Ontario Birds , 1999 Birds of Toronto Toronto (Ont.). City Council, 2009 The Bird-Friendly City Timothy Beatley, 2020-11-05 How does a bird experience a city A backyard A park As the world has become more urban noisier from increased traffic and brighter from streetlights and office buildings it has also become more dangerous for countless species of birds Warblers become disoriented by nighttime lights and collide with buildings Ground feeding sparrows fall prey to feral cats Hawks and other birds of prey are sickened by rat poison These name just a few of the myriad hazards How do our cities need to change in order to reduce the threats often created unintentionally that have resulted in nearly three billion birds lost in North America alone since the 1970s In The Bird Friendly City Timothy Beatley a longtime advocate for intertwining the built and natural environments takes readers on a global tour of cities that are reinventing the status quo with birds in mind Efforts span a fascinating breadth of approaches public education urban planning and design habitat restoration architecture art civil disobedience and more Beatley shares empowering examples including advocates for catios enclosed outdoor spaces that allow cats to enjoy backyards without being able to catch birds a public relations campaign for vultures and innovations in building design that balance aesthetics with preventing bird strikes Through these changes and the others Beatley describes it is possible to make our urban environments more welcoming to many bird species Readers will come away motivated to implement and advocate for bird friendly changes with inspiring examples to draw from Whether birds are migrating and need a temporary shelter or are taking up permanent residence in a backyard when the environment is safer for birds humans are happier as well

Ornithologies of Desire Travis V. Mason,2013-09-03 Ornithologies of Desire develops ecocritical reading strategies that engage scientific texts field guides and observation Focusing on poetry about birds and birdwatching this book argues that attending to specific details about the physical world when reading environmentally conscious poetry invites a critical humility in the face of environmental crises and evolutionary history The poetry and poetics of Don McKay provide Ornithologies of Desire with its primary subject matter which is predicated on attention to ornithological knowledge and avian metaphors This focus on birds enables a consideration of more broadly ecological relations and concerns since an awareness of birds in their habitats insists on awareness of plants insects mammals rocks and all else that constitutes place The book s chapters are organized according to apparatus that is science as ecocritical tool flight and song Reading McKay s work alongside ecology and ornithology through flight and birdsong both challenges assumptions regarding humans place in the earth system and celebrates the sheer virtuosity of lyric poetry rich with associative as well as scientific details The resulting chapters interchapter and concordance of birds that appear in McKay s poetry encourage amateurs and specialists birdwatchers and poetry readers to reconsider birds in English literature on the page and in the field More Than Birds Val

Shushkewich,2012-11-17 Once people encounter the natural world and become aware of its intricacy fragility beauty and significance they will recognize the need for conservation The fascinating development of natural history studies in North America is portrayed through the life stories of 22 naturalists The 19th century saw early North American naturalists such as Alexander Wilson the Father of American Ornithology John James Audubon and Thomas Nuttall describing and illustrating the spectacular flora and fauna they found in the New World Scientists of the Smithsonian Institution and the Canadian Museum of Nature worked feverishly to describe and catalogue the species that exist on the continent Great nature writers such as Florence Merriam Bailey Cordelia Stanwood Margaret Morse Nice Louise de Kiriline Lawrence and Roger Tory Peterson wrote in depth about the lives and behaviours of birds Early conservationists such as Jack Miner the Father of Conservation created nature preserves Today noted naturalists such as Robert Nero Robert Bateman Kenn Kaufman and David Allen Sibley do everything they can to encourage people to experience nature directly in their lives and to care about its protection and preservation Toronto's Last Rainbow Margaret Blair,2017-01-09 Toronto s Last Rainbow paints a nostalgic portrait of Toronto in a bygone era from the point of view of one central neighbourhood It catches the spirit of the times just ahead of the feminist era With poignancy and humour it follows an amazing cast of real and imaginary residents each with a strong and unique voice each human and fallible through their daily lives This book features serious issues of the time such as the lack of access to safe abortion and the growing number of divorces Then most mothers stayed at home Parents had the time to organize for their children annual events like the Summerhill Fair with free candy floss and donkey rides in the summer and Halloween in late fall However feminist issues were stirring family life would be changing women were looking to work outside the home and showing a growing interest in non traditional areas of work Residents then faced issues like bullying suicide and a violent crime in the neighbourhood that resonate today During 1969 Canada became officially bilingual the important Morgentaler decision started the nation s move towards safe abortion Toronto s citizens elected a new city government devoted to a changed concept of development turning away from building expressways across the city centre This pivotal year saw the start of a twenty year era of progress for the then City of Toronto The Canadian Magazine ,1894 Canadian Magazine of Politics, Science, Art & Literature ,1894 The Canadian Magazine of Politics, Science, Art and Literature ,1894 The Canadian Magazine of Politics, Science, Art & Literature J.
