

The background of the entire page is a still life photograph. It features several potted plants. A large, prominent plant with broad, dark green leaves and some reddish-pink variegation is in the center. To its left is a smaller, round, light-colored ceramic pot filled with a dense, low-growing plant with small, reddish-brown flowers. In the foreground, on a rustic wooden surface, are two gardening tools: a long-handled trowel and a smaller hand tool, possibly a dibble or a small trowel. To the right of the tools is a small, empty, light-colored ceramic pot. The lighting is soft and directional, creating gentle shadows and highlighting the textures of the leaves and the wood.
