Man, Medicine and Space Michael Martin-Smith,2000 Man Medicine and Space is a wide ranging philosophical and historical exploration of human activity in Space written for the interested general reader It is not an encyclopedia nor a textbook but seeks to answer in plain language the question What on Earth is Humanity doing in Space and why is it doing it As we enter a new Millennium many writers and thinkers are asking if Humanity's curiosity science and technology are really benign forces or if they serve the long term interests of our species This book gives perhaps uniquely resoundingly positive answers and suggests further that we may have after all discovered through science the true role of Humanity in a evolving Universe In a time of uncertainty and rising superstition this book proposes a Destiny for Mankind which unlike previous such programs can be built by vision hard work and discipline and which threatens no others human or animal In summary it offers a positive future for the long term which can realize the unlocked creative potential for of our species It is a supreme Humanist affirmation for our times

At the Threshold of the Image Andrea Pinotti,2025-09-16 An exploration of the impact of immersive experiences on visual practices from cave painting to virtual reality In this groundbreaking book philosopher Andrea Pinotti explores the impacts of a desire that has motivated human beings since prehistory the desire to enter an image He proposes that over the centuries every culture has tried to realize this wish with whatever visual resources were available at the time and today's virtual reality technologies seem close to fulfilling it The image in VR becomes an immersive 360 degree environment and the frame that used to confine it to a world apart disappears Even the physical medium in which the image materializes appears to be transparent However Pinotti insists that once the border between the real world and the iconic world becomes permeable we are faced with a troubling two way passage we penetrate the world of the image but the image floods into our world The desire for being encompassed by the image he shows is accompanied by fear of this overflowing In its analysis of this desire fear At the Threshold of the Image takes the reader on an extraordinary journey from the myths of Narcissus and Pygmalion to contemporary VR headsets passing through the pictorial traditions of trompe l'oeil and living sculptures the mirrors in Alice in Wonderland illusionistic architecture panoramas and phantasmagorias and 3D cinema
