One Child Reading Margaret Mackey,2016-03-31 In One Child Reading Margaret Mackey makes a singular contribution to our understanding of reading and literacy development Seeking a deeper sense of what happens when we read she revisited the texts she read viewed listened to and wrote as she became literate in the 1950s and 1960s in St John s Newfoundland This tremendous sweep of reading included school texts knitting patterns musical scores and games as well as hundreds of books The result is not a memoir but rather a deftly theorised exploration of how a reader is constructed

Intentional From the Start Carolyn Helmers,Susan Vincent,2023-10-10 Intentional from the Start Guiding Emergent Readers in Small Groups Carolyn Helmers and Susan Vincent take a concentrated look at the often underestimated reading and writing work that occurs during the emergent reading stages of literacy development PreA D and the seemingly simplistic books we use to teach them in small group guided reading Though both may appear unsophisticated these earliest readers and the texts we use to meet their needs are each unique and full of nuances that generally go overlooked The authors explore how emergent readers learn best and position text levels appropriately in the service of students They also turn their attention to a comprehensive exploration of the particular needs of emergent readers and how the work they do at text levels PreA D lays a critical foundation necessary for them to continue growing successfully into text levels E and beyond As they examine the needs of learners working at each emergent text level individually the authors Detail specific demands books in that text level make on young readers and the best ways to coach students as they work through them Highlight instructional procedures for reading writing and word study that can be implemented
