A Life of Scholarship with Santayana Herman J. Saatkamp Jr., 2021-01-25 An entire lifetime's work by Herman J. Saatkamp is collected here in A Life of Scholarship with Santayana: Essays and Reflections. From the first essay published in 1972 to the latest in 2017, almost fifty years of scholarship is given a fresh embodiment of expression. Saatkamp is considered by many to be the world's foremost authority on George Santayana's life and thought. Not only does this volume bring into clear relief Saatkamp's understanding of Santayana, the editing process and genetic concerns, and the future of philosophy, but it also betrays a lucid and humane understanding that aptly personifies a life spent in reflection, a discerning sense of appreciation, and an affirmation of life and learning.

Neoplatonism and Contemporary Thought R. Baine Harris, 2001-11-20 Significant twentieth-century thinkers offer views of Neoplatonism as having relevance to contemporary life and thought. Specifically discussed is how Neoplatonism relates to contemporary science and contemporary philosophy, including metaphysics and environmental thought. Contributors include Jay Bregman, John Charles Cooper, Christos Evangelios, David Fidler, Lewis S. Ford, F. P. Hager, Curtis L. Hancock, Kelly Parker, R. Baine Harris, Robert Meredith Helm, Paul G. Kuntz, Peter Manchester, Scott A. Olsen, Kelly Parker, David Rodier, Joseph Sen, Huston Smith, Atsushi Sumi, and Michael F. Wagner.

Cosmopolitanism and Place Jessica Wahman, José M. Medina, John J. Stuhr, 2017-08-28 Addressing perspectives about who we are, the importance of place and home, and the many differences that still separate individuals, this volume reimagines cosmopolitanism in light of our differences, including the different places we all inhabit and the many places where we do not feel at home. Beginning with the two-part recognition that the world is a smaller place and that it is indeed many worlds, Cosmopolitanism and Place critically explores what it means to assert that all people are citizens of the world everywhere in the world, as well as persons bounded by a universal and shared morality.

Philosophy, Humor, and the Human Condition Lydia Amir, 2019-12-19 This book presents an original worldview, Homo risibilis, wherein self-referential humor is proposed as the path leading from a tragic view of life to a liberating embrace of human ridicule. Humor is presented as a conceptual tool for holding together contradictions and managing the unresolvable conflict of the human condition, till Homo risibilis resolves the inherent tension without epistemological cost. This original approach to the human condition allows us to effectively address life's ambiguities without losing sight of its tragic overtones and brings along far-ranging personal and social benefits. By defining the problem that other philosophies and many religions attempt to solve in terms we can all relate to, Homo risibilis enables an understanding of the Other that surpasses mere tolerance. Its egalitarian vision roots an ethic of compassion without requiring metaphysical or religious assumptions and liberates the individual for action on others behalf It offers a new model of rationality which effectively handles and eventually resolves the tension between oneself others and the world at large Amir s view of the human condition transcends the field of philosophy of humor An original worldview that fits the requirements of traditional philosophy Homo risibilis is especially apt to answer contemporary concerns It embodies the minimal consensus we need in order to live together and the active role philosophy should responsibly play in a global world Here developed for the first time in a complete way the Homo risibilis worldview is not only liberating in nature but also illuminates the shortcomings of other philosophies in their attempts to secure harmony in a disharmonious world for a disharmonious human being
