The Collected Works of J. Krishnamurti Jiddu Krishnamurti, J. Krishnamurti, 1991 In this volume Krishnamurti takes great care to elucidate this necessity of a revolution within our consciousness where the problem lies before we expect any kind of revolutionary change outside of ourselves Krishnamurti posits that if the politicians and scientists wanted to end starvation in the world it could be done It could be done but they are not going to do it as long as their thinking is based on nationalism on motives of their own personal profit And even if this far reaching outward change were brought about it seems to me that the problem is much deeper The problem is not merely starvation war the brutality of man to man it is the crisis in our own consciousness Fundamentally the problem lies within p 295
