Bit Off The Map Other Stories:

A Bit off the Map and Other Stories Angus Wilson, 2009-06-04 Written in the 1950s the eight stories collected here are brilliantly of their time the decade of rubber plants espresso bars and skiffle of Suez Teddy Boys and Angry Young Men With compassion and deadly accuracy Angus Wilson charts the scandals and secrets of the respectable middle classes Kenzie the Borstal Boy mascot of an intellectual clique June Raven an SW3 hostess who gets over involved with one of her publisher husband s authors Lord Peacehaven retired megalomaniac Maurice Liebig teenage pawn in a family feud and the mad old man who finds the justice of God in a hen roost The Trimmed Lamp and Other Stories Henry O., The Phantom Rickshaw and Other Stories Rudyard Kipling, 1891 The Children and the Sage and Other Stories ... Illustrated Children, 1871 A Visit to Priapus and Other Stories Glenway Wescott, 2013-11-29 Just as E M Forster s novel of gay love Maurice remained unpublished throughout his lifetime Glenway Wescott s long story A Visit to Priapus was also destined to be a posthumous work buried from 1938 until this century in Wescott s massive archive of manuscripts journals notebooks and letters The autobiographical story is about a literary man frustrated in love who puts aside his pride and makes a date with a young artist in Maine Lavishly rendered in Wescott s elegant prose the tale is explicit where it needs to be but as is typical of Wescott it is filled with descriptive beauty and introspective lessons about sex and sexuality love and creativity Previously published in anthology form in the United Kingdom A Visit to Priapus is presented for the first time in book form in America containing previously uncollected stories including three never before published The result is a candid portrayal of the gifted but enigmatic writer who was famous in youth and remained a perceptive and compassionate voice throughout his long life Drawn together from midcentury literary journals and magazines of the 1920s and 1930s as well as from Wescott s papers the stories were inspired by his life from childhood to old age from Wisconsin farm country to New York London Germany and Paris Finalist Gay General Fiction Lambda Literary Awards The Box Social and Other Stories James Reaney, 1996 The Box Social Other Stories gathers together nine of James Reaney s short fictions written in the 40s and early 50s and never previously collected in book form The collection takes its title from a short piece the author originally published in the University College Undergrad and which provoked a firestorm of eight hundred angry letters from subscribers when it was republished nationally in the New Liberty in the late 40s It also thwarted the young author s designs on the editorship of the Undergrad because of his clear moral unsuitability for such an august position This is doubtful because the Undergrad eventually came to be edited thirty years later by PQL publisher Tim Inkster The Box Social is remarkable not only that it introduced the theme of date rape to Canadian literature some thirty years before the phrase was coined but also that it is told from Sylvia s point of view and yet again that it ends with one of the quietest lines of literary vitriol imaginable I hated you so much she said softly If Alice Munro has put the sexually awakening female under glass in Lives of Girls and Women then The Box Social could just as easily have been titled Lives of Boys and Men In The Bully the brutality of what passes for etiquette in secondary school is contrasted with the simpler life of the farm personified in Noreen who drops grain in the shape of letters to feed her chickens so that when the hens ate the grain they were forced to spell out Noreen's initials or to form a cross and circle. There were just enough hens to make this rather an interesting game. Sometimes I know Noreen spelled out whole sentences in this way a letter or two each night and I often wondered to whom she was writing up in the sky. The Bully was included in The New Oxford Book of Canadian Short Stories edited by Margaret Atwood and Robert Weaver. The young Margaret Atwood first encountered The Bully as an undergraduate. She read the story oddly enough in an anthology edited by Robert Weaver and the experience was apparently seminal to her own development as a writer of fiction.

Reflections on the Work of Colin Wilson Colin Stanley, 2019-02-14. When the archive of the English philosopher and polymath Colin Wilson 1931-2013 was officially opened at the University of Nottingham UK in the summer of 2011 it was agreed among those present that a conference should be held there to discuss his work. In July 2016 the First International Colin Wilson Conference was staged with the Proceedings being published a year later. The success of that conference inevitably meant that a second was arranged and held two years later in July 2018. This volume which will be of interest to scholars and fans of Wilson's work in addition to students of philosophy and consciousness studies contains the transcripts of the papers presented on July 6 2018 day one of that second conference. Experts scholars and fans from around the globe gathered to hear and present papers on a variety of Wilson related topics ranging from Existentialism to the Occult from Robert Musil to classical music and from Transpersonal Psychology to Transcendental Evolution.

Young,2017-03-02 The Blue Lattice Network is a collection of short stories that all reside in the Bluebird Territory A man made nation that divides people by talents and personalities The Protectors & Other Stories Nasir Mahmood,2011-04-20 This collection of short stories takes its title from one of the stories contained in it The Protectors All stories are basically romantic in nature but they are not simple love stories Their themes have all the colours and their myriad shades to afford you a panoramic view of the world we live in The first story for example is that of a boy whose rebellious nature not accepting the norms of a corrupt society struggles to achieve a job on the basis of his qualification and not on the recommendation of a friend Another story deals in defence of the motherland from the vicious attack of a rival force Then there is a story which gives a graphic picture of a poverty stricken housing scheme where women forgetting about their self respect stoop so low as to adopt a life style both execrable and pitiable but there are women and there are women In brief the book touches on unemployment indignity of a religious family and inheritance inciting to murder A story each describes the horrendous custom of doing away with female foetuses the ugly face of feudalism and foundering efforts of a courtesan to escape to a righteous life Last but not least is the story of educated youth who for want of any reasonable job resort to robbery The book takes you along on a journey which unravels a picture of unspeakable misery some people are subjected to One would feel the milk of human kindness is drying up fast One could read these stories with a view to killing time but if they pause and think well that is exactly what these stories are aimed at The room in the tower, and other stories E.
