Jacqueline B. Williams

Covered Wagon Days:

Covered Wagon Days Albert Jerome Dickson, 1989-01-01 Albert Jerome Dickson was fourteen years old in 1864 when he left LaCrosse Wisconsin in a small caravan of covered wagons headed for Montana Territory. Thousands of emigrants had preceded him on the Oregon Trail but none ever described the journey in sharper detail. Covered Wagon Days recreates the daily progress of Dickson's party which included his guardians Joshua and Rebecca Ridgley. The logistics of such a trip, the sights along a trail marked by ruts and fresh graves, the rigors of camping, the encounters with Indians and returning pilgrims and vigilantes running after road agents all figure in Dickson's memoir. The payoff for the Ridgleys is not the gold being discovered in the mountains near Virginia City but a fine farm in Gallatin Valley. As vivid as any novel about the Oregon Trail and pioneering in the Northwest, Covered Wagon Days first published in 1929 is based on journals and materials that were edited by the author's son Arthur Jerome Dickson. Covered Wagon Days Oliver G. Swan, 1935 San Bernardino Steven Shaw, 2007 Located 60 miles east of Los Angeles in the heart of Southern California and nestled at the base of the San Bernardino National Forest is the city of San Bernardino. Originally incorporated in 1854 it is the oldest anchor city of the Inland Empire and is the seat of the largest county in the United States. The rich history of the valley includes visits from Spanish missionaries, pioneers Jedediah Smith and Kit Carson and Presidents Theodore Roosevelt, Lyndon Johnson, Ronald Reagan, Bill Clinton and George W. Bush. Wyatt Earp was just a teenager when his family arrived here in 1864. Home to the National Orange Show and the famous natural landmark Arrowhead, the city also boasts a stretch of the popular Route 66.

The narrative provides an in-depth discussion of the ship's origins as the collier USS Jupiter which was built with a first of propulsion system that has been adapted for use in present-day Ford-class carriers. Author David F Winkler considers the post-World War I debate for procuring carriers, the decision to convert Jupiter and the identification of constructor Clayton Simmers as the father of the American aircraft carrier. The evolution of the Langley as an experimental ship was tied to the introduction of new doctrine for the United States. Promoting an independent naval air arm against Brig Gen Billy Mitchell's vision of an independent air force, the U.S. Navy saw Langley as an operational aircraft carrier that would change the way the Navy fought wars at sea. While the story of Langley is that of the origins of naval air combat, it is also a record of the vessel's service in World War II until the ship's final posting to the Asiatic Fleet where she met her demise on February 27, 1942 off the southern coast of Java. Many of the U

S Navy s pioneering naval aviators are closely associated with this ship including Kenneth Whiting John H Towers Godfrey DeCourcelles Chevalier Virgil C Griffith Mel Pride Patrick N L Bellinger Joseph M Reeves Gerald Bogan Aubrey Fitch Felix Stump Ernest J King Warren G Child Dan Gallery and Frank D Wagner A number of these individuals would go on to play critical roles during World War II Langley s story is their story Aircraft carriers remain the centerpiece of American sea power projection America s First Aircraft Carrier provides the context on how CV 1 the Covered Wagon and carrier development and utilization came to be Wagon Wheel Kitchens Jacqueline B.
