching local rule representing local interests and the fall of Jerusalem to Saladin was a disaster He contends that the Templars as defenders of the Crusader States were made scapegoats for a Europe whose newfound nationalism caused it to withdraw support for the Crusader venture Throughout he charts the Templars rise and fall in gripping narrative with their beliefs and actions set in the context of their time

Williams, 2025-05-01 An inside account of conflict collapse and innovative approaches to reconstruction in Libya's challenging post 2011 landscape Middle East Record Volume 2, 1961 Yitzhak Oron, 1961 The Routledge
