Birds Of Big Bend National Park And Vicinity:

Birds of Big Bend National Park and Vicinity Roland H. Wauer, 1973 Big Bend National Park is the leading park for bird sightings in the National Park Service More species have been recorded there than in any other national park Birds of Big Bend National Park and Vicinity is the most up to date book about birds of the area and where they may be seen within and near the park It is a where to go and see what book not just a field guide to bird identity This comprehensive discussion of what birds occur in this area where best to find them and when to see them is intended to help the birder find the particular birds he wants to see It is also designed for the reader with a general interest in nature or with a special interest in the Big Bend area Sections include a description of the Big Bend country including all of the plant communities a thorough discussion of bird finding at all seasons a history of ornithological study within the Big Bend area and a complete annotated list of species The list of species includes a discussion of all 385 birds recorded for Big Bend National Park as well as a discussion of species known for other parts of the Big Bend from the Rio Grande to the David Mountains and Lake Balmorhea A detailed map of the area is provided and there are 17 photographs and 8 paintings in full color Cover Birds of Big Bend National Park and Vicinity Roland H. Wauer, 1971

Birds of Zion National Park and Vicinity* Roland H. Wauer, 1997 A completely revised edition of the basic birding book for the Zion National Park region this is a guide to finding the hundreds of species that frequent the magnificent landscape in and around the park It includes descriptions of the diverse habitats of Zion instructions on bird finding by season and migration an annotated list of all bird species that have been recorded in the park with notes on where and when they were observed thirty four pen and ink bird portraits by wildlife artist Mimi Hoppe Wolf and additional color illustrations by Howard Rollin and the author
