Books in Print Supplement ,1994 Birnbaum's Los Angeles, 1993 Alexandra M. Birnbaum,1992-12-04

Monumental Intolerance: Jean Baffier, a Nationalist Sculptor in Fin-de-Si_cle France , But Baffier would probably not have received wide public attention if he had not also become a folklorist a promoter of regional culture and a militant nationalist with beliefs so violent that he attempted a political assassination BOOK JACKET Birnbaum's Los Angeles, 1994 Alexandra M. Birnbaum,1994 The Individual and Utopia Clint Jones,Cameron Ellis,2016-03-09 Central to the idea of a perfect society is the idea that communities must be strong and bound together with shared ideologies However while this may be true rarely are the individuals that comprise a community given primacy of place as central to a strong communal theory This volume moves away from the dominant current macro level theorising on the subject of identity and its relationship to and with globalising trends focusing instead on the individual s relationship with utopia so as to offer new interpretive approaches for engaging with and examining utopian individuality Interdisciplinary in scope and bringing together work from around the world The Individual and Utopia enquires after the nature of the utopian as citizen demonstrating the inherent value of making the individual central to utopian theorizing and highlighting the methodologies necessary for examining the utopian individual The various approaches employed reveal what it is to be an individual yoked by the idea of citizenship and challenge the ways that we have traditionally been taught to think of the individual as citizen As such it will appeal to scholars with interests in social theory philosophy literature cultural studies architecture and feminist thought whose work intersects with political thought utopian theorizing or the study of humanity or human nature

The End of Racism Dinesh D'Souza,1996-09-30 The first comprehensive inquiry into the history nature and ultimate meaning of racism Birnbaum's United States, 1995 Alexandra M. Birnbaum,1995 Propaganda and Persecution Renée Poznanski,2024-01-23 Ren e Poznanski s magisterial history of the French Resistance during World War II offers a comprehensive exploration of the most significant issue in that period s social imaginary the Jewish question With extraordinary nuance she analyzes the discourse around Jews and Judaism that pervaded the Resistance s propaganda and debates while closely examining the fate of Jews under Vichy and after Poznanski argues that Jews in France suffered a double persecution one led by the Vichy government the other imposed by the Nazis Marginalization and exclusion soon led to internment and deportation to terrifying places Meanwhile a propaganda war developed between the Resistance and the official voice of Vichy Poznanski draws on a breathtaking array of sources especially clandestine publications and French language BBC transmissions to show how the Resistance both fought and accommodated the deeply entrenched antisemitism within French society Her close readings of propaganda texts against public opinions probe ambiguities and silences in Resistance writing about the persecution of the Jews and in parallel the numerous and detailed denunciations that could be read in the Jewish clandestine press This extensive synthesis extends to the post Liberation period during which the ongoing persecution of Jews in Europe and North Africa would be portrayed as secondary to the suffering of the nation The winner of the 2009 Henri Hertz Prize by the Chancellerie des Universit s de Paris Sorbonne Propaganda and Persecution makes major contributions to the study of the Resistance and of antisemitism Lenn J Schramm s English translation brings Poznanski s dynamic prose to life Gabriel Orozco Ann Temkin,2009 From the developer of Beyond the Double Bind Kathleen Hall Jamieson,1995 A breakthrough account of how women can overcome the social binds that block their success As Kathleen Hall Jamieson explores society s interlaced traps and restrictions she draws on hundreds of interviews with women from all walks of life to show the ways they can cut through the restrictions Financing the 1992 Election Herbert E. Alexander,Anthony Corrado,1995 The Financing series constitutes a unique resource The volume on the 1992 campaigns is an example of the series at its best There is not much in the study of American politics that merits the word indispensable but these nine volumes do American Political Science Review Lift Every Voice Lani Guinier,1998 In 1993 shortly after his inauguration new President Bill Clinton nominated his old friend and classmate Lani Guinier to the prestigious and crucial post of Assistant Attorney General for Civil Rights In the face of concerted opposition what one friend of Guinier s called a low tech lynching Clinton backed down not only withdrawing her nomination but having refused throughout to give her an opportunity to speak out in her own defense and his The result was a civil rights setback of monumental proportions Now in this book at once a memoir and insider s account of what really happened behind the closed doors of the Oval Office the Justice Department and the U S Senate and an insightful look at the past present and future of civil rights in America Lani Guinier at last breaks her silence Unsparing of her own mistakes and shrewdly perceptive about the overt and hidden agendas of those who opposed her Professor Guinier shows how the president promptly abandoned his ambitious agenda for civil rights at the first hint of criticism from the media and Congress and how the civil rights movement suffered a major setback as a result Above all Guinier goes on to describe how her experience at the hands of the press the White House and her congressional enemies has given her both a new voice and a renewed faith in the ongoing struggle for civil rights Using her own nomination as a symbolic point of reference she shows just how weak and divided the cause of civil rights has become as its leaders have all too often been silenced by the very people they should be challenging Holocaust Film Terri Ginsberg,2009-03-26 This timely new monograph takes as its starting point the provocative contention that Holocaust film scholarship has been marginalized academically despite the crucial role Holocaust film has played in fostering international awareness of the Nazi genocide and scholarly understandings of cinematic power The book suggests political and economic motivations for this seeming paradox the ideological parameters of which are evident in debates and controversies over Holocaust films themselves and around Holocaust culture in general Lending particular attention to four exemplary Holocaust art films Korczak Poland 1990 The Quarrel Canada 1990 Entre Nous France 1983 and Balagan Germany 1994 this book breaks disciplinary ground by drawing critical connections between public and scholarly debates over Holocaust representation and the often sophisticated cinematic structures lending aesthetic shape to them in today's global arena
