Best of Covered Wagon Women Kenneth L. Holmes, 2014-10-20 The diaries and letters of women who braved the overland trails during the great nineteenth century westward migration are treasured documents in the study of the American West These eight firsthand accounts are among the best ever written They were selected for the power with which they portray the hardship adventure and boundless love for friends and family that characterized the overland experience Some were written with the skilled pens of educated women Others bear the marks of crude cabin learning with archaic and imaginative spelling and a simplicity of expression All convey the profound effect the westward trek had on these women For too long these diaries and letters were secreted away in attics and basements or collected dust on the shelves of manuscript collections across the country Their publication gives us a fresh perspective on the pioneer experience Covered Wagon Women Kenneth L. Holmes, David Duniway, Elliott West, 2000-05-01 Forty years after the legendary overland travels of Oregon pioneers in the 1840s Lucy Clark Allen wrote the excitement continues Economic hard times in Minnesota sent Allen and her husband to Montana in hopes of evading the droughts grasshoppers and failed crops that had plagued their farm Allen and her compatriots in this volume of Covered Wagon Women experienced a journey much different than that of their predecessors Many settlements now awaited those bound for the West with amenities such as hotels and restaurants as well as grain suppliers to provide feed for the horses and mules that had replaced the slower oxen in pulling wagons Routes were clearly marked some had been replaced entirely by railroad tracks Nevertheless many of the same dangers fears and aspirations confronted these dauntless women who traveled the overland trails Covered Wagons Jennifer Quasha, 2000-12-15 Briefly discusses American westward expansion in the 1800s with related projects and activities such as making a small covered wagon flatboat house trail journal and lantern The Covered Wagon Emerson Hough, 2011-06-01 Acclaimed Western writer Emerson Hough died only days after attending the premiere of the movie based on his novel The Covered Wagon The story follows a caravan of early settlers as they make their way from the Midwest to the Pacific coastline The novel offers a fascinating glimpse into the lives of pioneers Covered Wagon Women Marsha E. Montoya, David Duniway, Kenneth L. Holmes, 1999-04-01 The overland trails in the 1860s witnessed the creation of stage stations to facilitate overland travel These stations placed every twenty or thirty miles ensured that travelers would be able to obtain grain for their livestock and food for themselves They also sped up the process of mail delivery to remote Western outposts Tragically the easing of overland travel coincided with renewed conflicts with the Cheyenne and other Plains Indians The massacre of Black Kettle's people at Sand Creek instigated two years of bloody reprisals and counterreprisals Amid this turmoil and change these daring women continued to build on the example set by earlier women pioneers As Harriet Loughary wrote upon her arrival in California after two thousands of miles in an ox team making an average of eighteen miles a day enduring privations and dangers When we think of the earliest pioneers we feel an untold gratitude towards them Covered Wagon

Days Albert Jerome Dickson,1989-01-01 Albert Jerome Dickson was fourteen years old in 1864 when he left LaCrosse Wisconsin in a small caravan of covered wagons headed for Montana Territory Thousands of emigrants had preceded him on the Oregon Trail but none ever described the journey in sharper detail Covered Wagon Days recreates the daily progress of Dickson s party which included his guardians Joshua and Rebecca Ridgley The logistics of such a trip the sights along a trail marked by ruts and fresh graves the rigors of camping the encounters with Indians and returning pilgrims and vigilantes running after road agents all figure in Dickson s memoir The payoff for the Ridgleys is not the gold being discovered in the mountains near Virginia City but a fine farm in Gallatin Valley As vivid as any novel about the Oregon Trail and pioneering in the Northwest Covered Wagon Days first published in 1929 is based on journals and materials that were edited by the author s son Arthur Jerome Dickson The Covered Wagon: A History Ralph K. Covered Wagon Women: 1852, The Oregon Trail Kenneth L. Holmes,David Duniway,1995-01-01 V 1 The women who traveled west in covered wagons during the 1840s speak through these letters and diaries Here are the voices of Tamsen Donner and young Virginia Reed members of the ill fated Donner party Patty Sessions the Mormon midwife who delivered five babies on the trail between Omaha and Salt Lake City Rachel Fisher who buried both her husband and her little girl before reaching Oregon Still others make themselves heard starting out from different places and recording details along the way from the mundane to the soul shattering and spirit lifting Covered Wagon Women: 1852, The California Trail Kenneth L. Holmes,David Duniway,1995-01-01 In 1852 a record number of women helped keep the wagons rolling over the perilous western trails The fourth volume of Covered Wagon Women is devoted to families headed for California that year Diaries and letters of six pioneer women describe the rigors en route trailside celebrations and tragedies the scourge of cholera and encounters with the Indians Covered Wagon Women, Volume 11 Kenneth L. Holmes,David Duniway,Katherine Morrissey,1995-01-01 The stories seem simple they left they traveled they settled yet the restless westering impulse of Americans created one of the most enduring figures in our frontier pantheon the hardy pioneer persevering against all odds Undeterred by storms ruthless bandits towering mountains and raging epidemics the women in these volumes suggest why the pioneer represented the highest ideals and aspirations of a young nation In this concluding volume of the Covered Wagon Women series we see the final animal powered overland migrations that were even then yielding to railroad travel and in a few short years to the automobile The diaries and letters resonate with the vigor and spirit that made possible the settling and community building of the American West Covered Wagon Women: 1854-1860 Kenneth L. Holmes,Shirley A. Leckie,1998-01-01 Some of the women traveling west in the late 1850s were strong advocates of equal rights for their sex On the trail Julia Archibald Holmes and Hannah Keziah Clapp sensibly wore the freedom costume called bloomers In 1858 Holmes joined the Pikes Peak gold rush and was the first woman of record to climb the famous mountain Educator Hannah Clapp traveled to California with a revolver by her side speaking her mind in a letter included in this volume which is also enriched by the trail diaries of seven other women Among them were Sarah Sutton who died in 1854 just before reaching Oregon s Willamette Valley Sarah Maria Mousley a Mormon woman traveling to Utah in 1857 and Martha Missouri Moore who drove thousands of sheep from Missouri to California with her husband in 1860 Covered
